A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARC

Fr. Marc Bishop - Pastor
St. Agnes and St. Camillus

Dear Faith Family,

This Sunday is the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This is the concluding Sunday of the Liturgical Year- Year B or the Year of St. Mark. It is called the Year of St. Mark because we predominately read from St. Mark's Gospel on Sundays. However, we end the year with a reading from the Gospel of John (Jn 18:33b-37). John depicts the dialogue between Pilate and Jesus when Pilate asks Jesus: "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus does not directly answer Pilate. In fact, he asks Pilate questions instead of answering. When Jesus is pressed further he says: "My kingdom does not belong to this world... ." And, it truly does not. Jesus is not the king of a finite place for a particular period of time. Jesus Christ is the King of the Universe- the Lord of all time and places. Christ is the witness to the Truth that He is.

Our role in this unfolding story of salvation is to be witness too. We witness by not being so concerned about this world. Rather we serve this world in order to orient people to the World to come. The fullness of Truth is to be found only in the eternal reality that is the Kingdom of God. Next week we begin the new liturgical year - the Year of St. Luke. Advent marks the beginning of our new Liturgical Year.

"Advent has a two-fold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight (Universal Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, 39). As such Advent is a time of pensive anticipation for the coming of the Lord. To prepare ourselves properly we can benefit from acts of generosity, penance, and spiritual practices. It is like an abbreviated Lent. One way that I have heard Advent described is the period of housecleaning before an honored and hoped-for guest arrives.

I pray that your Advent is one full of "expectant delight."

God Bless,
Fr. Marc

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY SUNDAYS DECEMBER 5 AND 12

Starting at 3:00 PM in the St. Agnes Hall of Hope (the lower church), we will be gathering to experience the video "Changed Forever: The Death of Someone You Love." When someone we love dies, our lives are changed forever. The pain and sorrow we feel seems as if it will never end. In this therapeutic, new video presentation you will see and hear others discuss what you are going through right now. You will learn how to let yourself walk through your grief without letting it overwhelm you. Testimonies of people who have recently experienced the death of a loved one, as well as experts in the field, talk about how to slowly integrate the loss you have experienced and the grief that comes with it, into a life that is changed forever. At the gathering, we will view segments of the video and share as we are able our own experiences of grief. Light refreshments will be available. The topics to be shared are: The death of a loved one; Grief is individual; Grief has physical, emotional, and spiritual effects; Grief has no timeframe; Complicated grief; Grief versus depression.

BLUE CHRISTMAS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19

On Sunday, December 19th at 3:00 PM St. Agnes Upper Church we will have a celebration of "Blue Christmas". This time of year can be particularly stressful for those who are grieving a loss, all the more when complicated by the COVID pandemic when the rituals of grief have been halted or changed. "Blue Christmas" is a time to gather with others who are grieving in the presence of God seeking consolation and support. All who feel the need to gather are welcome.

MUSIC NOTES from Roger

This week we find a very lively set of hymns for our celebration of "Christ the King." It is truly befitting that a Mass for this Sunday should be about high praise and affirmation of the Kingship of Jesus Christ. We open with "Crown Hymn with Many Crowns," a very familiar hymn to us all. It's tune name, Diademata, is derived from the Greek, meaning "crowns." This hymn first appeared in 1851 and it originally had 12 verses. Each verse begins with a declaration of Jesus' Kingly estate: Crown him the virgins' Son; Lord of Lords; Lord of Peace; Lord of Heaven; Lord of Life; Lord of Love—just to name a few. The original final verse ends with "Crown him, ye kings, with many crowns, for He is Lord of All." The Offertory hymn, "Lift up your heads, O mighty gates," is taken from Psalm 24, a majestic song of praise to the King of Glory. This hymn of praise to Christ the King is also a foretelling of the coming of Christ. This hymn is appropriate at two liturgical points. Not only is it a hymn of praise to Christ the King, but with Advent upon us next week, it seems a fitting hymn for the coming of Christ. In fact, it is most often found in the Advent section of our hymn book as well as a suggested hymn for this day the final day of the liturgical year, the Solemnity of Christ the King. "Lift up your Heads," to the tune known as Truro, began to appear in various different hymnals by the mid-1800s.

Our recessional hymn, "To Jesus Christ our Sovereign King," is a real 'rouser' for congregations to sing. It is set to the German tune, Ich Glaub an Gott ("I believe in God"), and was first published in 1870 in the Mainz Gesangbuch, a Roman Catholic Hymnbook from the area of Mainz, Germany. One of the highlights of the hymn is its powerful refrain, "Christ Jesus, Victor! Christ Jesus, ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and Redeemer!" Whenever I play this hymn in any church, I always marvel and how strongly and confidently the congregation sings.

It is interesting to note that all three of these hymns have come to us from the same time period, that of the mid-19th century. In fact, they all pre-date the establishment of the Feast Day of Christ the King in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. Is it just a coincidence that the mid-19th century produced such a lasting legacy of music; were the writers of hymnody on to something really special at that time in music history? That could be debated for a long time based on musical preference and musical ideology. What I do believe without question is very simple; these are examples of great hymns that have been revered by congregations for many decades and even centuries. They have obviously withstood the test of time and have endured. Two quotes from Pope Benedict XVI speak to the great traditions in our liturgies:

"What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too..."

"Great music distends the spirit, arouses profound emotions and almost naturally invites us to raise our minds and hearts to God in all situations of human existence, the joyful and the sad. Music can become prayer."

SECOND READING, SECOND COLUMN: LONG LIVE CHRIST THE KING

REVELATION 1:5-8

Christ is our King. But who is sitting on his throne? Each November, the Church concludes the liturgical year with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The Sunday and daily Mass readings point toward his kingship. Christ reigns now as king of the universe and he will return at the end of time in all his glory. Although this king reigns in heaven, his throne is of this earth. His throne is the human heart. He seeks to reign over our hearts out of love for us. This excerpt from the Book of Revelation sheds light on some aspects of this kingship.

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness (or prophet) of the Father's love for us. His public ministry, life, death, and resurrection prove this title. His power places him over all kings and rulers of this earth. At the same time, the blood of his cross turns his faithful subjects into priest-kings. He allows us Christians to share in his priesthood and in his kingship. As baptized priests, all Christians offer their lives to the Father. As kings, we live on this earth as children of the Father. We all have thrones awaiting us in heaven. This first section from Revelation alludes to these three offices of Christ. He is priest, prophet, and king. To show his glory, he makes us his priests, prophets, and kings. This Feast of Christ the King is the annual pause by which we reflect on our Christian dignity. Before we begin to prepare a place for the baby Jesus in Bethlehem, we reflect on this past year. Has Christ had the most important place in my heart? Have I lived 2021 as a priest, prophet, and king?

Both the end of the year (Christ the King) and its beginning (Advent) consider the end of time. Yes, this idea can be terrifying. It is part of humanity. At different moments during his passion, Christ shows how our human nature recoils from suffering and death. How much more repulsive is end of the universe? But we can direct this fear toward doing something good. The Book of Revelation addresses this concern. Christ returns to reward us according to our deeds. He is the first and the last, the Alpha and the Omega. He is the first and last reasons why we do good things. If it is challenging for us to continue following Christ, this feast reminds us why we ask for his help and push ourselves. We can reignite our desire to reign with him in heaven. If we have fallen short as Christians, we have time now to confess our sins and profess our allegiance: Viva Cristo Rey!

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY PARTICIPATE IN THE GLOBAL CONVERSATION!

Over the next year, the Church around the world will be participating in a process called the Synod on Synodality.

That process will begin here in Boston now with asking as many people as possible to take a simple survey. The link to the survey can be found here: <https://forms.office.com/r/aPadVsPFt9>

In this process, we hope to be able to make some contribution to the global conversation on synodality. More importantly, we hope to improve the synodality of various local institutions here in the Archdiocese, as well as of the Archdiocese itself.

Thank you for your participation!

SECOND READING

Rev 1: 5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. / Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, / and every eye will see him, / even those who pierced him. / All the peoples of the earth will lament him. / Yes. Amen.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty.”

ALLELUIA

Mk 11: 9, 10

✠. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

GOSPEL

Jn 18: 33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?” Pilate answered, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?” Jesus answered, “My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here.” So Pilate said to him, “Then you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
