WELCOME

REMEMBERING OUR VETERANS

This holiday weekend, we remember those who sacrificed so much for our freedom. Together, we pray:

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid
for the liberty we possess,
we ask you to bless the members
of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support,
gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector,
leading them from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise,
now and forever. Amen.

GENEROSITY

OUR GRAND ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Thank you to all who have given so generously to the Grand Annual Campaign. Your support allows us to expand our ministries and spiritual support while maintaining a large Collaborative campus. To learn more about our mission, please take an Annual Report as you leave the church or view it online <https://cparl.org/2022-annual-report>.

As you discern your financial support, we hope you will consider how you may share your time and talents with our Collaborative. As Fr. Marc said in the Annual Report, "each of us has a unique and valuable understanding of our faith, our community, and how to serve one another. In order to become the collaborative that God intends us to be and pass on the gift of faith now and for future generations, we each must contribute the time, talent, and treasure entrusted to us by God."

MUSIC NOTES from Roger

The world and our lives are made up of a continuous flow of rhythms. Birth and death, the stages of life - infancy through maturity to old age, the seasons of the year, natures changes throughout those seasons, even the simplicity of the rising and setting of the sun, or the rhythm of the tides and the cycles of the moon. Our worship life in the church is also guided by a continuous flow of seasons of a three-year cycle in the Catholic Church. Our current liturgical year, year C, or the third year in the cycle is quickly coming to a close. This week is the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time followed by Christ the King Sunday next week on November 20, which is the final Sunday of this liturgical year. I am sure that you are all quite aware that it is also the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Even our secular celebrations are seeming to fly by. Halloween is past, Veterans Day is over and very shortly we will be gathering with our families around a table for a Thanksgiving Day dinner. That particular holiday weekend will also announce the Advent season and the beginning of a new liturgical church year.

As a church musician, my life is always marked by the different celebrations and liturgies that we encounter throughout the year. Whether it is advance planning, rehearsing a choir or soloist, practicing my own craft of playing the organ or singing, or simply taking part in the moment of worship, my focus is on the beauty of the liturgy as well as the larger view of the entire journey throughout the cycles. You may be interested to realize that our choir is already busy rehearsing Christmas music for the coming season.

We all know the phrase, tempus fugit or time flies. Grab on to the beauty and joy that we experience as Catholics in our worship. It is ever changing. Savor the familiar and become enriched with the new as we move through our seasons of song and prayer. As in the words of many of the great composers and artists,

Soli Deo Gloria
Glory to God alone

HEARTBEAT PREGNANCY HELP BABY BOTTLE RETURN THIS WEEK

Heartbeat is flooded as never before with the influx of pregnant mothers needing help. They have helped 585 families so far this year- projected to be over 700 by years end- and costs are up for baby gear.

Heartbeat is a local, all-volunteer run organization that gives direct help to families in our area. Over 95% of contributions go directly to family assistance. Much work and effort are put into purchasing and diligence in spending funds. Heartbeat relies on the generosity of people in parishes like ours to support its work.

Please return your bottles at St. Agnes or St. Camillus the weekend of November 13th and 14th.

Donations can also be mailed directly to: Heartbeat Pregnancy Help, PO Box 153 Burlington, MA 01803

Thank you and God Bless You!

A SEASON OF HOPE BEREAVEMENT GROUP TO BEGIN

In the Gospel story of Lazarus being raised from dead we read, "And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother" (John 11:19). From the earliest days, the faith community has gathered to support those who grieve. If you are in need of consolation following the death of a loved one, this Christ-centered faith sharing group is for you.

We will meet as a group on six Sundays: December 4th, 11th, January 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th. From 3:00 PM – 4:30 PM at St. Agnes/lower church. We will follow the Season of Hope, a Catholic bereavement group curriculum focusing on prayer, Scripture, discussion and fellowship. On Sunday, December 18th, all are invited to a special Blue Christmas Service at 3:00 PM at St. Agnes.

If you are interested in learning more, please contact Mary Wessel at info@cparl.org.

FIRST READING

Mal 3: 19-20a

Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the LORD of hosts. / But for you who fear my name, there will arise / the sun of justice with its healing rays.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

℣. Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn
sing joyfully before the King, the LORD.

℣. Let the sea and what fills it resound,
the world and those who dwell in it;
let the rivers clap their hands,
the mountains shout with them for joy.

℣. Before the LORD, for he comes,
for he comes to rule the earth,
He will rule the world with justice
and the peoples with equity.

SECOND READING

2 Thes 3: 7-12

Brothers and sisters: You know how one must imitate us. For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received free from anyone. On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day we worked, so as not to burden any of you. Not that we do not have the right. Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us. In fact, when we were with you, we instructed you that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat. We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others. Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their own food.

ALLELUIA

℣. Stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.

GOSPEL

Lk 21: 5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here— the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."
