A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARC

Fr. Marc Bishop - Pastor
St. Agnes and St. Camillus

Dear Faith Family,

You may have noticed that the Collaborative Lenten Theme is "I thirst." I chose this theme inspired by Saint Mother Teresa and the Missionaries of Charity (MC). Mother Teresa required that the words "I thirst" be displayed next to the crucifix in each Chapel of the MC's. She did this to personalize the words of Christ from the Cross. Jesus is not speaking generally or abstractly. He was pleading spiritually. Commonly we think of these words abstractly: "Jesus' thirst for souls." This is true but allows us to keep Christ and His Cross distant. I think a better way for us to hear these words is "Marc, I thirst for you." (Insert your name.)

Mother Teresa said: "We have these words in every chapel of the MCs to remind us what an MC is here for: to quench the thirst of Jesus for souls, for love, for kindness, for compassion, for delicate love." Is this solely the work of the MCs? I think not.

We who hear God's words from the Cross have a personal role in satiating the thirst of Christ. We may not be called to the radical and profound witness of the MC's. (Some of us may be.) However, we are called in accord with our own state in life to be actively quenching the thirst of Christ, embracing: "kindness, compassion, and delicate love."

In a time when many think it is appropriate to be incendiary, our campaign of conversion and holiness is rightly focused on quenching. Not to be inflamed by the destructive motives of this world but be led by the hope of satiation (completeness) in the world to come.

From where do we find this path? In prayer, especially Eucharistic Adoration. Adoring the Crucified and Risen Lord in the tabernacle. It is from that intimate moment from which one hears Christ say to them "I thirst for you" that one can truly unite their will to God's and become an instrument of His purpose, to be an instrument to help others hear those same words.

To do that requires understanding that Christ thirsts for each of us individually. Say this next line aloud placing the name of one you love and one you know needs your kindness/compassion/delicate love. (Insert name), I thirst for you. Hear God's words and respond.

March 27th through March 29th, at 6:30 PM in St. Camillus Church, we have an opportunity to connect to the words of Christ. Our community will gather centered on the Eucharist and move forward in His mission. Please, join me and your fellow parishioners at our collaborative Lenten Mission.

God Bless,
Fr. Marc

"I Thirst"

A MEDITATION ATTRIBUTED TO SAINT MOTHER TERESA

Begin by getting into a comfortable position, breathing deeply, letting your entire body relax. Let the worries and cares you've been carrying fade into the background.

I THIRST FOR YOU.

Yes, that is the only way to even begin to describe My love for you:

I THIRST FOR YOU.

I thirst to love you
And to be loved by you — that is how precious you are to Me.

I THIRST FOR YOU.

Come to Me,
And I will fill your heart and heal your wounds.
I will make you a new creation, and give you peace,
even in all your trials.

I THIRST FOR YOU.

You must never doubt My mercy,
My acceptance of you, My desire to forgive,
My longing to bless you and live My life in you.
I THIRST FOR YOU.

If you feel unimportant in the eyes of the world,
that matters not at all.
For Me, there is no one more important in the entire world than you.
I THIRST FOR YOU.

Open to Me, come to Me, thirst for Me, give Me your life — and I will prove to you how important you are to My heart.

Pause to think about what you want most from God, right now, in this time and space.
Don't you realize that My Father already has a perfect plan to transform your life, beginning from this moment?

Trust in Me.

Ask Me every day to enter and take charge of your life — and I will.

I promise you before My Father in heaven that I will work miracles in your life.

Why would I do this?

Because I THIRST FOR YOU.

All I ask of you is that you entrust yourself to Me completely.

I will do all the rest.

Even now, I behold the place My Father has prepared for you in My Kingdom.

Remember that you are a pilgrim in this life, on a journey home.

Sin can never satisfy you or bring the peace you seek.
All that you have sought outside of Me has only left you more empty, so do not cling to the things of this life.

Above all, do not run from Me when you fall.

Come to Me without delay.

When you give Me your sins,
you give Me the joy of being your Savior.
There is nothing I cannot forgive and heal,
so come now and unburden your soul.

No matter how far you may wander,
no matter how often you forget Me,
no matter how many crosses you may bear in this life, there is one thing I want you to always remember, one thing that will never change:

I THIRST FOR YOU —

just as you are.

You don't need to change to believe in My love, for it will be your belief in My love that will change you.

You forget Me,
and yet I am seeking you every moment of the day standing at the door of your heart, and knocking.

Pause and ask yourself: Do you ever doubt God's love for you? Listen to Jesus . . . and believe.

FASTING

A Pillar of Lent

When we think of fasting during Lent, most often we think of cutting back our food consumption. Fasting as a spiritual benefit challenges us to look deeply at our desires and temptations, making a conscious decision to prune behaviors that separate us from an intimacy with God. It is an exercise in humility.

Some ways you can fast are:

- From perfection and control
- From unchaste thoughts, words, and actions
- From the extra helping during dinner
- From wanting what I don't have
- From neglecting your spouse, friendships, and/or yourself
- From road rage
- From (excessive) social media usage

“Fasting cleanses the soul, raises the mind, subjects one’s flesh to the spirit, enders the heart contrite and humble, scatters the clouds of concupiscence, quenches the fire of lust, kindles the true light of chastity.”

— ST. AUGUSTINE

SAINT PATRICK

(Friday) is the Feast of St. Patrick, the great missionary to Ireland and the patron saint of the Archdiocese of Boston. We should reflect on his many virtues and try to imitate him.

As a teenager living in Britain, Patrick, who was then not particularly religious, was kidnapped by Irish pirates and taken to Ireland as a slave. He developed his relationship with God when spending long nights in prayer while tending sheep. After six years in slavery, he trusted in God and escaped and travelled two hundred miles to the Irish coast where he was able to negotiate passage back to Britain.

While back home, he had a dream in which the people of Ireland said to him, “We appeal to you, holy youth, to come and walk among us.” Patrick took this as a message from God and he acted on it. He studied for the priesthood and was later made bishop at a fairly young age. He was then sent back to Ireland to attempt to convert the pagan Irish people to the Catholic faith. Although he had not received as much training and education as most bishops, he was quite qualified for the job because of his zeal and because he knew the Irish language and culture from his time as a slave.

St. Patrick took to heart the words of Jesus. He did not go to Ireland “to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Unlike the rich man in today’s gospel, he was not oblivious to the needs of others. He was courageous and risked his life numerous times in his clashes with the Irish druids and in his attempts to convert the heathen Irish people to the one true faith. He spent his life in service to the people of Ireland and was overwhelmingly successful in their conversion to Catholicism.

Do we spend time in prayer like St. Patrick? Do we trust in God, like he did? Are we trying our best to follow God’s will in our lives? Do we have at least a small portion of St. Patrick’s zeal and daring missionary spirit? Like him, are we concerned about others’ eternal souls? Have we invited them to attend Mass or to more actively participate in the life of the Church? With St. Patrick in mind, have we considered that, if we bring just one person back to the Catholic faith, we could be affecting multiple generations?

~ Tom Harvey, CPARL Parishioner

FEAST OF SAINT PATRICK DISPENSATION

Friday, March 17th

This year, the Feast of St. Patrick, the patron saint of our Archdiocese, falls on a Friday during Lent. Given the importance of this feast in the life of the Archdiocese and in the lives of many Catholics, Cardinal Seán is granting a one day dispensation to those who wish to take advantage of it.

I arise today, through
God's strength to pilot me,
God's might to uphold me,
God's wisdom to guide me,
God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me,
God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me,
God's shield to protect me,
God's host to save me...
- The Lorica of Saint Patrick

Roger Mansen
Director of Liturgy and Music

MUSIC NOTES from Roger

Have you ever thought about getting more involved and taking a more active role in the presentation of our Masses here in the Arlington Catholic Collaborative? There are many ways in which you can take part through the many different liturgical ministries: ushers, lectors, altar servers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion; even simply greeting folks as they come in for Mass. Are you being called to serve in any of these ministries? This season of Lent is a great time to reflect in your prayer life and ask yourself if the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve. I encourage you to pray about it during this time of penitence and reflection. There will be a series of Liturgical Workshops soon after Easter where you can come together for a presentation and talk with folks who are currently doing some of these ministries. Watch the bulletin for future dates and times for these opportunities.

During Lent, we sing the Chant Mass settings for the sung portions of the Mass which include Lord Have Mercy, Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamation, Amen and Lamb of God.

Our liturgies are intentionally quieter and more prayerful in spirit as we journey through these 40 days with our Lord. At the conclusion of the Mass, rather than the usual closing or recessional hymn, we sing the Marian Antiphon, Ave Regina Caelorum.

Here is a shorter translation of the antiphon that would make a lovely devotion in your prayers:
Hail, Queen of heaven,
hail Lady of the angels,
Hail root and gate from which the Light of the world was born.
Rejoice glorious Virgin, fairest of all.
Fare thee well, most beautiful,
and pray for us to Christ.

PRAYER

A Pillar of Lent

Why do we pray? St. Thomas Aquinas in the Summa Theologia noted: “We need to pray to God, not in order to make known to him our needs or desires but that we ourselves may be reminded of the necessity of having recourse to God’s help in these matters.” In other words, we pray as a way of turning ourselves to God and in remembrance that only Jesus saves. The continued act of turning our hearts and minds to God in prayer creates within us a habitual disposition of humility. Additionally, as a conversation with God and a way to silence our minds and hearts, we grow in our ability discern to the movements of the Holy Spirit and hear His words in the “gentle wind” (cf. 1 Kings 19:10-12).

Some ways you can grow and deepen your prayer life are:

- Dedicate 10 more minutes more of prayer time to your day. Perhaps begin your day with a morning offering and end it with an examination.
- Read the Sunday readings before Mass to prepare your heart for the Word of God.
- Listen to a Bible in a Year Podcast.
- Explore different ways to pray: lectio divina, contemplative prayer, imaginative prayer, and many others.
- Learn to pray the Rosary. Join others at 7:30 AM, Monday – Saturday at St. Agnes.
- Sit in Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, offered Wednesday, March 29th (third night of our collaborative mission) or daily at 6:00 AM at St. Agnes.

FOR REFLECTION

For the Third Sunday of Lent

We meet the Samaritan woman in today's Gospel. Her conversation with Jesus put her on the 'fast track' to self-searching and repentance. Her conversation with Jesus transformed her into a great evangelizer: "Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman..." Perhaps this Lent your family, your friends or your co-workers will come to believe in Jesus because of your witness and the way you speak about him. Lent is a perfect time to deepen that relationship with Jesus so that your witness is as real and convincing as the Samaritan woman. Don't be afraid to share what Jesus has done for you.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

Maryanne Tatro, Dorothy K. Miller, Frank Padagona, Eleanor Davies, Bernard Repetti, and Carolyn Draper who died recently and for the sick of our collaborative.

Pray for those who are suffering in the aftermath of the earthquakes in Syria and Turkey.

Pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, especially from among the young people of our community.

Pray also for all those who are serving in our Armed Forces that they will return home safely.

OUR LENTEN GIVING PROJECT

Last Lent, our collaborative supported St. Theresa Parish in Zambia, a Catholic community faced with the daunting task of building a new church. Through your incredible generosity, we gifted Most Rev. Dr. Alick Banda, archbishop of Lusaka and his parishioners $43,481 toward the project – over 4x our goal of $10,000. In his words, “This project started six years ago and our people are happy as the project has been given a new leaf of life...With this done, the parishioners now have confidence and a renewed enthusiasm to complete the project.”

This Lent, we will continue our support of the Zambia community. There are three ways to give: Scan the QR Code.

Take home a mite box which are available at either church.

Or visit www.cparl.org/online-giving.

CATHOLIC APPEAL UPDATE

We’re very excited to launch the Catholic Appeal this weekend at our parishes. Thank you to those who have already responded generously to the Cardinal’s invitation!

Because of your early support, we have reached 10% of St. Agnes' goal of $58,294 and 27% of St. Camillus' goal of $16,212. As Catholics, each of us shares the responsibility of the Church community – both directly within our parish and to the greater Church.

Thank you for responding in faith, hope, and charity by making a gift to the 2023 Catholic Appeal. We are stronger together, and your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Donate Your Vehicle

Call (844) 518-0031 to donate your car, truck, boat, RV, and more today!

How it Works:

1. Contact Us
Call (844) 518-0031

2. Schedule Pickup
We'll pick up your vehicle for FREE - at a time and place convenient for you.

3. Receive Top Tax Deduction
You may qualify for a tax deduction.

- Support Veteran Nonprofits.
- Free Pickup & Towing.
- Top Tax Deduction.

What kinds of vehicles can I donate?

Veteran Car Donations accepts most cars, trucks, boats, RVs, and motorcycles. We can pick up your vehicle, running or not.

It gets better: your car donation can be picked up within 24 hours, and in some cases even the same day.

Donate Your Vehicle Today
844-518-0031

While we appreciate every donation, in some cases, we find that we are unable to accept certain vehicles, watercraft, and/or recreational vehicles due to the prohibitive costs of acquisition. If you have any questions, please give us a call at (844) 518-0031

How Your Vehicle Donation Helps Veterans

Your vehicle donation directly helps us to provide our nation's heroes with much needed programs and services, such as:

- Essential Medical Care and Mental Health Services
- Mentoring, Job Skills Training, and Employment Assistance
- Food, Emergency Shelter, and Housing for Homeless Veterans
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) Therapy and Grief Counseling
