The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Easter Triduum—from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery

Fr. Marc Bishop - Pastor
St. Agnes and St. Camillus

Dear Faith Family,

Welcome to Holy Week. We begin this week by reading the Passion Narrative according to Matthew. We will again participate in the Passion of Christ on Good Friday, as we read John's account. Notice the word "participate." We are not merely taking part in a history lesson. We are choosing to live the events of Holy Week with Christ. We share in the joyful expectation of Christ's triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. We are bewildered by Jesus' arrest. We are pained by the crucifixion and confused by what didn't happen. All leading to the exuberance of the resurrection. It is important for us to not merely show up. We must earnestly choose to be a part of the journey that is Holy Week.

This past week many joined in our Lenten Mission. It was a mission designed to lead us to be in-mission. Together, we explored a dream. My dream for our faith family; which I prayerfully discerned from the prodding of the Holy Spirit over the last five years. The recordings of the Mission can be found on the <https://www.cparl.org/> website, or scan the QR code.

If you were unable to join us for the Mission, you can still get involved. Our website contains links to share your information with the group coordinators. There are many ways to participate.

Two actions that came out of the Mission are the creation of a team to provide an emergency Heating/Cooling Center for the needy in our community and a committee to discern 24-hour Eucharistic Adoration. These initiatives or dreams are only possible if many choose to participate in the life of our faith family, by embodying the Works of Mercy in concrete ways.

One way to participate is to join in "For the Lord," on Saturday, April 29, 2023, from 1 PM to 4 PM, at St. Camillus Church. This event is a prayerful response to SatanCon, a gathering of satanists that weekend, in Boston. We will gather for Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction. Talks and prayers will be offered throughout the three hours. Please, sign-up to commit to a time of prayer during the event.

We will humbly go before the Lord to witness to the world who God is. Please join us.

Blessed Holy Week,

Fr. Marc

OUR EASTER GIFT TO YOU PICK UP YOURS EASTER DAY

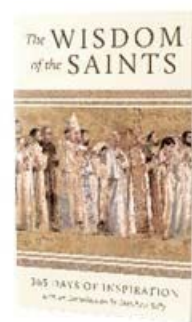

The Wisdom of the Saints

by Matthew Kelly

Sooner or later we all rise or fall to the level of our friendships. It's a simple, but life-altering truth. The people we surround ourselves with either raise or lower our standards. They either help us to become the-best-version-of-ourselves or encourage us to become lesser versions of ourselves. We become like our friends.

The book is an invitation to become friends with some of the greatest men and women who have ever lived. In these pages you will encounter the voices of the saints, their greatest insights into how to live well, their most inspiring wisdom for growing in virtue, and their most powerful advice for stepping into the heart of God.

No man becomes great on his own. No woman becomes great on her own. We all need people in our lives who inspire us, show us what is possible, raise our standards, remind us of our essential purpose, and challenge us to become the best-version-of-ourselves. This book will help you to step into a new and ever-deepening friendship with the saints so that you may know, love, and serve God like never before.

EASTER BLESSINGS

Easter Blessing of Food – Blessing of Easter Baskets

Saturday 8th April at 10:00AM following morning prayer and confession.

Saint Camillus Church front of church (in the event of inclement weather – lower church)

Background

During the Middle Ages in Europe, it was forbidden to eat certain foods during the rigorous Lenten period of fast and abstinence. At the end of Lent these foods were again allowed and with great joy and gratitude the foods were taken to church for a blessing. Today we too can have our food blessed and prepared for the Easter Sunday celebration. With hearts filled with joy because of the resurrection we can truly celebrate. This year rather than filling Easter Baskets with candy fill them with foods that nourish your family both symbolically and actually.

What to include in an Easter Basket to be blessed.

- Eggs – a traditional symbol of the resurrection and new life. These can be brightly colored or decorated.
- Bread – symbolizing Jesus Christ who is the 'Bread of Life'.
- Meats – Lamb symbolizing Jesus the Lamb who was sacrificed for our sins. Also ham or bacon, disallowed in the Old Testament, but now allowed as Christ makes all things new.
- Sausage – symbolizing the chain of slavery and death that Jesus breaks once and for all.
- Salt – reminding us that we are to be salt and as a symbol of our hospitality.
- Candle – an unlit candle to be lit on your Easter Sunday brunch, lunch or dinner, to remind us that it is Christ who is the light of the world.
- Wine – symbolizing joy and the many graces and blessings that we have been fortunate to receive.

One or more of these items can be placed in a wicker or wooden basket and then covered with a tea towel or cloth. This cloth symbolizes the burial cloth of Christ that wrapped his body. Additionally, flowers or evergreens can be placed on top of this cloth.

Come and join us and your parish family for this simple blessing of the food we will consume on Easter Sunday.

SCRIPTURE FOR MEDITATION

Read slowly, 3-4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you through this passage.

"Pilate said to them, 'Then what shall I do with Jesus called Christ?' The all said, 'Let him be crucified!' But he said, 'Why? What evil has he done?' They only shouted louder, 'Let him be crucified!'" (Matthew 27:22-23)

Jesus the Innocent Lamb of God, takes on the burden of our sin. Imagine how he felt as he heard the crowds shout mercilessly, "Let him be crucified!" Gazing upon Jesus in the Eucharist, allow yourself to enter into Jesus' experience of rejection and sorrow that he bore for your sin. Ask him to help you experience sorrow for your own sins and seek forgiveness, especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord is communicating to you during this time of prayer.

PRAY

Almighty, ever-living God, who as an example of humility for the human race to follow caused our Savior to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. (Collect, Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion).

FOR REFLECTION

This story never gets old. The challenge before us is to listen as if hearing it for the first time. What words or actions linger in your heart as you walk with Jesus in his passion? Notice how quickly the mood of the crowd changes ~ at one moment praising Jesus and singing "Hosanna" to faithless angry calls "Crucify him! Crucify him!" The cost of discipleship is real. During this holiest week of the year, spend some time in church or in quiet prayer reflecting on all that Jesus endured in his passion and death to save us from our selfishness and sin. How will you respond to his extraordinary act of love? Look for an opportunity this week to share your love of Christ with another.

THE ST. CAMILLUS SANCTUARY LIGHT

The light will burn the week of April 2nd for George Arena.

PLEASE PRAY

For Rev Alfred Santosausso, Marion Mucci, Joseph Corbett and Sandra Spera who died recently and for the sick of our parish.

For all those who are serving in our Armed Forces that they will return home safely.

For The Elect who will enter fully into the Church at the Easter Vigil.

For the victims and school community in Nashville and for an end to violence in our country.

For Christians around the world who suffer persecution because of their faith.

GENEROSITY

GRAND ANNUAL PART 2

As we have reported in the bulletin, we are behind our goals for weekly collections, and unexpected expenses have stretched our resources. The replacement of the boiler at St. Agnes Church cost approximately $70,000, and we have also made significant improvements to the Church sound system, including hearing assist devices. In addition, the Bell Tower at St. Camillus has been identified as having damaged bricks, and we are working with engineers to assess the cost of repairs, including the anticipated expense of scaffolding. We are also planning renovations to St. Camillus' lower Church Hall, including painting and new chairs and tables, estimated to cost $35,000.

Please prayerfully consider donating to the Grand Annual campaign to support the completion of crucial capital improvements in our parishes. By contributing to the Grand Annual, you will be helping to ensure that our parishes remain a vibrant and welcoming community for years to come.

Thank you for your continued support. To donate, please scan the QR code, go to <https://www.cparl.org/online-giving> or use the envelopes at church.

Whether you're a student, a working professional, or a retiree, there are numerous volunteer opportunities available in our town that cater to your skill set and interests.

The panel will discuss ways to give back and help those in need. The panelist will also explain the different resources their agency offers and how they can be accessed, and will answer questions about who to call for specific assistance to help loved ones in need.

Panelists will include:

- Colleen Leger, Director of Arlington Youth Consultation Center
- Natasha Strom, Volunteer Coordinator, Arlington Eats
- Maraci Shapiro-Ide, Social worker, Arlington Council on Aging
- Food Link representative

GOOD FRIDAY SPECIAL COLLECTION

Pope Francis has asked our collaborative to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org. Thank you.

GOSPEL

Mt 21: 1-11

When Jesus and the disciples drew near Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tethered, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them here to me. And if anyone should say anything to you, reply, 'The master has need of them.' Then he will send them at once." This happened so that what had been spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled: Say to daughter Zion, "Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden." The disciples went and did as Jesus had ordered them. They brought the ass and the colt and laid their cloaks over them, and he sat upon them. The very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." And when he entered Jerusalem the whole city was shaken and asked, "Who is this?" And the crowds replied, "This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee."

FIRST READING

Is 50: 4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

My God, my God, why have you a - ban - doned me?

Ps 22 (21): 8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

✠. All who see me scoff at me;
they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:
“He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
let him rescue him, if he loves him.”

✠. Indeed, many dogs surround me, a pack of evildoers closes in upon me;
They have pierced my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.

✠. They divide my garments among them,
and for my vesture they cast lots.
But you, O LORD, be not far from me;
O my help, hasten to aid me.

✠. I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
“You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel!”

SECOND READING

Phil 2: 6-11

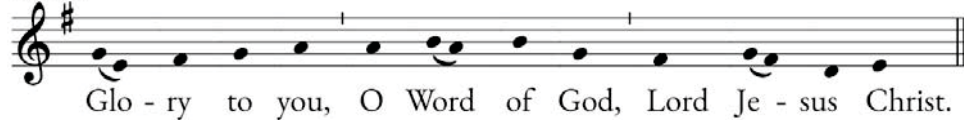

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
