Very Rev. Marc J. Bishop, VF
Pastor St. Camillus and St. Agnes

Dear Faith Family,

This weekend, I will be in Fatima, Portugal with hundreds of Boston Pilgrims and thousands upon thousands more pilgrims from around the World. We will have the particular grace to join with our own Archbishop, Cardinal Sean, as he presides at the International Mass at the Fatima Shrine. Please, pray for the safety and spiritual renewal of all the pilgrims, especially the youth.

Recently, I had the pleasure of going to the movies and seeing "The Sound of Freedom." This movie stars Jim Caviezel and shines a light on the horror that is Human Trafficking. When I hear commenters speak of the movie they often use the phrase "modern-day slavery" to describe the atrocities. Although, this crime against the dignity of the human person is anything but a modern invention. Humans have been trafficking in humans for millennia. In an article by Christopher Parker, on smithsonianmag.com (dated July 13, 2023), titled "Mysterious 2,500-Year-Old Skeletons Found in Israel's Negev Desert," this point is made: "The researchers theorize that these women could have been enslaved individuals who were being trafficked to Arabia, a practice that ancient written sources have described." Sadly, there is nothing new about human trafficking.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has a website dedicated to ending human trafficking. <https://www.usccb.org/offices/migration-refugee-services/human-trafficking>. Here you can find more information, resources, and programs to stop human trafficking.

Keep an eye on our social media to follow the activities of the pilgrimage. I hope I can make this work.

Peace,
Fr. Marc

World Youth Day

Sunday, July 30

St. Pope John Paul II

St. Pope John Paul II loved Our Lady. When he was shot in 1981, he said that Mary guided the bullet and saved his life. The bullet is now in the crown of Our Lady of Fatima.

International Mass

Today we will celebrate the International Mass in the plaza at the Sanctuary of Fatima. The Mass will be celebrated by Cardinal Sean O'Malley, the Archbishop of Boston.

Candlelight Procession

We will conclude the day with pilgrims from all over the world in the evening candlelight procession. We will be praying for you and the parish.

Prayer Request

Please pray that we will all be able to depend on Our Lady during this pilgrimage and always, like St. Pope John Paul II did during his life.

COLLABORATIVE UPDATES

Why Register with us?

Being a part of a parish family connects us as a community living the Kingdom of God now in this world but on a pilgrimage to our heavenly Kingdom. Saint Peter reminds us, “Conduct yourselves reverently during your sojourn in a strange land” (I Peter 1:17), highlighting that idea of a pilgrim people journeying toward heaven.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- It fosters a sense of belonging and identity as part of a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice and grow in your faith.
- Registration enables the clergy and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you with timely updates and opportunities to share feedback.
- Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. See the connect with us page at the back of this bulletin. When in doubt, ask a staff member, greeter, or usher after Mass. As always, it is our honor to accompany you on your faith journey.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In our first reading we hear that God appeared to Solomon telling him to ask for whatever he wanted. Take note, Solomon does not ask for riches or a long life or an untroubled life. Solomon asks for an understanding heart! Consider - would your answer be like that of Solomon? To help us be clearer about what is important, Jesus gives us two short parables, the pearl of great price and the hidden treasure that is sought after and found.

Do you think about of your faith as a pearl of great price, or a treasure to seek after? These readings give us much food for prayer ~about what we value, what we seek after, and whose we want to be!

FIRST READING

1 Kgs 3: 5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: “Because you have asked for this — not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right — I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

℣. I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.

The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

℣. Let your kindness comfort me according to your promise to your servants.

Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.

℣. For I love your command more than gold, however fine.
For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.

℣. Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.
The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple.

SECOND READING

Rom 8: 28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

ALLELUIA

Mode 7

Cf. Mt 11: 25

℣. Blessed are you Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the Kingdom.

GOSPEL

Mt 13: 44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."
