FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION

(Today's Gospel) invites us to contemplate the Transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain, before three of his disciples.

The Gospel says: He "led them up a high mountain." In the Bible, the mountain always has a special significance: it is the elevated place where heaven and earth touch each other, where Moses and the prophets had the extraordinary experience of encountering God. Climbing the mountain is drawing somewhat close to God. Jesus climbs up with the three disciples and they stop at the top of the mountain. Here, he is transfigured before them. His face radiant and his garments glistening, which provide a preview of the image as the Risen One, offer to those frightened men the light, the light of hope, the light to pass through the shadows: death will not be the end of everything, because it will open to the glory of the Resurrection. Thus, Jesus announces his death; he takes them up the mountain and shows them what will happen afterwards, the Resurrection.

As the Apostle Peter exclaimed, it is good to pause with the Lord on the mountain, to live this "preview" of light in the heart. It is a call to remember, especially when we go through a difficult trial — and many of you know what it means to go through a difficult trial — that the Lord is Risen and does not allow darkness to have the last word.

At times we go through moments of darkness in our personal, family or social life, and we fear there is no way out. We feel frightened before great enigmas such as illness, innocent pain or the mystery of death. In the same journey of faith, we often stumble encountering the scandal of the cross and the demands of the Gospel, which calls us to spend our life in service and to lose it in love, rather than preserve it for ourselves and protect it. Thus, we need a different outlook, a light that illuminates the mystery of life in depth and helps us to move beyond our paradigms and beyond the criteria of this world. We too are called to climb up the mountain, to contemplate the beauty of the Risen One that envelopes glimmers of light in every fragment of our life and helps us to interpret history beginning with the paschal victory.

Let us be careful, however: that feeling of Peter that "it is well that we are here" must not become spiritual laziness. We cannot remain on the mountain and enjoy the bliss of this encounter on our own. Jesus himself brings us back to the valley, among our brothers and sisters and into daily life. We must beware of spiritual laziness: we are fine, with our prayers and liturgies, and this is enough for us. No! Going up the mountain does not mean forgetting reality; praying never means avoiding the difficulties of life; the light of faith is not meant to provide beautiful spiritual feelings. No, this is not Jesus' message. We are called to experience the encounter with Christ so that, enlightened by his light, we might take it and make it shine everywhere. Igniting little lights in people's hearts; being little lamps of the Gospel that bear a bit of love and hope: this is the mission of a Christian.

Let us pray to Mary Most Holy, that she may help us to welcome the light of Christ with wonder, to safeguard it and share it.

~ Pope Francis,
ANGELUS, Saint Peter's Square
Sunday, 28 February 2021

Summertime often affords us the opportunity to break from our busy schedules and spend time in favorite spots at the seashore, or at a campground or maybe even in a special spot in the city. One reason that makes those places special is that they may be places where we felt the presence or majesty of God as the disciples witnessed in today's Gospel.

Is there a time or special place where you have felt God's presence? What might God want you to remember from that experience? Return to that experience in your memory, taking a few minutes to speak to God about his presence with you.

AUGUST MISSION WEEKENDS

In 1822, an 18-year-old young woman, Pauline Marie Jaricot, had an idea that revolutionized how the Church looked at mission work – she involved the laity. Pauline went into the silk factories of Lyon, France, and organized people into “Prayer Circles” of 10 people each. They would gather to pray for the mission Church and sacrifice a penny every week. Pauline’s genius was a General Solidarity Fund that, to this day, helps not just one mission but all of them. Pauline was named Blessed in 2020. Today, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is an international association coordinating assistance for Catholic missionary priests, brothers, and nuns in mission areas.

Fr. Bernard Makadani Zulu, from the Chipata Diocese in Zambia, will speak about the Mission work in Africa during the August 12/13 Masses at St. Agnes and August 19/20 at St. Camillus.

BOSTON SOCK EXCHANGE

The Boston Sock Exchange volunteers make 100 bagged lunches on the third Monday of each month, next one is August 21st, in the St. Camillus kitchen (lower church) at 6:30 PM. Each lunch includes a sandwich drink, fruit, granola bar/snack, and socks. They are delivered to soup kitchens in Waltham and Woburn on Tuesday.

We are in need of: Peanut butter, new "shortie summer length" socks, ziplock sandwich bags, new or used baseball caps, granola bars, juice boxes, small size toiletries, and sunscreen. We have a sufficient supply of everything else for now. Thank you for your continued generosity!

Please drop off at the baskets marked SOCK EXCHANGE DONATIONS at each church.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

CHURCH BOXES

You may drop off checks, cash, or your monthly envelope at the receptacles at each church entrance.

ONLINE GIVING

This is a safe and convenient way to make financial contributions to our parishes. No need to write checks or bring cash to church. All contributions are recorded for you on your bank statement with date of settlement. No extra fees are applied. Visit <https://cparl.org/online-giving> or scan the QR Code.

REFLECTION ON GENEROSITY

*Lord, teach me to be generous,
To serve You as You deserve,
To give and not to count the cost,
To fight and not to heed the wounds,
To toil and not to seek for rest,
To labor and not to ask for reward,
Save that of knowing that I do Your will.
-St. Ignatius of Loyola, "Prayer for Generosity"*

Reflect

Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In the Gospel, the Lord's voice says; "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The disciples were afraid, but Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

Know that in making your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are listening to Christ, and helping others not to be afraid.

FIRST READING

Dn 7: 9-10, 13-14

As I watched:

Thrones were set up and the Ancient One took his throne. His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool; his throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire. A surging stream of fire flowed out from where he sat; Thousands upon thousands were ministering to him, and myriads upon myriads attended him. The court was convened and the books were opened.

As the visions during the night continued, I saw:

One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; When he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, The one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

let the many islands be glad.
Clouds and darkness are round about him, justice and judgment are the foundation of his throne.

℣. The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.
The heavens proclaim his justice,
and all peoples see his glory.

℣. Because you, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth, exalted far above all gods.

SECOND READING

2 Pet 1: 16-19

Beloved: We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. Moreover, we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

GOSPEL

Mt 17: 1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone.

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."
