Very Rev. Marc J. Bishop, VF
Pastor St. Camillus and St. Agnes

Dear Faith Family,

I have been receiving many questions about how to deal with the tons of solicitation letters that are received by our parishioners from an incalculable number of "Catholic non-profits." My answer always starts with: "You are not obligated to send them anything, even if they send you a religious article."

(I also have to apologize. I received an email with this question and now I cannot find it to answer it. Sorry.)

How should you discern whom to help? First, did you know of them before you got the letter? Second, have you worked with or received aid from that group in the past? Third, do you benefit from their good work now? Fourth, do you know that they have done good work in your community? Fifth, is there a clear need that your support will be helpful for them to meet now? If the answer is no, throw out the letter and never think of it again. Yes, throw them away (or recycle). Do not bring them in a shopping bag to the Church. We will just throw them away.

When you are considering supporting a charity, know their mission and their impact. I prefer to support local organizations that I can see at work and those organizations that are brought to my attention by my Church. I also do my research that the organization is not promoting ideas or actions that are contrary to my conscience, as formed as a member of the Catholic Church. For instance, on the first weekend of September, our parishes will be holding a collection to support the Archdiocese of Honolulu and their works to support those who are suffering from the devastating fires. This is a worthy cause.

Let me change the subject, I am planning a trip to the Holy Land in 2025. I will be meeting with the Tour Company this Fall. I would like to know what level of interest there is before I meet with them. If you could fill-out the interest form

click here

I would ask that you share your contact info and what time of year you would prefer. Note, summer is not an option due to the temperatures in Israel.

I pray that you are having a blessed end to your summer.

Peace,
Fr. Marc

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today's Gospel is so familiar that it may be easy to just let Jesus' question go quickly by without taking the time to answer him - "Who do you say that I am?" Will you respond with the conviction of Peter - "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God"? Or do you struggle to say who Christ is or if you know him at all?

Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. How do you encounter the living God in your daily life? How can you live so as to share eternal life in heaven?

"The gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." Where do you see evil present in the world? How can you resist the lure of evil?

"Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." What sinful behaviors should you work to avoid? What virtues should you seek to foster?

This Gospel invites everyone to take a few minutes today to consider what answer we give and to urge us to give time for the relationship with Jesus to grow. Taking time to honestly answer Jesus' question, will lead to our ability to say like Peter - "You are the Christ!"

National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children

Saturday, September 9th.

On this Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children, we pray and remember the thousands of children we've lost through the tragedy of abortion. The 9:00 AM Mass at Saint Camillus Church will be in remembrance of aborted children. All are invited to join a prayer vigil at 10:00 AM in front of the statue of Mary outside of the Knights of Columbus, 15 Winslow Street in Arlington.

Following the prayer vigil, Bob Tosi is kindly hosting a coffee and donuts gathering inside of the Knights of Columbus. Everyone is welcome. Information about this National Day of Remembrance can be found at <https://nationaldayofremembrance.org/>.

Project Rachel

Project Rachel is a confidential ministry of the Catholic Church that offers hope and healing for women (and men) in pain from past abortions. Project Rachel offers both one-on-one and small group opportunities for healing including:

- One-day retreats
- Support group
- Sacramental Reconciliation (confession) with specially trained priests
- Counseling referrals

More than 500 women have participated in our one-day "Come to the Waters of Healing" retreat. If you are in pain from a past abortion experience, we invite you to call (508-651-3100) or email us at help@projectrachelboston.com to discuss which services would best address your needs.

Prayer and Witness

Is God calling you to do more for woman and unborn babies? You are welcome to join fellow parishioners in witness and prayer outside of the Planned Parenthood in Boston, Saturday mornings, 7:00-8:00 AM. We meet at 6:30 AM in the Saint Agnes School parking lot. Please contact Eileen at 617-335-8455 or saparishforlife@gmail.com with any questions.

WHAT IS SACRIFICIAL GIVING?

In creating man, God bestowed upon us the gifts of life and unconditional love. Despite our weakness, He surrendered the sacrificial gift of His only son, Jesus. Jesus gave his own life for us on the cross so that others might live. We walk in the footsteps of Christ when we give sacrificially a part of our substance so that others might live. The Scriptures tell us that those who follow the example of Jesus will have life and have it to the full.

Everything is a Gift from God

In gratitude for God's generosity, we dedicate a portion of these gifts — our time, talent, treasure, and prayer — to furthering God's Kingdom.

If we truly believe that God gives us all that we have, gratitude is one response. Trust is another. When we realize that God has provided for us and will continue to do so, we recognize that our real security lies in God. Our God, who has given us all, will take care of our future.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Like Peter in today's Gospel, we can find that when we open our eyes to see, our ears to hear and our hearts to experience Jesus' presence in our daily lives, God reveals himself to us.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

FIRST READING

Is 22: 19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace: "I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station. On that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut when he shuts, no one shall open. I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Mode 2 Ps 138 (137): 8bc · L

Lord, your love is e - ter - nal; do not for - sake the work of your hands.

℣. I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple.

℟. The LORD is exalted, yet the lowly he sees,
and the proud he knows from afar.
Your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

℣. I will give thanks to your name,
because of your kindness and your truth:
When I called, you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

SECOND READING

Rom 11: 33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor? Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid? For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever Amen.

ALLELUIA

Mode 2

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

℣. You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

GOSPEL

Mt 16: 13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.
