Very Rev. Marc J. Bishop, VF
Pastor St. Camillus and St. Agnes

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend the Church in the United States commemorates Catechetical Sunday. The Church celebrates the diligent work of all catechists. Those who teach the Faith. What may first come to mind is a classroom with an adult at the front of the room while children sit at desks intently listening. That image does not reflect how the Faith is primality shared with the young of our faith family.

A better image is a family seated around the kitchen table engaging in conversation. The kitchen table, the “domestic altar,” is where the Church envisions the Faith being taught first. It is here that we learn empathy. It is here we learn to be nourished and to be a servant for the common good. It is obvious then to say that parents are the first catechists. The first to witness to their children the love of Christ.

I get asked from time to time: “Where did you get your degrees?” The answer is St. John’s Seminary in Brighton. Simple enough. If I am asked, “Where were you trained to be a priest?” The answer is different. My first seminary was “23 Greenacre Drive.” My first teachers of theology were John and Rachel. It was in that split-level house painted green with $\frac{3}{4}$ of an acre of land and the many acres of swamp and forest that surrounded it where I first received training to be a priest. This is where I learned how to value others and work for their good and not just my own; a lesson often repeated. It is the first place I was taught Jesus loves me and has a plan for me.

It was in that house seated next to my Mother where I learned the value of a family table. The table from which we are nourished and formed. It is because of that experience that I came to understand the altar of the Church to be a “family table.” Each Sunday we as a “family of families” gather around the Altar. It is truly integral to our formation and our upbringing. When we are not at Mass, we miss out on that which is essential to our happiness and wholeness. This was reinforced in me when I was away at college. Several states away, I knew that my family was gathered around the table on Sunday being nourished and formed. I joined with them hundreds of miles away at the same table nourished by the same Lord.

Parents are the first and best catechists. My role as pastor is to support parents in their responsibilities as the first teachers of the faith for their children. May God Bless all catechists, especially parents.

In Christ,
Fr. Marc

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

Each one, teach one

Teachers, preachers, and professors have their place. But most of us learn life lessons more broadly. The first school is our home environment. Groups we affiliate with and wider media influences also communicate their values. In 1935, the Vatican called for special acknowledgment of how our parish catechists pass on the faith. While it's right to honor our religion teachers on this Catechetical Sunday, let's recall too the role of parents and indeed all parishioners in modeling a life rich in love, generosity, compassion, and forgiveness. Catechists literally “echo” the example of Jesus. Deliver your echo boldly!

MUSIC NOTES from Roger

Our hymnody continues this week with some more of my favorite “rousers” or “rafter rockers.” Our opening hymn, “All Creatures of our God and King,” set to the tune Lasst uns erfreuen, comes to us from the German tradition of hymns from the 1600s. Its original first line from the German is “Let us most heartily rejoice.” First published in 1623, the same tune has lasted through the ages in the same form as we sing today; that is, two sets of eight-note text phrases followed by two four-note Alleluia phrases, all of which is then followed by the final triple Alleluia refrain. We also sing this same hymn tune in this form to “Ye Watchers and ye Holy Ones.”

Our recessional hymn is another grand hymn, this time from the English school of music. “Christ is Made the sure Foundation,” set to the tune Westminster Abbey, hails from the same time period but from the pen of Henry Purcell who was first a tuner for the Westminster Abbey Organ and later at the ripe old age of twenty became the organist for that same grand worship space. We know one of his most popular organ pieces, which remains a frequent choice for weddings: Trumpet Voluntary. The text of this hymn was originally a Latin Monastic hymn from the 7th century. This combined hymn of text and music gained popularity after it was sung in the Abbey at the wedding of Princess Margaret in 1960, it was again used at the funeral of Elizabeth II at St. George’s Chapel.

Whether you can sense the original intent and spirit of these hymns, recollect hearing them on a broadcast, or recall a special event from your family’s past, there is no denying that these sung prayers are filled with joyous praise. Let us continue to raise together our voices in song to praise and thank our creator and God.

walking with purpose

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Forgiveness – even the first disciples found it hard to be forgiving. When they asked Jesus, perhaps in frustration, how many times they were to be forgiving, Jesus does not soften his response. Rather he multiplies the number of times they are to be forgiving saying “not seven times but seven times seventy-seven times.” How fortunate are we that each time we seek out God’s forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance, we are never turned away. God’s response is always one of mercy and compassion. To whom is God calling us to extend that same kind of forgiveness?

REFLECTION

THE INNER WORD

What's in your heart?

- Not forgiving is an ingratitude. How could we not forgive others, when God has forgiven us so much? Another way of putting it, scripture says this week, is that if we do not show others forgiveness, it cannot be shown us. How does the reciprocity of forgiveness – forgive as you are forgiven, and as you want to be forgiven – show itself in your life and the lives of those around you?
- What are situations where it is necessary to keep forgiving, seventy times seven – that is, as many times as necessary?
- What does it mean to live entirely in the Lord, to live everything in the Lord?
- Are you “slow to anger,” the way God is with you and others?

ALPHA IS COMING TO CPARL!

DOES ALPHA IMPACT LIVES?

Yes! Alpha brings people together for meaningful conversations, which can lead to impactful connections, insights, and sometimes even, life-changing transformations.

WHAT IS ALPHA?

Alpha is a series of eight interactive sessions that freely explore the basics of the Christian faith.

Coming together on Wednesday nights, people from every walk of life explore the big questions in a friendly, open and non-judgmental environment.

Plenty of care goes into creating a comfortable and welcoming space, open to all. We begin by sharing a meal. After eating together, we listen to a talk and then gather in small groups for discussion.

Alpha is an experience we hope that everyone can share in as we build community and open our doors to our neighbors.

WHO IS ALPHA FOR?

Alpha is for everyone and anyone.

The beauty of Alpha is that there are no questions that are too hostile, too silly or too simple. Alpha has no prerequisites whatsoever. We come together with one another as we are, free to be ourselves.

WORLDWIDE IMPACT

Over 29 million people across the globe have done Alpha. Learn more about how Alpha has impacted the world.

GENEROSITY

Both current and interested participants are encouraged to attend one of our upcoming Liturgical Ministry Workshops to learn more about our co-responsibility in the celebration of Mass.

Altar Servers

This ministry of service during Mass is inclusively "staffed" by both boys and girls. Altar servers are scheduled for each of the weekend Masses and for unique celebrations such as Holy Days or the special Evening Prayer Services and Masses during Advent and Lent. In addition, Altar Servers are often available by request for weddings and funerals.

Welcome Ministry (formerly Ushers and Greeters)

This team works to draw people into the community and into Christ's presence in the Mass, by helping people feel welcome, safe, and comfortable so they can fully participate in the liturgy. In every interaction, This team strives to see each person as Christ does — As a beloved daughter or son of God.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are active, confirmed Catholics who wish to serve their fellow parishioners and have a love of the Eucharist. Extraordinary Ministers are ordinary Christians who model Christian living in faith and conduct in their ministry and in their daily lives.

Lectors

Lectors proclaim the Word of God at liturgical celebrations and Prayers of the Faithful. With deep faith and a confident voice, they announce the Good News of salvation to their sisters and brothers in the parish. Lectors read at all weekend Masses and Holy Days. Lector Workbooks are provided that contain all the readings for the church year and may be studied at home if desired.

Funeral Ministry

This team accompanies the grieving by preparing for and attending the funeral liturgy and/or wake, offering prayers and support in the following days. Since most funerals occur during the morning on weekdays, it is important to be available then, but some funerals are scheduled for a Saturday morning, so people with a work schedule during the week can help on a weekend.

"Co-responsibility demands a change in mindset especially concerning the role of lay people in the Church.

They should not be regarded as "collaborators" of the clergy, but, rather, as people who are really "co-responsible" for the Church's being and acting."

FIRST READING

Sir 27: 30-28: 7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 103 (102): 1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

- ✠. Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.
- ✠. He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills.
He redeems your life from destruction,
crowns you with kindness and compassion.
- ✠. He will not always chide,
nor does he keep his wrath forever.
Not according to our sins does he deal with us,
nor does he requite us according to our crimes.
- ✠. For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us.

SECOND READING

Rom 14: 7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

ALLELUIA

Jn 13: 34

- ✠. I give you a new commandment, says the Lord;
love one another as I have loved you.

GOSPEL

Mt 18: 21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."
