TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The right to life
means allowing people
to live and not killing,
allowing them to grow,
to eat,
to be educated,
to be healed,
and to be permitted
to die with dignity.

Pope Francis, in his message for today, World Mission Sunday, reflects on the theme "Hearts on fire, feet on the move," based on the story of the disciples who encounter Jesus on their way to Emmaus (cf. Lk 24:13-35). He invites all of us to "set out once more, illumined by our encounter with the risen Lord and prompted by his Spirit. Let us set out again with burning hearts, with our eyes open and our feet in motion. Let us set out to make other hearts burn with the word of God, to open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist, and to invite everyone to walk together on the path of peace and salvation that God, in Christ, has bestowed upon all humanity."

On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

In a world where so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

You can find the resources as part of this newly-launched microsite for World Mission Month: <https://onefamilyinmission.org/>

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE MISSION SUNDAY

Established by Pope Pius XI in 1926, World Mission Sunday is an opportunity for every Church community worldwide to express solidarity with our brothers and sisters living in mission territories.

This weekend's collection supports mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin American and Europe.

CHRISTIANS HAVE THE DUTY TO SHARE THE GOSPEL...
"AS ONE WHO SHARES A JOY,
SIGNALS A BEAUTIFUL HORIZON, OFFERS A DESIRABLE BANQUET."

Evangelii Gaudium, 14

THE INNER WORD

What's in your heart?

In today's second reading, St. Paul writes of his gratitude for the community at Thessalonica in today's second reading. He offers a prayer of thanksgiving for them remembering their works of faith and labors of love. His words of encouragement kept the community engaged in the work of promoting the faith and strengthening their bond of love for one another. Who in this community of faith needs words of encouragement? Will you, like St. Paul, take some time to write a note of encouragement or offer a prayer of thanksgiving for those striving to grow in faith? It may be just what the person needs!

In today's Gospel, Jesus snares the Pharisees in their own trap in with his brilliant teaching to "render unto Caesar" Their hypocrisy is revealed for all to see.

- How do you handle hypocrisy when you confront it in others? Are you able to help them see the error in their ways?
- Think of a time when you found yourself saying something you really didn't believe, perhaps even for less than honorable reasons. How did you handle being confronted with your own hypocrisy? How were you able to learn and grow from the experience?

Dear CPARL Community,

It is funny how in life we get what we need, not necessarily what we want. Last week I had a particularly busy week and was beginning to lose sight of the important work we do in the schools. Pressing matters, presentations, emails, meetings and problem solving were wearing me down. I decided to walk upstairs for a visit with some of our middle school students. I walked into the Achievement Center and began introducing myself to the students, who were hard at work on their studies. They immediately stood and began to shake my hand. There is something about being the “President” that brings out curious behavior in the students. They were very deliberate in shaking my hand tightly, looking me in the eye and telling me their names. I was extremely impressed and thoroughly enjoyed the visit. I left feeling reconnected with our purpose at St. Agnes School and Arlington Catholic. We aim daily to teach our students the skills they will need to excel in the world, which has grown incredibly competitive. We want them to be grounded adults when they leave, who present well, have solid values built on our Catholic principles, and who are capable of thinking and problem solving at the highest levels. The handshakes and observing our students hard at work, even if only briefly, reminded me that we are on the right path!

I want to thank our parishioners and Alumni for supporting our work and praying for our success. We can feel it day in and day out! Many Blessings!

STUDY WITH THE VILLAGES

Ordinary time in the church is a time of growth. During this time, the Gospel reading often focuses Jesus teaching through the use of parables. Jesus favored parables — short allegories featuring people, places, and things familiar to ordinary listeners — to get his point across. Typically, they were about the kingdom of God, standing in stark contrast to the current world. “Families created their own parables based on one of three prompts:

The kingdom of heaven is like...

Trying to be like Jesus is like...

Prayer is like...

Here are a few examples of what they created:

Trying to be like Jesus is like Mr. Potato Head. Mr. Potato Head can make many faces, emotions, and his parts can be placed in many ways. Despite what is on the outside of Mr. Potato head, he holds all of his beautiful parts on the inside. The moral is trying to be like Jesus is seeing beyond the appearances and what is on the surface and seeing what is on the inside, love, kindness, and compassion.

Prayer is like talking to your favorite stuffed animals. They are cuddly and cute, and are good listeners. They are comforting and calming, they will not tell your secrets and they are always there for you. Just like God is always there for you, listening to you and helping and caring for you. He will never turn his back on you!

Trying to be like Jesus is like an empty bowl. When you start your life, you start as an empty bowl. When you start to be like Jesus you start getting love, light, and memories that are sweet and bitter.

When you are full of love and light your life becomes a gift.

INCREASED OFFERTORY PROGRAM

God is generous, and generosity is at the heart of the Christian life. Giving is an important reality of meeting our financial needs, but it is broader than that. When we speak about generosity, we do so in the context of stewardship. All that we have comes from God, and we are responsible for managing what He has entrusted us with great care. We, as stewards of God's gifts, bear a co-responsibility to nurture and sustain our church not just for today but for the generations yet to come. In making a commitment, you are not just making a financial contribution; you are making a profound statement of faith, love, and solidarity.

Thank you to everyone who has responded to the IOP campaign. Together we can accomplish amazing things!

OUR COMMUNITY

May God bless Nicholas who was recently baptized and welcomed into our faith family.

Baptism, the first of the seven sacraments, is “God’s most beautiful and magnificent gift,” according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. And what does this gift confer? Many things! It makes you a child of God, guided by the Holy Spirit. It enables faith, hope, and love. It allows goodness to grow. It makes you a member of the Body of Christ. It binds you in unity with all Christians. It consecrates you for worship and seals you to serve. It cleanses sin and marks you forever. Cherish the great gifts of grace that you received through your Baptism.

FIRST READING

Is 45: 1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

GOSPEL

Mt 22: 15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."
