WELCOME

RETHINKING YOUTH MINISTRY AT CPARL

SCOTT MORIN
DIRECTOR OF
EVANGELIZATION

In the Catholic Church, formation has often focused too much on instruction. While catechesis is essential, the traditional approach – which frequently relies on memorization, textbooks, and classroom-style programs – usually falls short. These methods don't always meet people where they are. At its core, Christianity is about a relationship with Jesus. When we remove real community from formation, the Gospel can start to feel distant and uninspiring.

Instead of just teaching facts, we need to help young people grow in their identity as members of a faith-filled community. People learn best when they feel a sense of belonging. When that community becomes like a tribe, deeply connected and united in purpose, it shapes who they are. This belonging leads to transformation, not just the acquisition of information.

That's why we're partnering with Andrew Ministries to develop a new model of youth ministry at CPARL. They've helped parishes build strong youth ministries by recognizing that the Church already has faithful adults ready to serve. These adults can serve as mentors, walking alongside young people in small groups and helping them grow in their faith. We're working to identify, train, and support these mentors here at CPARL so that more of our young people can connect with living witnesses to the Gospel.

I will keep you updated on the process and how you can be involved.

See you at Mass and on Mass Ave.

Peace,
Scott

WELCOME, FR. MATHIAS!

We're excited to welcome Fr. Mathias Chungu, SMA for a month-long visit with our parish. He currently serves at St. Theresa Parish in Chainda, Zambia – a growing Catholic community we've supported for the past four years as they build their first permanent church. While he's here, Fr. Mathias will celebrate several weekend and daily Masses. You'll also have a chance to meet him:

- August 10th after the 12:00 PM Mass in Hope Hall (St. Agnes/Lower Church)
- August 24th after the 8:00 AM Mass in St. Camillus Lower Church Hall

Please continue to keep Fr. Mathias and the people of St. Theresa Parish in your prayers. Scan the QR code to visit our website where you will find more information about the Zambia Church Project, including a video about St. Theresa Parish, progress photos, as well as a link to support this work.

We Walk By Faith

We Walk by Faith

1., 5. We walk by faith, and not by sight: No
 2. We may not touch his hands and side, Nor
 3. Help then, O Lord, our un - be - lief, And
 4. That when our life of faith is done In gra - cious words we hear Of him who spoke as fol - low where he trod; Yet in his prom - ise may our faith a - bound; To call on you when realms of clear - er light We may be - hold you none e'er spoke, But we be - lieve him near.

 we re - joice, And cry "My Lord and God!"
 you are near, And seek where you are found:
 as you are In full and end - less sight.

PLEASE PRAY

Please pray for Dorothy Bibbo and Kathlyn Ortwein who died recently. We also pray for the sick of our Collaborative and for those that care for them.

The Holy Father's special intention for the month of August is for mutual coexistence. Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

This Friday, August 15th, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation. The Mass schedule can be found on the inside front cover of the bulletin, as well as on our website.

St. Agnes and St. Camillus Churches are open daily for personal prayer.

THE ST. CAMILLUS SANCTUARY LIGHT

The sanctuary light will burn the week of August 10th, 2025 for John M. and Mary S. Sullivan.

GENEROSITY

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY CONTACT US AT 781-648-0220 x 450

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus calls us to give generously, not for fleeting earthly gain, but for a lasting treasure—one that neither thief nor time can take away. "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven."

This call to selfless giving is as urgent today as ever. Right here in Arlington, members of our community are in need of assistance. Through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, your generosity becomes a lifeline, providing respite and comfort to those who need it most.

Your gift today is more than aid—it is an act of love, a reflection of God's endless care, and a step toward that inexhaustible treasure in heaven. If you would like to make a gift, please place your donation in the St. Vincent de Paul Donation Box located inside St. Agnes and St. Camillus or by visiting www.svdpcparl.org/donate/donate-money. Thank you for being the hands of Christ in our Collaborative!

ARLINGTON EATS: AUGUST SPOTLIGHT

This month, Arlington Eats is in need of the items listed below. Donation receptacles can be found at each church. Thank you!

- jams & jellies (low sugar is great)
- oil (canola or vegetable - smaller sizes are appreciated)
- gluten free items (mixes, snacks, pasta, soups etc)

JOIN ONLINE GIVING - During the summer, your continued financial support of our Collaborative remains vital. Online giving makes it easy to give from anywhere—safe, secure, and simple. Set up a one-time or recurring gift with your bank account, debit, or credit card, and update your preferences anytime. Just scan the QR code to get started.

HEARTBEAT PREGNANCY HELP EMERGENCY SUMMER CAMPAIGN

Heartbeat Pregnancy Help Center is in urgent need—and we need your help to stay open. Run entirely by volunteers out of a small church building, Heartbeat is a non-profit organization funded solely by donations. We provide expectant mothers in need with essential, brand-new baby items totaling about $350, including a pack-n-play, car seat with stroller, and a full layette. But with 105 babies registered for August—and more emergency requests coming daily—we need at least $35,000 this month alone. With 70 more already registered for September, the need is only growing. Will you help us continue this life-changing work? Please scan the QR code to donate. Every dollar makes a difference.

BOSTON SOCK EXCHANGE

Join us on Monday, August 18th at 6:30 PM in the St. Camillus Lower Church (kitchen) to make bagged lunches for area soup kitchens. This month, we need:

- Men's and women's lightweight socks,
- Small toiletries
- Gently used or new baseball caps.

Donation bins are located at each church. Thank you!

TEAM ARLINGTON ANGELS 2025 PAN MASS CHALLENGE

Many members of our Faith Family rode in last week-end's Pan-Mass Challenge in memory of Patrick Doherty, Matthew Griffin, and Catherine Malatesta — three young Arlington natives and St. Agnes parishioners taken from us at a young age. The team also rode in memory of Lt. Dan Kelly who lost his own battle to cancer in May 2022. Riding for their 6th year, the team has raised over $850,000 toward their $1 million goal.

Since 2007, 100% of rider-raised revenue from the Pan Mass Challenge has directly supported the Jimmy Fund and Dana-Farber Cancer Center. Congratulations!

CONGRATULATIONS!

We wish God's blessings on Francesca, Henry, Nolan, and Nathan who were baptized last Sunday.

"CHRISTMAS IN JULY" FOOD DRIVE

The Knights of Columbus annual "Christmas in July" food drive, held in partnership with St. Eulalia, officially wrapped up at the end of July. Nearly 180 bags of food were collected and delivered to the food pantry at St. Matthew's in Dorchester, helping support a community in need. This effort continues to make a meaningful impact—thank you to all who contributed.

JUBILEE OF YOUTH

HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV'S HOMILY GIVEN AT THE JUBILEE OF YOUTH AUGUST 3RD, 2025

After last night's Prayer Vigil, we gather again today to celebrate the Eucharist, the Sacrament of the Lord's total gift of himself to us. We can imagine ourselves today retracing the journey made on Easter evening by the disciples on the road to Emmaus (cf. Lk 24:13-35): they set out from Jerusalem frightened and disappointed, convinced that, after Jesus' death, there was nothing more to expect, nothing in which to place their hope. But they later found him along the way, welcomed him as a travelling companion, listened to him as he explained the Scriptures, and then recognized him in the breaking of the bread. Their eyes were opened, and the joyful news of Easter found a place in their hearts.

Today's liturgy does not mention this episode directly, but it does invite us to reflect on what it recounts: the encounter with the risen Christ who transforms our lives and enlightens our affections, desires and thoughts.

The first reading, taken from the Book of Ecclesiastes, invites us, like the two disciples, to come to terms with the experience of our limitations and the fleeting nature of all things that pass away (cf. Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23). On a similar note, the Responsorial Psalm presents us with the image of "the grass that is renewed... in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers" (Ps 90:5-6). These are two strong reminders which may be a bit shocking, but which should not frighten us as if they were "taboo" issues to be avoided. The fragility they speak of is, in fact, part of the marvel of creation. Think of the image of grass: is not a field of flowers beautiful? Of course, it is delicate, made up of small, vulnerable stems, prone to drying out, to being bent and broken. Yet at the same time these flowers are immediately replaced by others that sprout up after them, generously nourished and fertilized by the first ones as they decay on the ground. This is how the field survives: through constant regeneration. Even during the cold months of winter, when everything seems silent, its energy stirs beneath the ground, preparing to blossom into a thousand colors when spring comes.

We too, dear friends, are made this way, we are made for this. We are not made for a life where everything is taken for granted and static, but for an existence that is constantly renewed through gift of self in love. This is why we continually aspire to something "more" that no created reality can give us; we feel a deep and burning thirst that no drink in this world can satisfy. Knowing this, let us not deceive our hearts by trying to satisfy them with cheap imitations! Let us rather listen to them! Let us turn this thirst into a step stool, like children who stand on tiptoe, in order to peer through the window of encounter with God. We will then find ourselves before him, who is waiting for us, knocking gently on the window of our soul (cf. Rev 3:20). It is truly beautiful, especially at a young age, to open wide your hearts, to allow him to enter, and to set out on this adventure with him towards eternity.

Saint Augustine, reflecting on his intense search for God, asked himself: "What, then, is the object of our hope [...] Is it the earth? No. Is it something that comes from the earth, such as gold, silver, trees, crops, or water [...] These things are pleasing, these things are beautiful, these things are good" (Sermo 313/F, 3). And the conclusion he reached was: "Seek the one who made them, he is your hope" (ibid.). Thinking of his own journey, he prayed, saying: "You [Lord] were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for you [...] You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness. You flashed, you shone and you dispelled my blindness. You breathed your fragrance on me; I drew in breath and now I pant for you. I have tasted you (cf. Ps 34:8; 1 Pt 2:3) now I hunger and thirst for more (cf. Mt 5:6; 1 Cor 4:11); you touched me, and I burned for your peace" (Confessions, 10, 27).

Sisters and brothers, these are beautiful words and they remind us of what Pope Francis said to young people like you in Lisbon during World Youth Day: "we find ourselves facing great questions that have no simple or immediate answers, but challenge us to continue the journey, to rise above ourselves and to press beyond the here and now. [...] We are called to something higher, and we will never be able to soar unless we first take flight. We should not be alarmed, then, if we sense an inner thirst, a restless, unfulfilled longing for meaning and a future [...] We should not be lethargic, but alive!" (Address to University Students, 3 August 2023).

There is a burning question in our hearts, a need for truth that we cannot ignore, which leads us to ask ourselves: what is true happiness? What is the true meaning of life? What can free us from being trapped in meaninglessness, boredom and mediocrity?

In recent days, you have had many beautiful experiences. You have met other young people from different parts of the world and from diverse cultures. You have exchanged knowledge, shared expectations and entered into dialogue with the city through art, music, technology and sport. At the Circus Maximus, you also approached the Sacrament of Penance and received God's forgiveness, asking for his help to live a good life.

Through all this, you can grasp an important point: the fullness of our existence does not depend on what we store up or, as we heard in the Gospel, on what we possess (cf. Lk 12:13-21). Rather, fullness has to do with what we joyfully welcome and share (cf. Mt 10:8-10; Jn 6:1-13). Buying, hoarding and consuming are not enough. We need to lift our eyes, to look upwards, to the "things that are above" (Col 3:2), to realize that everything in the world has meaning only insofar as it serves to unite us to God and to our brothers and sisters in charity, helping us to grow in "compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience" (Col 3:12), forgiveness (cf. ibid., v. 13) and peace (cf. Jn 14:27), all in imitation of Christ (cf. Phil 2:5). And in this way we will grow in an ever deeper understanding of what it means that hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us (cf. Rom 5:5).

Dear young people, Jesus is our hope. It is he, as Saint John Paul II said, "who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives [...] to commit... to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal." (XV World Youth Day, Prayer Vigil, 19 August 2000). Let us remain united to him, let us remain in his friendship, always, cultivating it through prayer, adoration, Eucharistic Communion, frequent Confession, and generous charity, following the examples of Blessed Piergiorgio Frassati and Blessed Carlo Acutis who will soon be declared saints. Aspire to great things, to holiness, wherever you are. Do not settle for less. You will then see the light of the Gospel growing every day, in you and around you.

I entrust you to the Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Hope. With her help, as you return to your countries in the coming days, in every part of the world, continue to walk joyfully in the footsteps of the Savior, and spread your enthusiasm and the witness of your faith to everyone you meet! Have a good trip home!

CONNECT WITH US

WELCOME!

If you are new to the Catholic Parishes of Arlington or are visiting again or for the first time, we hope you will find a “home” here where you feel comfortable exploring your faith journey more deeply. Our goal is to accompany you in becoming the best version of yourself.

Please introduce yourself to an usher or staff member. Or fill out the connect card in the pew or scan the QR code to complete an online “Connect Card,” and we will reach out to you soon.

It is our honor to serve you.

BAPTISM

By appointment. Contact Fabiola Aguilera in the Collaborative Pastoral Center at info@cparl.org.

RECONCILIATION

Celebrated on Saturdays.

9:30 AM at Saint Camillus

3:00 PM at Saint Agnes, Mercy Chapel | Lower Church

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is also available by appointment.

MARRIAGE

Congratulations on your engagement! Contact the office to begin the preparation process.

FUNERALS

The clergy and staff are here to support you, in ensuring a reverent funeral worthy of the deceased.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the sacrament. Contact a priest to celebrate this sacrament.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Adults wishing to become Catholics or complete the Sacraments of Christian Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) should contact Meredith Smith.

HOMEBOUND

Please call (781-648-0220) or email us if any family member is ill (hospitalized or at home) or if anyone is unable to attend church services because of a disability, illness, or age.

THE SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

We strive to serve individuals and families in Arlington, providing those in need with short-term assistance and life improvement possibilities. Contact SVdP at ext 450.
