A MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP HENNING

NOVEMBER

In this last month of the liturgical year, before the new year begins with the First Sunday of Advent, the Scripture passages turn to the ultimate things -- ultimate in the sense of last and also in the sense of their importance. The Scriptures speak of the urgency of the moment and the summons to awaken and prepare for the return of the Lord. The early part of Advent takes up similar themes as we conclude and begin our liturgical observance with the longing for the Lord and the clarion call to prepare the way of the Lord.

November begins with the celebration of All Saints, a reminder of the remarkable diversity and number of those who have been the good ground for the seed of God's Word. We conclude on or near the Feast of Christ the King of the Universe, recognizing the majesty and sovereignty of the Lord. These and other celebrations during this month bring us deeper into the life of discipleship.

Next week, I will be gathering with the other bishops of the United States for our annual meeting in Baltimore. Looking ahead to the week, I was struck by the liturgical calendar during the meetings.

Monday will be the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. We are used to seeing our Holy Father at St. Peter's Basilica, the site where that saint is buried. Nonetheless, the Lateran Basilica, dedicated to St. John, is the cathedral for the Archdiocese of Rome and the place where the Holy Father's ancient throne is situated. The next day, the Church will remember Pope Leo the Great. These two celebrations will remind the bishops of our closeness to Pope Leo XIV. St. Leo the Great, the first Leo, was noted for his defense of the Church from external attacks and from internal corruption. He devoted himself to bringing the Church to a deeper understanding of Christ and so helped forge the foundations of the ministry of the popes.

On November 11th, we will observe the Memorial of St. Martin of Tours, another key model for bishops as a man of charity and humility. The soldier Martin famously used his sword to cut his cloak in two in order to give half to a beggar on the road.

After retiring from the soldier's life, St. Martin took up the life of a monk and evangelizer. Drawn to visit the city of Tours by the claim that a sick man needed tending, Martin was pressed to become the Bishop of Tours by a church that admired his humility and faith. The date of his memorial has taken on new layers of meaning as the First World War armistice took effect on the feast of this soldier-turned-peacemaker. Today, St. Martin's Day is Veterans Day here in the United States. Given the importance of ministry to the service men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces, representatives of all the branches are typically present for the bishop's meetings in order to seek sacramental care of the troops. It will be especially meaningful to greet and honor them on the feast of their patron, St. Martin of Tours. I invite us all to be sure to pray on that day for the well-being of those who have served and to express gratitude to the veterans in our communities.

November 13th will be the memorial of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Despite struggles with illness and prejudice against Italian immigrants, Mother Cabrini lived a life of heroic charity. The clarity of her choice to accompany the poor and immigrants shamed the elites of her time and inspired many others to act with compassion towards newcomers. This one woman, on fire with faith, hope, and love, founded hospitals, care homes, schools, and orphanages. Her example will certainly inspire bishops for the challenges of our own day.

I hope that the rich witness of the liturgical celebrations in November will bring us all closer to the heart of Christ. I also pray that St. Leo the Great, St. Martin of Tours, and St. Frances Xavier Cabrini will intercede for the bishops of the U.S. and inspire the same kind of faith and charity that so animated these Holy Ones of the Lord.

THE ST. CAMILLUS SANCTUARY LIGHT

The sanctuary light will burn the week of November 16th, 2025 for Paul F. Shepard.

PLEASE PRAY

Please pray for Francis Bennett, Donald O'Brien, Elizabeth Power, Eugene Preston, and Joan R. Sullivan who died recently. We also pray for the sick of our Collaborative and for those that care for them.

Sunday, November 16th is World Day for the Poor. God of Abraham, everywhere we go we see Lazarus. But we also see so many doors, doors that separate us from Lazarus. Lord, teach us to open those doors to Lazarus, to the poor, to help them find a just share of your bounty. This World Day of the Poor, help us all turn to those outside our door, to bless, heal and comfort them. Help us to build a world together, where the poor are strangers to none, and the very chains of poverty are broken.

St. Agnes and St. Camillus Churches are open during the day for personal prayer.

CPARL ADVENT GIVING TREE

Gift tags with the requested items can be found in the back of each church. Please return your unwrapped gift on the weekend of December 6th and 7th to allow time for the sponsored organizations to sort and distribute them. During the Offertory procession at each Mass on this weekend, you will have the opportunity to bring your gifts to the sanctuary. There is also an online Giving Tree option. Scan the QR code for more information.

If you'd like to give an item that's not listed, just attach one of the blank tags to your gift. Thank you for bringing Christ's light and hope to those in need this holiday season!

SEMINARY DINNER

Saint John's Seminary recently hosted the Saint Andrew Dinner, an evening where high school-aged young men from across the Archdiocese of Boston are invited to tour the seminary, share a meal with seminarians, and learn more about vocational discernment. The evening was graced with the presence of The Most Reverend Richard G. Henning, S.T.D., who spoke about listening to God's call and the importance of the priesthood in today's world. Arlington Catholic High School was proud to have 18 students attend this year — up from 7 last year — an excellent sign of growing faith and curiosity about vocations. A special thanks to Father Dominic and AC Campus Ministry Director Andrew Buck for organizing and accompanying the students.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

This past weekend, we celebrated the annual Mass of Remembrance. Father Marc, assisted by Deacon Bob, celebrated a beautiful liturgy followed by a collation in Hope Hall. Thank you to all who volunteered to make the afternoon a success, especially the Social Team.

STEM FUN

One of Saint Agnes School's first-grade classes invited their fifth-grade buddies to work together on a STEM project. Students built creative structures with toothpicks and marshmallows. They tested different designs to assess their stability and strength. Students learned about geometry and thought about their engineering processes. A great example of hands-on learning fun!

ACDC PERFORMANCE

Last weekend, the Arlington Catholic Drama Club (ACDC) lit up the stage with their spirited performance of "Make 'Em Laugh." The cast wowed the audience with their energy, humor, and heart — showcasing the incredible talent and teamwork of our students.
