A PRAYER FOR THE COMMONWEALTH

Last week, I offered the invocation for the special joint session of the Massachusetts Legislature and the "State of the Commonwealth" address by Gov. Healy. The Governor invited me to offer the prayer, and I was honored to accept. Scripture teaches us to pray for our communities and for our secular leaders (cf. 1 Tim. 2:1-2).

In a time when angry and divisive rhetoric abound, it is all the more important to pray that our leaders exercise prudence. Recent tragic events remind us that angry words can too easily become violent actions. The "us" and "them" of contemporary culture does harm to the very notion of "we the people" enshrined in the U.S. Constitution. I invite us all to pray for peace in our world, in our nation, in our communities, and in our hearts. To that end, permit me to share with you here the text of the interfaith prayer that I offered at the Statehouse last week:

"Blessed are you, Lord Our God, King of the Universe, for through Your goodness we receive the beauty of creation and find sustenance in the bounty of land, sea and sky. We praise You this night for the blessings of liberty and for the gift of a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" (Abraham Lincoln, Gettysburg Address)

We give You praise for calling forth leaders from among us, and we ask Your blessing upon Governor Maura Healy, Lieutenant Governor Driscoll, Senate President Spilka, and House Speaker Mariano. We ask Your blessing upon our congressional delegation, our state legislators, Chief Judge Budd and all justices and officers of the courts, and all of the elected officials of the state and in the counties, cities, towns, and villages across Massachusetts. We pray for first responders and all those who give themselves to public service. Give wisdom to our Governor and to all of our leaders that they may see beyond appearances and apply their gifts to maintain the peace and foster the common good. Give them listening hearts and an abiding commitment to preserve liberty, promote justice, and practice mercy.

We ask Your blessing upon the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. As a people, "e pluribus unum," out of many one (traditional motto of the United States), we give You thanks for the gift of the many and varied communities of this state, and we ask the grace of unity in diversity. Help us to see and hear one another with humility and understanding. Inspire us to build up rather than tear down. May our hands be open in friendship and our hearts full with compassion.

May our communities and citizens be ever committed to the education and formation of the young and to the loving care of those who are sick, elderly, or infirm. Open our eyes to every kind of poverty and strengthen us to accompany and assist each other in any and all struggle and despair. Bring forth in us "the better angels of our nature" (Abraham Lincoln, First Inaugural Address) and make of us a society where the "widow, the orphan, and the stranger" (Deut. 10:18) find a home. Teach us to turn away from selfishness and to ask what we might do for our nation and our Commonwealth (Cf. John F. Kennedy, Inaugural Address).

Bless our industry and labor, and if it is in accord with Your holy will, grant us prosperity so that we may praise Your bounty and employ such gifts to exercise charity, craft beauty, and offer opportunity.

Author of Life, Yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory. Your everlasting love is our greatest hope and our most fundamental calling. Reveal to us the sacred dignity of every person and help us to protect and cherish the gift of life. Make of us "a more perfect union" (Preamble to the Constitution of the United States) and a Commonwealth where faith, hope, and love abound.

We ask this and all things with confidence in Divine Providence through your Holy Name, You Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen."

-Archbishop Richard G. Henning, S.T.D.
Archbishop of Boston

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

CONTACT US AT 781-648-0220 x 450

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us, "You are the light of the world," calling each of us to live our Christian vocation not only in words, but in deeds.

Here in Arlington, we are invited to be that light by reaching out to our neighbors with compassion, generosity, and love – especially those who are struggling or feel unseen. Through simple acts of kindness and service, we make Christ's light visible in our everyday lives.

BOSTON SOCK EXCHANGE

In our 15th year of service to our unhoused brothers and sisters, the Boston Sock Exchange has been a continuous ministry since 2011. Once a month, parishioners gather at the St. Camillus kitchen to prepare 100 bagged lunches for the unhoused in the Boston area. We currently deliver these lunches to the Bristol Lodge Soup Kitchen in Waltham, which serves dinner daily. Guests receive one of our lunch bags as they leave for the following day. Each bag contains a sandwich, fruit, a granola bar, water, and a pair of socks. We also provide small toiletries and seasonal items such as hats, scarves, and gloves.

All of this is made possible by the generosity of our parishioners, who continue to supply the necessary ingredients and items. THANK YOU for your continued support over the years; this ministry would not be possible without you. Our next gathering is on Monday, February 16th at 6:30 PM in the St. Camillus kitchen.

Our Lady of Lourdes

FEAST DAY—FEBRUARY 11

In 1890, Pope Leo XIII allowed the local Diocese of Tarbes to celebrate this feast; Pope Pius X made it a universal feast in 1907. Lourdes is perhaps the most famous Marian shrine in Western Europe, where many go to invoke God's healing grace through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes.

—CNS/USCCB

On February 11, the Church celebrates the feast day of Our Lady of Lourdes. It was on this date in 1858 that an apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a peasant girl named Bernadette Soubirous. Over the next month and a half, Mary—appearing as the Immaculate Conception—would appear a total of 18 times. After the ninth appearance, on February 25, Bernadette discovered a spring in the grotto where Mary appeared. Many miraculous cures have been ascribed to the waters of the spring.

Later in her life, Bernadette became a Sister of Charity of Nevers and sought a life of silence and prayer. She died on April 16, 1879, at the age of 35. She was canonized—declared a saint—in 1933.

the Blessed Virgin Mary were initially met with skepticism. After a careful investigation by a commission established by the local bishop, the Church declared that her visions were genuine and contained nothing contrary to the Catholic faith. Given the powerful impact that such apparitions can have on individuals and the whole faith community, the Church always approaches such claims with great care and formally evaluates them before either accepting or rejecting a visionary's claims. Many times, the claims can't be substantiated, or are contrary to the Church's faith.

But Bernadette's visions were quickly recognized as genuine. They encouraged a deeper life of prayer, especially praying the Rosary, and encouraged a fervent trust in God's salvific power.
