Living Faith Weekly Devotional

Whose Are We?

Know that the Lord is God;
he made us, his we are.
Psalm 100:3

One of the greatest challenges of our faith today is hanging on to our Christian hope. It's a challenge because we are exposed to so much bad news from all over the world. If a passenger plane crashes into the ocean, or an earthquake hits, or flood waters inundate a region, or a war erupts in foreign nations, we not only know about it, we also see live coverage of the devastation and countless suffering people.

How do we put into perspective the bad news we encounter in the world and in our personal lives?

These two short lines from today's psalm could help. As believers, we know the Lord is God. And God's love and wisdom far exceed anything we can imagine. The real question to ask: Do we trust in God? Secondly, the psalm says that God made us. We belong to God. Another question to ponder: Whose are we?

*Wise and loving God, increase my trust in you.
Remind me every day that I belong to you -- and so does everyone else.*

Please remember in your prayers the family of

Donald Drees (June 12)
Arlene Steffes (June 13)
Lucille Sandquist (June 15)

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Welcome our newly baptized

Kyle & Erin Stevens' daughter, Maggie Rae
