From the Administrator, Fr. Patrick Behm Week of July 18-23 Eucharistic Revival News

Two weeks ago, I wrote about the ten feast days when we will distribute the Precious Blood of Jesus during Mass at St. John Paul II Parish: Christmas, Epiphany, Holy Thursday, Easter, Ascension, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi, Christ the King, and at First Communion Masses. But, due to space constraints, I didn't explain WHY I think this is the best approach to take for the distribution of the Precious Blood. So, please allow me to explain why I made this decision.

It's a dogma of our faith (meaning a defined teaching) that ALL of Jesus - his Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity is contained in BOTH "species" of the Eucharist (species is the technical term we use to describe what looks like bread and wine, but what we know through faith is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ). In other words, the whole Christ is contained under BOTH the Eucharistic species of bread and the Eucharistic species of wine. So, in only receiving our Lord under one of the two species, people are not deprived of any part of Him. This is known as the doctrine of concomitance.

Paragraph 1390 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, " Since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace. For pastoral reasons this manner of receiving communion has been legitimately established as the most common form in the Latin rite. But, that paragraph goes on to say, "The sign of communion is more complete when given under both kinds, since in that form the sign of the Eucharistic meal appears more clearly." Hence, why we will not completely eliminate the practice of offering both Eucharistic species from time to time at our parish liturgies (specifically the ten times mentioned above). This will also serve to emphasize the importance of these major feast days throughout our liturgical year. (To be continued in next week's column)

Blessings,
Fr. Behm
