November 5 (Holy Spirit)

From the Administrator, Fr. Patrick Behm

Some weeks back, I wrote a column about the importance of keeping the Eucharistic fast. And, I want to reiterate what I said in that column. Observing the one-hour Communion fast is important in maintaining a reverence owed to the Blessed Sacrament and our Lord's True Presence. But, it has come to my attention that some of our parishioners who are homebound or living in a care facility have been refusing to receive Holy Communion due to believing that they are also obliged to keep the one-hour Eucharistic fast. It's not always clear-cut when someone will be arriving to bring them Holy Communion.

So, for the benefit of those parishioners and really for all of us, for we all may be homebound or in a care facility some day, I want to state very clearly that parishioners who are homebound or in a care facility need not keep the one-hour fast. Moreover, those who care for them are also not bound to observe the fast. So, if someone brings you Holy Communion, and you have recently eaten something, please feel free to receive our Lord in Holy Communion without hesitation!

As always, please feel very free to contact the parish with any particular questions you may have. We're happy to help you!

Synod Call to Adoration

Pope Francis addressed the Synod on Synodality with these words.

"The amazement of Adoration, the wonder of worship, is something essential in the life of the Church, especially in our own day in which we have abandoned the practice of Adoration."

This amazement of Adoration, Jesus Himself, is present in our Chapel!

November: The Month of Remembrance

This month we remember those who have died and we pray for them in a special way. Let us remember our loved ones and hold fast to the hope of one day being reunited with them in Christ.

If you wish to donate, please contact Mary Jo at the Parish Office. (If writing a check, please make it out to St. John Paul II Parish, but in the memo line just note "Thanksgiving Meal"). We will be limiting the number of meals being served at 100 based on the average number of meals in previous years.

Your kindness and generosity is truly appreciated!

Are you interested in celebrating a baptism? We ask all parents who have not been through our baptismal preparation program to attend this free two-session course with one of our deacons in order to better understand this sacrament! Please register with Mary Jo Wieland in our parish office.
