From the Administrator, Fr. Patrick Behm

I pray everyone reading this is having a blessed Advent season, anxiously awaiting the coming of our Lord, Jesus! In the midst of all the craziness that can go along with the Christmas season, I encourage all of us to take some time out of our busy schedules to sit and pray. We all need some silence in our lives, and the Advent season is an especially appropriate time to be in silence, waiting for the Lord to come.

This year Christmas happens to fall on a Monday. Whenever that happens, it creates a number of scheduling challenges in a parish, because as priests, we can only celebrate three Masses on a Sunday. That includes any Masses in the morning for the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Masses in the evening for the vigil of Christmas. That means that between Fr. Peter and myself, we can only offer six parish Masses that day. We've adjusted our parish Mass schedule slightly to allow for this unique situation. Also, since the Christmas Vigil Masses are by far the most well attended Christmas Masses each year, we've decided to have two of them, and both will be at Holy Spirit, since it's the largest church in our parish, and can most easily accommodate the anticipated large crowds.

Since there are two days of obligation (the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Day), Catholics need to go to two Masses. Without getting into all of the technicalities about how this obligation may be met, I'd encourage all of our parishioners to go to Mass once for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, and again for Christmas. Our Mass schedule here at St. John Paul II Parish will be as follows:

Fourth Sunday of Advent: Saturday, December 23

4:30 P.M. Holy Spirit, Carroll

5:30 P.M. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Glidden

6:00 P.M. St. Lawrence, Carroll (please note this is a change from the regular schedule)
