From the Pastor, Fr. Patrick Behm

This week, we not only celebrate the Lord's Resurrection, but we also as a Church mourn the passing of our dear Holy Father, Pope Francis. Please pray for the repose of his soul, and let us all certainly hold the College of Cardinals in our prayers as they gather in Rome for the conclave to elect the new pope.

Pope Francis has often been called the "Pope of Mercy," so it's fitting that his death comes in such close proximity to today's feast, Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope Francis, like his two predecessors--John Paul II and Benedict XVI--had a deep devotion to the Divine Mercy. He knew well his own weaknesses and failures and how desperately he himself was in need of our Lord's mercy.

The Divine Mercy devotion traces its origin back to 20th Century Poland and a religious sister named Sr. Faustina Kowalska. Over a period of years, our Lord Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to her. The words that they spoke to her are recorded in Sr. Faustina's diary, called Divine Mercy in My Soul: the Diary of Sr. Faustina Kowalska. I highly recommend this book! In it, the Lord reveals the depths of His merciful love, radiating from His Sacred Heart.

In 2016, Pope Francis called an "Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy." In his papal letter making this announcement, he wrote this beautiful line, "With our eyes fixed on Jesus and his merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity. The mission Jesus received from the Father was that of revealing the mystery of divine love in its fullness." (Misericordiae Vultus #8) How true is this beautiful line! This was the message of Jesus to St. Faustina, the message of St. John Paul II to the world, and now re-echoed by Pope Francis. In some sense, it's the summation of the whole Gospel. . . God is love, and love is mercy

This Sunday, please join us at St. Mary's in Willey for our Divine Mercy holy hour at 2:30pm. We have time for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament and the image of the Divine Mercy, the singing of the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy, and an opportunity for confession. It will be a fitting way to close the Octave of Easter and to honor the memory of our departed Holy Father, Pope Francis, the Pope of Mercy.

† Parish News †

THANK YOU from FR. COLLISON ~ I take this opportunity to thank all of you for your generous contributions to the special Easter Collection for the Retired Priests of the diocese. Your generosity helps fund the pension that helps those of us who are retired with the daily living expenses that were once covered with room and board that was part of our regular compensation in the active ministry. I sincerely appreciate your generosity and continued care as we, the retired priests, hope to continue serving you. May the Lord continue to bless you abundantly.

THANK YOU from FR. SCHOTT ~ In the 1990s Bishop Soens wisely inaugurated “A Time to Remember,” a capital campaign to capitalize our diocesan Priests’ Pension Plan and Welfare Fund. The purposes were to increase pension benefits for us retired priests and to provide an improved health-care coverage for us. I remember visiting parishioners to ask for their support. And I remember how hugely successful this campaign was. Bishop Soens wisely perceived your desire to help retired priests and your generosity to us. You far exceeded Bishop Soens’ goal. At that time I was 25 years away from retirement, but I remember how lifted up I was by your kindness. That concern and generosity has continued via your estate gifts and response to the annual collection for retired priests. Thank You. I appreciate receiving a monthly pension. I appreciate the security of knowing that if I suffer a catastrophic health crisis, the Welfare Fund will help me. And I appreciate your many kindnesses, asking me to preside at funerals, thanking me for filling in for Vigil/Sunday Masses, and the cards and gifts that arrive on feasts and special occasions. God has blessed me with a wonderful life and with good friends. Thank you for your contribution to that. I keep you in prayer and ask that you do the same for me. God is good.
