Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.

From the Pastor, Fr. Patrick Behm

Throughout the Easter season, we read from Acts of the Apostles. Acts was written by St. Luke, almost as a continuation of his Gospel account of the life of Christ. The book primarily revolves around the two main characters of Sts. Peter and Paul, but other apostles and early Christians certainly make an appearance as well. One of those apostles is St. Matthias. We read in Acts 1:15-26 about how he was chosen by lot to take the place of Judas, who betrayed our Lord. We see in St. Matthias the first occasion of apostolic succession in the Church. This succession has continued down to the present day every single time a new bishop is consecrated in the Church. We were blessed to experience this on Thursday here in the Diocese of Sioux City.

Through the consecration of three of his brother bishops, Bishop Keehner has been elevated to the rank of the Apostles, in the same way St. Matthias once was. This lineage of bishops can be traced back to the earliest days of the Church. In fact, Bishop Keehner now has a record of who consecrated him, who consecrated his consecrators, and so on and so forth for as far back as we have historical records.

On Wednesday, May 7, the College of Cardinals will also go into conclave, meaning "with keys" to elect the next pope, the next successor of St. Peter. Just like with the bishops, the Chair of St. Peter, the office of the papacy, has an unbroken line going all the way back to St. Peter himself. Please keep the Cardinals in your prayers throughout the conclave, that they will be open and docile to the will of the Holy Spirit. And certainly, please keep the next pope, at the time of this writing known only to God, in your prayers.

In the span of just a couple of weeks, we will have a new pope to shepherd the universal Church, and a new bishop to shepherd the local Church here in the Diocese of Sioux City. Both show forth once again that it truly is Christ Who is guiding His Church, who never abandons us or leaves us without a shepherd. Please continue to pray for Bishop Keehner, the College of Cardinals, and the one whom God will choose to serve as our next pope.
