Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

From the Pastor, Fr. Patrick Behm

By the time last week's bulletin went to press, the College of Cardinals had not yet elected our new Holy Father. But, this week, we rejoice in the election of His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV. As you've no doubt heard, he's the first pope born here in the United States of America.

As Pope Leo undertakes this enormous task of shepherding the universal church, it's our responsibility to pray for him. Of course, we do this every day at Mass. The name of the Pope is mentioned in all ten Eucharistic Prayers which the priest has the option of using. But, beyond this, it's vital that we pray for him daily, as he, like any of us, can only fulfill his vocation with the help of grace.

In the person of Pope Leo XIV, we see our Lord's promise that the gates of hell would never prevail against His Church (see Matthew 16:18) lived out in real time. Since the beginning, God--the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit--has guided His Church through the ministry of Peter, the rock on whom Christ has built His Church. We've had, and will continue to have, both good and bad popes. Saints and sinners. But Christ, in His infinite mercy, continues to guide all of them as they guide us.

Let us give thanks to God for the gift of Pope Leo XIV, and let us assist him with our prayers.
