FOOD FOR THE POOR
Saving Lives... Transforming Communities... Renewing Hope

Dear Friends,

As I sit down to write to you, I reflect upon how deeply I am moved at the way your selfless generosity has helped provide an answer to prayer in a very real way for someone in need.

Your willingness to share your blessings has made a difference for someone living in the most impoverished places in the Caribbean and Latin America. Whether you have helped ease hunger pangs, quenched thirst, provided shelter or helped in some other meaningful way, your compassion is lighting a path out of poverty.

I am praying that the blessings of what you have done create even more light in your heart.

"... that He may grant you in accord with the riches of His glory to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner self." (Ephesians 3:16)

Thank you for allowing Him to work through you. May God bless you and your loved ones throughout 2019

A servant of the poor,

Our Parish raised a total of $3, 677.20! Thank you for your generosity.
"Small parishes do great things."

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading: I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!" (Is 6:8)

Psalm: In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord. (Ps 138)

Second Reading: Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed. (1 Cor 15:11)

Gospel: Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men."

When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. (Lk 5:10b-11)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: In witnessing the revelation of God's holy presence, Isaiah was deeply troubled by his own sin. Then the Lord freed him from his sin, and he was open to do God's will. How would you describe your spiritual disposition after reconciliation with the Lord?

Second Reading: Paul reports to the Corinthians of the many people to whom Jesus revealed himself after he rose from the dead. Paul includes himself on that list, speaking frequently of God's grace. Where do you see God's grace in your life?

Gospel Reading: Luke offers us a lot of insights into the personality of Peter with his account of Jesus' call of the first disciples. What do we know about Peter based on this call narrative?

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say "Here I am, Lord."

How to Report Sexual Abuse

If you were sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or you know of someone who was, you are encouraged to report that abuse to law enforcement and/or by contacting the Diocesan Response Officer at (908) 930-4558 (24 hours/7 days a week). For more information on how to report abuse, visit our diocesan website: <https://diometuchen.org/report-a-suspected-abuse>.

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Do you have enough? Many of us come from a nation of material abundance. We have all the things we could possibly need not only to survive, but to thrive - food, shelter, mental ability, income, access to medical care. Most people in human history lived with far less than we. So why are we so dissatisfied? Some Christians can be drawn to the "prosperity Gospel." This is the idea that following God will bring us material abundance in this life.

That surely seems to be the story of today's Gospel! Peter and his friends chose - with some faith - to put out their nets a final time at Jesus' command. "They caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking." What gift! What abundance! What prosperity! Peter and his friends caught more fish than they'd ever seen. Yet what is their response to this material abundance, this gift from God? They leave it behind. "When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him." Praying for God to meet our physical, material needs is not a bad thing! Jesus himself includes "give us this day our daily bread" in the prayer he teaches his disciples. The question is, how do we respond when our prayers are answered? Do we thank God briefly, or perhaps ignore Him completely and move on with our lives? Or do we respond as Peter did? "God? You showed up in an area that has no bearing on my eternal salvation. You gave me a gift I didn't even really need. You love me! You really do love me." Is our gratitude only surface level? Or do we allow ourselves, like Peter did, to respond with wonder, awe, and deeper discipleship?

5th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever felt a compelling urge to respond to a situation and then found yourself questioning whether you should do so? Fear often takes hold of us, and we find ourselves making excuses for why it is better to just mind our own business. There is a voice within each of us that is saying, "Follow me". What does this prompting mean? The purpose of discipleship is not to secure our own station in life and enhance our comfort zone. Discipleship is about taking risks and venturing forth into the unknown, tending to the needs of others and being prophetic voices of change. We will not drink deeply of life until we listen to the voice of God within. When God asks, "Whom shall I send?", will you reply, "Here I am? send me!"?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Have you ever participated in various trust exercises, where you have to place your faith in others around you? Maybe it was falling backwards with your eyes closed while the person's voice speaking to you seemed to drift further away. Maybe it was jumping from a height into people's arms that didn't seem strong enough to catch you. These activities were supposed to show you the meaning of trust and help grow that trust in you for your comrades. Sometimes it worked. Other times, some prankster would actually let you fall, and then you learned to trust no one. So much for building up our ability to trust.

Trust is important, especially in our relationship with Jesus. He calls us all the time and asks for us to trust. However, because of doubt or a desire to follow our own will, we choose to disregard his request. After objecting to Jesus' request to lower his net into the water, Peter was humbled when he caught so much fish that the net began to tear. Peter was a fisherman by trade. Surely he knew what the catch was probably going to be that day. But Jesus asked him to follow his will. Peter wanted to follow his own. Peter realized that his trust from then on should be in the Lord. Do you sometimes think your generosity will bear little fruit? Do you wonder if your surrender to God in stewardship living really amounts to much at all? Trust in Jesus, the one who calls you to this life. His word is truth, and he would never let you fall. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

From the desk of the Pastor,

Congratulations to all our couples who were married sacramentally in the Church. Please join us in the Lower Church Hall for some breakfast bagels Monday, The Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes is also World Day of the Sick. This Thursday, we celebrate the Feast of Sts. Cyril and Methodius, our Slovak Saints. Thursday is also St. Valentine's Day. We are into the Fifth Sunday of Ordinary time and the Season of Lent is approaching quickly. To help you prepare for the Lenten/Easter season you can turn to your local bookstore and pick up some reading material for these 40 days or if you are computer savvy; there are numerous websites on the Catholic faith to peruse and locate reading material for Lent. Try the USCCB website for additional information.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal this week and runs through the Easter Season. The parish goal for this year's appeal is $25,000.00, the same as last year. Two years ago, we went over our goal and received a rebate. Last year we reached 99.76% of our goal, thus no rebate. We are more aware of giving alms during this time of year due to the Lenten Season. I am asking you to thoughtfully and prayerfully to review your finances and make your sacrificial offering to the Appeal. This decision must be made from your heart after much discernment in prayer with our Lord. May God bless you for your donation to this beneficial cause. I have already made my contribution to this year's Appeal. I am hoping we will surpass our goal this year and receive a rebate to from the Appeal this year.

Bishop Checchio will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in our parish on Wednesday, April 03, 2019 at 7:00 pm. We welcome this year the Confirmandee students from Christ the Redeemer Parish, Manville who will be joining us for the celebration of this sacrament. The Bishop has asked smaller parishes to join with others parishes for a larger celebration of the sacrament. I ask you to keep the students from both parishes in your prayers as they make this important step in their faith life. Once they receive this sacrament; The third required sacrament (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) they are considered adults in the eyes of the Church and are expected to fully participate in the ministry and life of their parish. As new Adults, fully initiated into the Church; they are now eligible to act as Godparents for Baptism and as a Sponsor for Confirmation. May the Lord continue to bless these young people. May you be as generous to others as the Lord is generous to you. God bless you all, Father Ken

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: What kind of religious practices should we begin, once we marry, to help us practice our faith each day?
Answer: Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives.

If you're not already praying individually, that's a good place to start. If your schedules are similar, take some quiet time at the same time to help hold each other accountable. Praying together is also important! You could start by looking at the religious practices of your family and of families around you that you respect. Talk with your spouse about the ones who make the deepest impression on you or were most meaningful when you were young. Think about what you want your future children to experience. Making faith a commitment now will mean it is engrained habit when you grow your family. Ultimately, these faith practices should help us grow in our love for God and for one another.

Bishop's Annual Appeal Help Build A Civilization of Love

Please watch your mailbox for a letter from Bishop Checchio coming to you this week announcing the 2019 Bishop's Annual Appeal.

The campaign will again be conducted during Lent and our parish can earn a rebate of 50% of the amount collected over. Through your support of the Bishop's Annual Appeal you help those in our diocese whose needs are the greatest—the poor, the homeless, and those struggling with illness or grief. Among other needed pastoral ministries, your gift also supports our Cultural Diversity Ministries and enhances the work of forming our youth. The many pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Metuchen would not be possible without a generous contribution from each household. Please be as generous as your means allow.

National Marriage Week is February 7-14, 2019 Prayer for Married Couples

Almighty and eternal God, You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church: look with kindness on them. Renew their marriage covenant, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer of the Month Our Lady of Lourdes February 11

O ever Immaculate Virgin, Mother of mercy, heath of the sick, refuge of sinners, comforter of the afflicted, you know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings; look with mercy on me.

By appearing in the Grotto of Lourdes, you were please to make it a privileged sanctuary, whence you dispense your favors; and already many sufferers have obtained the cure of their infirmities, both spiritual and corporal.

I come therefore, with complete confidence to implore your maternal intercession. Obtain, O loving Mother, the grant of my requests. Through gratitude for your favors, I will endeavor to imitate your virtues, that I may one day share your glory. Amen

These brothers by birth became brothers in mission. Cyril and Methodius were born to a Greek diplomat in the 800s. The two brothers served in local governmental posts before each withdrew to a monastery. Their lives changed when the political leadership in Eastern Europe - what is now Ukraine - requested priests who spoke the native Slavic languages. Cyril and Methodius had proven themselves as able administrators and holy men, so they were sent as missionaries. First, Cyril invented an alphabet. This became the foundation for what is now used today and is still called the Cyrillic alphabet! Next, the brothers translated the Gospels, the Psalms, and other liturgical books into the native language of the people. Their work spread across Eastern Europe. God indeed raises up saints for their times!

NAMELESS YET KNOWN:

Identifying with the Unnamed People in Scripture

Scripture is filled with "anonymous" people who encounter Jesus and are healed or transformed. What do these unnamed people have to say to me? Do I see my story in theirs? Come for an evening of reflection to learn how your journey mirrors the encounters of some of the nameless women and men who meet Jesus.
