

The Roman Catholic Community of Saint Joseph

16 East Somerset Street, Raritan, NJ 08869

We, the Catholic Community of St. Joseph, are committed to follow Jesus Christ. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we strive to be good stewards in our lives. We pray for peace, forgiveness, and for one another as Christ loves us!

Baptisms

Baptisms are usually held on Saturday mornings any-time throughout the year (with the exception of the Lenten Season). Parents must be registered parish-ioners and complete a Baptismal Preparation class. It is required that godparents are no less than 16 years of age and have completed the three Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation. If the godparents are a married couple, they need to have been married by the Catholic Church. Please contact the Parish Office to arrange for the class and the date of Baptism.

Sponsor Certificates

Sponsors (Godparents) for Baptism and Confirmation are required to verify their eligibility. They must be fully initiated Catholic who actively practice their faith and are in good standing with the Church. For more information please contact the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

If you are considering becoming Catholic, or desire to complete your sacraments, please contact the Parish Office for more information about RCIA.

Pastoral Care of the Sick

Please call the rectory and let us know when a member of your family is in the hospital so a priest can arrange to visit them. Make sure you contact the Pastoral Care Office in the hospital so the Chaplain can bring you communion daily. In the event of an emergency please call 908 392-7962 anytime of the day or night.

Marriages

Please call the office to meet with the Pastor as soon as you become engaged and before any preparations are made. Arrangements should be made one year in advance. Couples preparing for marriage must attend required Pre-Cana sessions within the Diocese along with F.O.C.C.U.S. and sessions with your Parish Priest or Deacon.

Under the Pastoral Care of the Priests and brothers of the Congregation of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri.

His Word Today

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 14, 2021

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the ends of the sky... But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

The vision portrayed in the gospel, and the apocalyptic vision of Daniel, can be both alarming and frightening. For how many centuries Christians have reflected upon these words and often dismissed them?

But wait! How many persons who have heard them are not with us now because of the pandemic? The numbers who have died have been measured with the numbers who perished in the military conflicts of the last century. We pray for them who ask our prayer.

When will these things occur? Am I ready?

As we draw close to the end of the church year, consider the frailty of our lives, the nearness of our meeting the Lord and His judgement that awaits us. May we be ready to go to meet Him.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory."

(Mark 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to live and grateful and generous lifestyle.

Please come up to the St. Joseph Altar and look at our "In Memoriam" Board and say a prayer for our parishioners who died this past year.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discusses the end of the world, a time when the dead shall rise and everyone will be judged. He warns that some shall "be an everlasting horror and disgrace." But he promises that some will live forever, and the wise will shine brightly to lead others to justice.

Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Priests repeatedly offered sacrifices that were unable to take away sin. But through Jesus' one sacrifice, our sins were forgiven, leaving no need for other offerings.

Gospel: 13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

We have been hearing a lot about the predictions from the Mayan Calendar that the world will end on December 21, 2012. Those kinds of rumors flare up periodically. Each generation must deal with the end of the world, or worlds, we have known. We already have known many endings in our lifetime. The world will end, but how are we now living in it? We Americans live so much in the future, we plan how things will be when we get out of school, settle into a job, marry, retire, get the kids through school, etc. Jesus, however, invites us to welcome each moment, live it fully, grow in love for God and others. Jesus says that we don't know what hour will be our last - so let this hour be important. If you, or someone you know would like to hear more about Jesus and placing our trust in God, we invite you to join us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry sessions DO NOT assume a commitment to join the Catholic Faith family. Inquiry sessions are opportunities to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith Family. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with God. For more information, call: Fr. Tom @ St. Ann's 908 725-1008, Fr. Lecturas del domingo

Primera Lectura: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel discute el fin del mundo, un tiempo cuando los muertos se levantarán y todos serán juzgados. Advierte que algunos serán "la vergüenza y el horror eternos". Pero también promete que algunos vivirán por siempre, y los sabios brillarán para guiar a otros a la justicia.

Segunda Lectura: Hebreos 10:11-14, 18

Sacerdotes periódicamente ofrecían sacrificios que no podían quitar el pecado. Pero a través del sacrificio de Jesús nuestros pecados fueron perdonados, y no hay necesidad de otras ofrendas.

Evangelio: San Marcos 13:24-32

Jesús le dijo a sus discípulos que se verían muchas señales antes del fin del mundo. Les explicó que la tierra desaparecería pero no sus palabras. Les dijo que ni los ángeles ni El mismo, sino que sólo su Padre sabía cuando ésto sucedería.

Su Palabra Hoy

Por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

Iglesia Católica El Santísimo Nombre, Garfield, NJ

Trigésimo Tercer Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario
14 de Noviembre de 2021

“Y verán al Hijo del hombre venir sobre las nubes del cielo, lleno de poder y de gloria. Y él enviará a sus ángeles para que congreguen a sus elegidos de los cuatro puntos cardinales, de un extremo al otro del horizonte... En cuanto a ese día y esa hora, nadie los conoce, ni los ángeles del cielo, ni el Hijo, sino sólo el Padre.”

La visión captada en el evangelio, y la visión apocalíptica de Daniel pueden ser tan alarmantes como intimidantes. ¿Hace cuántos siglos que los cristianos han reflexionado sobre estas palabras y a menudo las han desestimado?

¡Pero espere! ¿Cuántas personas que las han escuchado ya no están con nosotros debido a la pandemia? Las cantidades de personas que han fallecido son conmensurables con las personas que han muerto en conflictos militares del siglo pasado. Oremos por aquellos que piden nuestras oraciones.

¿Cuándo ocurrirán estas cosas? ¿Estoy listo?

A medida que nos acercamos al final del año eclesial, considere la fragilidad de nuestras vidas, la proximidad de nuestro encuentro con el Señor y el juicio que nos espera. Ojalá estemos listo para ir a encontrarlo.

Consagración a San José

El Papa Francisco declaró el Año de San José "para aumentar nuestro amor por este gran santo, para animarnos a implorar su intercesión e imitar sus virtudes y su celo".

Únase a nosotros para una Consagración grupal a San José al cerrar el año, un viaje de 33 días para que lleguemos a conocer y amar a San José de una manera más profunda.

Nos reuniremos los miércoles desde el 3 de noviembre hasta el 1 de diciembre a las 7:00 pm en el Salón Parroquial de la Iglesia St. Joseph, Raritan.

La Consagración se llevará a cabo el domingo 5 de diciembre a las 3:00 pm en una iglesia para ser depurada.

Los participantes necesitarán una copia del libro Consagración a San José: Las maravillas de nuestro padre espiritual del P. Donald H. Calloway, MIC. Háganos saber si necesita ayuda para adquirir el libro.

Reúne

Debido a las reparaciones necesarias del techo de la iglesia, St Joseph Church, TODAS LAS MISAS se llevarán a cabo temporalmente en el auditorio de la escuela. Las confesiones del sábado se llevarán a cabo en el primer piso de la escuela (el salón más cercano a la escalera del frente). ¡Le agradecemos sus oraciones y cooperación mientras buscamos abordar estos problemas para nuestra salud y seguridad!

¡¡Dios te bendiga!!

MAYORDOMÍA

... TIEMPO, TALENTO Y TESORO +

Domingo 33º del Tiempo Ordinario

"Y entonces veremos al 'Hijo del del Hombre venir entre las nubes' con gran poder y gloria."

(Marcos 13:26)

Cada uno de nosotros tendrá un día que pararse delante del Señor y nuestra vida pasará frente a nosotros como una película. Cuando eso suceda y Dios nos pregunte a cada uno de nosotros, "¿Qué has hecho con los dones que te di?" ¿Como responderás? La buena nueva es que nunca es tarde para vivir y agradecer, y tener un estilo de vida generoso.

Enséñanos, Señor, el camino de la vida.
