SUNDAY MASS READING 2/23

*"I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:
love one another as I have loved you." John 13:34*

First Reading: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

Saul wanted to harm David and went into the desert to locate him. David and his companion Abishai visited Saul and his troops while they slept. Abishai wanted to kill Saul, but David would not allow it, as he refused to kill the Lord's anointed.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:45-49

Paul portrays Adam as the first physical man and Jesus as the first man to give us our spirituality. One man was formed from dust, the other sent down from heaven. Just as we resemble the first being physically, we should model ourselves after Jesus spiritually.

Gospel: Luke 6:27-38

Jesus explains that loving only people who love us is no great achievement. He also reminds us that doing a favor for someone while expecting something in return is not what he asks of us. Instead, we should emulate God by being compassionate and non-judgmental, even towards individuals who hate and mistreat us.

Salesian Gospel Reflection

February 23, 2025

A Salesian reflection on the Sunday Gospel by an Oblate of Saint Francis de Sales

Today's gospel offers us the great challenge for a disciple of Jesus:

"Love your enemies, do good to those who dislike you, bless those who speak ill of you and pray for those who mistreat you." "Be merciful just as your heavenly Father is merciful."

We all know how difficult this is to do.

We'll never be able to do it without God's grace, without learning to be very conscious that God is present with us each day, without asking God for the strength of his grace many times each day. The invitation of Jesus to love those who get in our face, who know how to push all our buttons, goes against our natural feelings of irritation and anger. Jesus seems to be asking too much.

What Jesus is asking of us is to be all that grace enables us to be. By our baptism, we have been given a share in the life and love of God. Jesus has become our brother; we are children of our heavenly Father by grace. Divine life is in us and that life enables us to live as Jesus lived. Jesus is asking us to learn to live by the new life we have been given. Because of grace, we are able to be merciful as our Father is merciful. Jesus has shown us how to love those who irritate us, how to forgive those who injure us.

St. Francis de Sales recommends several practices that can help us remember the strength of divine life within us.

Begin the day with a short prayer of awareness: "My God, you are here loving me today; help me to remember you're with me as we go through the day." Then, talk with God about the grace I will need to deal with particular people in my life who can irritate me or have mistreated me. During the day, when I know I'm going to meet such a person, I ask God's help that I may relate with that person in a way that is pleasing to God. Then, each evening, thank God for the times when grace gave me strength and ask pardon for the times I forgot to ask for God's help and failed because I tried to do it on my own.

The key is learning the discipline of remembering that I share divine life. When my prayer leads me to greater awareness of God's loving presence each day, then I will more likely become dependent on the grace God makes available to me. Then the challenge that Jesus offers – to love my enemies – is not so impossible for me to try to meet. I can meet it because I trust in God who lives in me.

REFLEXION DEL EVANGELIO DOMINICAL

Septimo Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario

Una reflexión salesiana sobre el Evangelio dominical por un Oblato de San Francisco de Sales

“Ama a tus enemigos; has el bien con aquellos que te odian, bendice a los que te maldicen, ora por los que abusan de ti.”

Perspectiva Salesiana

Recientemente estuve envuelto en una discusión con alguien. Fue algo difícil!!

Comenzó inocentemente como una diferencia de opinión, y a medida que nos dejamos llevar por nuestras emociones y nuestro orgullo, el conflicto escaló rápidamente y paso de ser un simple desacuerdo a convertirte en una competencia de gritos de escala mayor. La intensidad de la discusión, al igual que lo que nos dijimos fue una sorpresa para ambos. Cuando nos dimos cuenta de que no estábamos llegando a ningún lado con todo eso, ambos nos retiramos para tratar de curar nuestras heridas, más que sorprendidos por la gran ansiedad y angustia que este altercado ocasionó en cada uno de nosotros. Afortunadamente, después de dejar de pasar un poco de tiempo, y de dejar que nuestras emociones se enfriaran, cuando cada uno tuvo tiempo para orar y reflexionar sobre todo lo que acababa de acontecer, y al analizar las consecuencias de todo esto – tuvimos el coraje para dirigirnos el uno al otro de una forma más civil y razonable.

Ambos nos pedimos disculpas por reaccionar de esa forma y por no escuchar lo que el otro estaba diciendo. Nos sentamos para poder articular nuestros pensamientos y sentimientos, y sobre todo, decidimos escuchar y verdaderamente entender la perspectiva del otro. Aun cuando esto fue difícil de hacer, ambos hicimos nuestro mejor esfuerzo para poder reparar los danos.

Y nos sobrepusimos.

En el Evangelio de Lucas nosotros escuchamos el reto de Jesús “ama a tus enemigos; haz el bien con aquellos que te odian, bendice a quienes te maldicen, ora por aquellos que abusan de ti.” Este ejemplo y estas palabras ciertamente no es el tipo de reacción humana que vemos en nosotros mismos ni en los demás: aun para los seguidores de Jesús, estas palabras pueden ser difíciles, si no imposibles de personificar. Francisco de Sales escribe, “Que bueno es amar aquí en la tierra así como lo haremos algún día en el cielo.” La razón por la que este reto es tan difícil, es el hecho de que la imagen del “enemigo” no se halla casi siempre en los rostros extraños, sino en aquellas personas a las que conocemos... y a veces, en el rostro de aquellos a quienes amamos.

A medida que cada uno de nosotros reflexiona sobre aquellos conflictos por resolver que aun existen en nuestras vidas, y sobre el reto a que sanemos, amemos y perdonemos y reconciliemos, nosotros debemos recordar que en nuestras relaciones con los demás nosotros no solo estamos buscando un fin terrenal; mas bien, nosotros vivimos nuestras vidas juntos como personas que están destinadas a la plenitud de la vida eterna con Dios. Así como San Pablo escribe a los Corintios, “Así como nosotros llevamos la imagen del hombre de polvo, nosotros también llevamos la imagen del hombre del cielo.” Francisco de Sales recomienda: “Mantengan su Corazón en las calles gloriosas del Jerusalén celestial, donde se escucha el resonar de la alabanza a Dios por todas partes. Miren la variedad de santos, y averigüen como llegaron ellos allí. Sabrán entonces que los apóstoles llegaron principalmente a través del amor; los mártires, a través de la constancia; los doctores a través de la meditación; los confesores a través de la mortificación; las vírgenes a través de la pureza de Corazón; y todos ellos, a través de la humildad.”

OBLATES.ORG

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO

Primera Lectura: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

Saúl quería hacerle daño a David y fué al desierto a buscarlo. David y su acompañante Abisai fueron al campamento de Saúl y sus tropas mientras éstos dormían. Abisai quería matar a Saúl, pero David no lo permitió, así como rehusó matar al ungido por el Señor.

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 15:45-49

Pablo habla de Adán como el primer hombre físico, y de Jesús como el primer hombre que nos ha dado nuestra espiritualidad. Un hombre fué formado de polvo, y el otro enviado del cielo. Así como nos parecemos al primer ser físicamente, así debemos moldearnos como Jesús espiritualmente.

Evangelio: San Lucas 6:27-38

Jesús explica que amar a alguien que nos ama no es gran logro. Nos recuerda que hacer un favor esperando algo en cambio no es lo que El nos ha pedido. En vez, debemos ser como Dios, compasivos y no juzgar, aún a individuos que nos odian y maltratan.
