16 East Somerset Street, Raritan, NJ 08869

We, the Catholic Community of St. Joseph, are committed to follow Jesus Christ. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we strive to be good stewards in our lives.

We pray for peace, forgiveness, and for one another as Christ loves us!

Baptisms

Baptisms are usually held on Saturday mornings any time throughout the year (with the exception of the Lenten Season). Parents must be registered parishioners and complete a Baptismal Preparation class. It is required that godparents are no less than 16 years of age and have completed the three Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation. If the godparents are a married couple, they need to have been married by the Catholic Church. Please contact the Parish Office to arrange for the class and the date of Baptism.

Sponsor Certificates

Sponsors (Godparents) for Baptism and Confirmation are required to verify their eligibility. They must be fully initiated Catholic who actively practice their faith and are in good standing with the Church. For more information please contact the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

If you are considering becoming Catholic, or desire to complete your sacraments, please contact the Parish Office for more information about RCIA.

Pastoral Care of the Sick

Please call the rectory and let us know when a member of your family is in the hospital so a priest can arrange to visit them. Make sure you contact the Pastoral Care Office in the hospital so the Chaplain can bring you communion daily. In the event of an emergency please call 908 392-7962 anytime of the day or night.

Marriages

Please call the office to meet with the Pastor as soon as you become engaged and before any preparations are made. Arrangements should be made one year in advance. Couples preparing for marriage must attend required Pre-Cana sessions within the Diocese along with F.O.C.C.U.S. and sessions with your Parish Priest or Deacon.

SUNDAY MASS READING 6/1

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60

Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit, and described seeing Jesus standing at God's right hand. Then he was dragged away and stoned to death before many witnesses who did not believe his words. Before dying he cried, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."

Second Reading: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

John hears a voice saying, "Remember I am coming soon!" This messenger for Jesus says that he will come to reward those who are deserving. Those who hear the call of the Spirit are encouraged to answer by accepting Jesus.

Gospel: John 17:20-26

Jesus prays for all the people who will believe in him through the words of his disciples. His prayer is that the world will live in unity, with Jesus living in us as he lives in God. Although we have not known God, we know Jesus was sent by God because of his love for us. He prays that this love will live on in all people.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus
 The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus by Holy Mother Church.
Heart of Jesus, Symbol of Love

The Church, governed and taught by the Holy Ghost, has approved and recommended devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In our age of religious indifference, when fervor and charity have grown cold, Jesus exhibits to the world His Sacred Heart as the symbol of God's infinite love - the symbol of His own generous self-sacrificing love for men. Jesus shows His Divine Heart as a furnace whose burning rays of love are able to reanimate faith and rekindle love in hearts grown cold and ungrateful.

But why His Heart? Because in every language, in every age, the heart is regarded as the natural symbol of love and affection. What more natural and expressive symbol is there, then, of the excessive love of Jesus than His Sacred Heart? The direct and material object of devotion to the Sacred Heart is the real, physical Heart of Jesus - the Heart of flesh, the living and loving Heart of our Blessed Lord; the Heart that beat in His Divine breast at the moment of the Incarnation; the Heart that loved us during the life of Jesus on earth, that poured forth its blood to the last drop on Mount Calvary; the beatified Heart now glorious in Heaven and still dwelling among us in the Blessed Sacrament; the Heart ever united to the Person of the Divine Word, to whom is due supreme homage and adoration.

We the Christians are the true Israel which springs from Christ, for we are carved out of His heart as from a rock.

– St. Justin Martyr (d. 165)

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

– Matthew 11:29

There is in the Sacred Heart the symbol and express image of the infinite love of Jesus Christ which moves us to love in return. – Pope Leo XIII

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is devotion to Jesus Christ Himself, but in the particular ways of meditating on His interior life and on His threefold love – His divine love, His burning love that fed His human will, and His sensible love that affects His interior life. Pope Pius XII of blessed memory writes on this topic in his 1956 encyclical, Haurietis Aquas (On Devotion To The Sacred Heart). Below are a few excerpts which help explain the devotion:

54. ...the Heart of the Incarnate Word is deservedly and rightly considered the chief sign and symbol of that threefold love with which the divine Redeemer unceasingly loves His eternal Father and all mankind.

55. It is a symbol of that divine love which He shares with the Father and the Holy Spirit but which He, the Word made flesh, alone manifests through a weak and perishable body, since “in Him dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily.”

56. It is, besides, the symbol of that burning love which, infused into His soul, enriches the human will of Christ and enlightens and governs its acts by the most perfect knowledge derived both from the beatific vision and that which is directly infused.

57. And finally – and this in a more natural and direct way – it is the symbol also of sensible love, since the body of Jesus Christ, formed by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mary, possesses full powers of feelings and perception, in fact, more so than any other human body.

58. Since, therefore, Sacred Scripture and the official teaching of the Catholic faith instruct us that all things find their complete harmony and order in the most holy soul of Jesus Christ and that He has manifestly directed His threefold love for the securing of our redemption, it unquestionably follows that we can contemplate and honor the Heart of the divine Redeemer as a symbolic image of His love and a witness of our redemption and, at the same time, as a sort of mystical ladder by which we mount to the embrace of “God our Savior.”

59. Hence His words, actions, commands, miracles, and especially those works which manifest more clearly His love for us – such as the divine institution of the Eucharist, His most bitter sufferings and death, the loving gift of His holy Mother to us, the founding of the Church for us, and finally, the sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and upon us – all these, we say, ought to be looked upon as proofs of His threefold love.

60. Likewise we ought to meditate most lovingly on the beating of His Sacred Heart by which He seemed, as it were, to measure the time of His sojourn on earth until that final moment when, as the Evangelists testify, “crying out with a loud voice ‘It is finished’ and bowing His Head, He yielded up the ghost.” Then it was that His heart ceased to beat and His sensible love was interrupted until the time when, triumphing over death, He rose from the tomb.

61. But after His glorified body had been re-united to the soul of the divine Redeemer, conqueror of death, His most Sacred Heart never ceased, and never will cease, to beat with calm and imperturbable pulsations. Likewise, it will never cease to symbolize the threefold love with which He is bound to His heavenly Father and the entire human race, of which He has every claim to be the mystical Head.

Sunday's Gospel Reflection

written by an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales

Today we celebrate the conclusion of Jesus' mission from his Father.

We see Jesus stand before his chosen eleven as the Christ, Lord of the universe. With full authority for the salvation of the world, he sends the Eleven forth to make disciples of all the nations. They are to baptize in the name of the Trinity and teach all they have been commanded by Jesus.

Then Jesus returns to his Father, leaving the earth in his bodily form. His leaving emphasizes the importance that faith will play in their mission. They are to put their trust in the Spirit he will leave with them, and they are to act on all they have been taught to believe. They will have doubts and fears as they go, so they are to remember his final words to them: "Know that I am with you always." Jesus' abiding presence with them through the Spirit will give them strength and courage when they need it to continue their efforts.

You and I continue the mission of making disciples of nations. We are asked to act on our belief. When we feel the insecurities of the journey, we need to recall Jesus' promise: "I am with you always." His Spirit will provide the strength we need to continue on. We are not to waste time trying to judge our success or failure as we go. Jesus asks only our faith in him and the best effort we can give today. How often St. Francis de Sales reminds us to begin each day anew and try to be faithful in letting Jesus live in us and love through us.

Let us renew our faith in all that Jesus has taught us and set about living it. Jesus will accompany us on our mission journey today and every day.

Let us praise the Lord! — Oblates.org

Reflexion Salesiana para La Ascension del Señor

Una reflexión salesiana sobre el Evangelio
dominical por un Oblato de
San Francisco de Sales

“Vayan, hagan discípulos en todas las naciones.”

Perspectiva Salesiana

Hablando del misterio de la Asunción de Nuestro Señor, Francisco de Sales escribió: “Nosotros traicionamos nuestra vida humana para poder vivir una vida que está por encima de nosotros. Escondemos esta nueva vida en Dios con Jesús Cristo quien es el único que puede verla, la conoce y la otorga. Nuestra nueva vida es el amor celestial, que aviva y anima nuestra alma y este amor está completamente escondido en Dios y en las cosas de Dios con Jesús Cristo. Como las palabras sagradas del Evangelio dicen, después que Jesús se había mostrado por un tiempo ante sus discípulos, él ascendió al cielo, y una nube lo rodeó, lo tomó y lo escondió de sus ojos. Jesucristo entonces, está oculto en el cielo, en Dios. Jesús Cristo es nuestro amor, y nuestro amor es la vida de nuestra alma. Por consiguiente nuestra vida está oculta en Dios con Jesús Cristo, y cuando Jesús que es nuestro amor y nuestra vida espiritual, aparezca en el Día del Juicio, nosotros también apareceremos junto con él en la gloria. Esto significa que, Jesús Cristo, nuestro amor, nos glorificara comunicándonos su propia dicha y esplendor.” (Tratado del Amor de Dios, Libro VII, Capítulo 6)

Nuestra vida está ciertamente oculta en Dios. La realidad más profunda de quienes somos sólo es conocida por Dios. Aún así, para Francisco de Sales, vivir una vida escondida en Dios no es lo mismo que mantener esa vida en secreto: se trata de dar testimonio de nuestra verdad más profunda, de quienes somos – y quien es Dios – a través de la calidad de nuestras relaciones con los demás. Por lo tanto es apropiado que Francisco de Sales nos llame a practicar las virtudes ocultas, “esas virtudes pequeñas y humildes que crecen como flores al pie de la cruz: ayudar al pobre, visitar a los enfermos, cuidar de tu familia, desempeñando todas las tareas que esto incluye, y con esa diligencia que no te permitirá distraerte.” (Introducción a la Vida Devota, Parte III, Capítulo 35)

A través de la Asunción, Jesús ha sido removido de nuestra vista: más bien, del alcance de nuestra vista a nivel físico. Aún así, la misma autoridad que Jesús reclamó del

Padre ha sido otorgada a nosotros en virtud de nuestra creación y confirmada en nuestro bautismo. Nosotros estamos llamados a continuar el trabajo que Jesús comenzó, esto es, a hacer discípulos – seguidores, creyentes – de todas las naciones. Nosotros estamos llamados a ser símbolos del reto continuo de redención de Dios, pero en las obras simples y ordinarias de cada día.

Paradójicamente, mientras nos mantengamos fieles a la práctica de las pequeñas y ocultas virtudes que crecen “al pie de la cruz” Jesús ya no estará oculto: él se hará visible en nuestro amor, nuestra preocupación, nuestra lucha en nombre de la justicia, nuestra promoción de la paz, nuestro deseo de perdonar, nuestros intentos para sanar. Cuál es la forma más poderosa - y convincente- de ganar discípulos en todas las naciones?

O, al menos, que aquellas personas con quienes interactuamos cada día en nuestros pequeños rincones del mundo, se hagan discípulos?

LECTURAS DEL DOMINGO DE LA ASCENSIÓN DEL SEÑOR

Primera Lectura: Hechos de los Apóstoles 1:1-11

Jesús se había aparecido muchas veces a sus discípulos después de su resurrección. En esta ocasión final, el mensaje de despedida de Jesús es que ellos pronto recibirán el Espíritu Santo para fortalecerlos en su trabajo. Acabando de decir esto, Jesús es elevado al cielo frente a los ojos de todos.

Segunda Lectura: Efesios 1:17-23

San Pablo ora para que Dios ilumine y les conceda sabiduría a los efesios para que ellos puedan conocer la gran esperanza a la que han sido llamados. Todo el poder se le ha dado a Cristo quien reina ahora en el cielo. El “constituyó Cabeza suprema de la Iglesia, que es su Cuerpo.”

Evangelio: Lucas 24:46-53

Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que con su muerte y resurrección la Escritura se ha cumplido. Como testigos, cuando el Espíritu Santo venga sobre ellos, saldrán y enseñarán en el nombre de Jesús, arrepentimiento y perdón a todas las naciones. Entonces Jesús los sacó, levantó las manos, los bendijo y fue llevado al cielo.

La sensibilidad de Jesús, un Dios con Corazón de carne

Cathopic - Gera Juárez

"Hija Mía querida, acércate a Mí. Muy cerca. Háblame al oído con el lenguaje de los grandes secretos; que tu corazón se vuelque en el Mío..."

Jesús nos ama con un Corazón de carne. El

Señor posee, tras su pecho traspasado, un Corazón humano-divino.

Y sus sentimientos de amor tienen ese tenor: nos ama con afectos humanos y divinos en una medida que solo es posible en Dios.

En este mes de junio, mes del Sagrado Corazón, recordemos que Jesús nos ama apasionadamente hasta dar la vida por nosotros y luego, tras la Institución de la Eucaristía, se queda con nosotros hasta el fin de los tiempos en la Eucaristía, en el Sagrario.

Ese es el amor de Dios, inerte, paciente, entregado, expuesto a nuestra frialdad.
