LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.

Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant.”

Elisha replied, “As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;” and despite Naaman’s urging, he still refused. Naaman said: “If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

PSALM 98: 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

R. The Lord has re - vealed to the na - tions his sav - ing pow'r.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory. This saying is trustworthy:

If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, [Bow] and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

STAR OF THE COUNTY DOWN

My___ soul cries out with a joy - ful shout that the God of my heart is great,
Though I am small, my___ God, my all, you___ work great___ things in me,
From the halls of pow'r to the for - tress tow'r, not a stone will be left on stone.
Though the na - tions rage from___ age to age, we re - mem - ber who holds us fast:

And my spir - it___ sings of the won - drous things that you bring to the ones who wait.
And your mer - cy will last from the depths of the past to the end of the age to be.

BE NOT AFRAID

Verse 1

1. You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst. You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way. You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand. You shall see the face of God and live.

Refrain

Be not a-fraid. I go before you always. Come, follow me, and I will give you rest.

Verse 2

2. If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown. If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed. If you stand before the pow'r of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all. D.S.

Verse 3

3. Blessed are your poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs. Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh. and if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed are you! D.S.

Carlo Acutis was born in London, England and raised in Milan, Italy. From an early age, he displayed a remarkable talent for computer programming and a deep love for the Christ in the Eucharist. He loved sports, particularly soccer, playing video games, graphic novels, and volunteering with those in need outside of his school hours. With his tech-savvy skills, young Carlo spent four years creating a website that catalogued Eucharistic miracles from around the world. Tragically, in 2006 when Carlo was just 15, his life was cut short when he succumbed to leukemia. Despite this, his story, and website, live on as a shining example of youthful holiness. Carlo was canonized on September 7, 2025 becoming the first Millennial saint. His feast day is October 12. © LPi

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

LETTING THE LIGHT IN . . . .

A psychotherapist relates this story:

I had a young man come into my practice with bone cancer. His leg was removed at the hip to save his life. He was twenty-four years old when I started working with him, and he was a very angry young man with a lot of bitterness. He felt a deep sense of injustice and a very deep hatred for all well people because it seemed so unfair to him that he had suffered this terrible loss so early in life.

I worked with this man through his grief and rage and pain, using painting, imagery, and deep psychotherapy. After working with him for more than two years, there came a profound shift. He began coming out of himself. Later he started to visit other people who had suffered severe physical losses, and he would tell me the most wonderful stories about these visits.

Once he visited a young woman who was almost his own age. It was a hot day in Palo Alto, and he was in running shorts so his artificial leg showed when he came into her hospital room. The woman was so depressed about the loss of both her breasts that she wouldn't even look at him, wouldn't pay attention to him. The nurses had left her radio playing, probably in order to cheer her up. Desperate to get her attention, he unstrapped his leg and began dancing around the room on one leg, snapping his fingers to the music. She looked at him in amazement and then burst out laughing and said, "Man, if you can dance, I can sing."

A year later we sat down to review our work together. He talked about what was significant to him, and then I shared what was significant in our process. As we were reviewing our two years of work together, I opened his file and there discovered several drawings he had made early on. I handed them to him. He looked at them and said, "Oh, look at this." He showed me one of his earliest drawings.

I had suggested to him that he draw a picture of his body. He had drawn a picture of a vase and running through the vase was a deep black crack. This was the image of his body, and he had taken a black crayon and had drawn the crack over and over again. He was grinding his teeth with rage at the time. It was very, very painful because it seemed to him that this vase could never function as a vase again. It could never hold water.

Now, several years later, he came to this picture and looked at it and said, "Oh, this one isn't finished." And I said, extending the box of crayons, "Why don't you finish it?" He picked up a yellow crayon and putting his finger on the crack, he said, "You see, here—where it is broken—this is where the light comes through." And with the yellow crayon he drew light streaming through the crack in his body.

We can grow strong at the broken places.

A Farewell Letter from Deacon Robert Wertz

My dear friends and parishioners,

Where did the time go? Seems like just yesterday I was a newly minted Deacon, still wet behind the ears, learning everything and doing things for the first time! Now here we are, 12 years later, and the time has come to say "goodbye".

I wanted to thank each and every one of you for your prayers, your generosity, your friendship and letting me walk this spiritual path with you for a way. It has been an honor and a blessing for me to be with you at Mass every week, and to be with you in those special moments of life such as baptisms, weddings, funerals, or just spending time together in prayer at your homes or in the hospital. I will cherish the memories we have built together as I begin learning anew where things are located and who does what at St. Matthew Parish.

If you ever need prayers, help with anything, or someone to listen, I'm just an email or phone call/text away.

My special thanks for the staff of the parish over the years: you have bailed me out of jams way too many times! And to all our various ministers and everyone who helps in any way: thank you for lending your God-given talents to the rest of us and making Mass more enjoyable! I will truly miss you all, and think of you often.

May God bless you every day, and may our paths cross again someday.

God's peace,

Annual October Count: Every year the Diocese of Pittsburgh asks that a count of the number of people in attendance at the weekend Masses be taken. It is a way to look at trends and to see where there might be increases or decreases of people who are going to Mass. The ushers at the seven weekend Masses in the churches of Christ the King Parish will undertake the “October Count” on each of the four weekends in October. Those numbers will be printed in the bulletin in November when the count is concluded.

Pumpkins, Pumpkins, Pumpkins!!! The Knights of Columbus of Christ the King Parish are offering free pumpkins to all families this Sunday, October 12, after the 9:00 am and 11:00 am Masses at Saint Joseph Church. Stop by the “Pumpkin Patch” at the pavilion behind the church to pick up your pumpkins (while they last).

The Knights will also be sponsoring a Basket Raffle after all of the CTK Masses the weekend of October 11-12 and October 18-19. All proceeds help to support the charitable works of the Knights of Columbus

Christ the King Respect Life: PA March for Life—The picture shows the people on our bus to Harrisburg on the September 22. There were 22 persons, five from our parish, joining the more than 5,000 people standing up for life in front of our state capital. We heard wonderful speakers, walked around the capital building, and attended Mass at St. Patrick’s Cathedral. For a recap of the event go to dioceseofscranton.org. The National March for Life in DC will be on January 23, 2026, and there are plans for a return of the Pittsburgh March in the spring. Prayerfully consider attending!

Turn Your Taxes Into Tuition

The Diocese of Pittsburgh is making it easier than ever for individuals and businesses to transform their Pennsylvania state tax dollars into tuition assistance for Catholic school students, at no additional cost.

Through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) programs, participants can receive a 90% state tax credit by contributing to the diocese’s approved scholarship fund. These contributions are then distributed as tuition assistance to families across the diocese, opening doors for more children to experience a Catholic education rooted in faith, knowledge, and service.

While businesses have long benefited from this opportunity, recent changes now allow individuals with Pennsylvania tax liability to participate as well.

To make the process simple, the Diocese has launched a new online resource, offering step-by-step guidance, eligibility information, and a direct link to pledge participation.

“When you participate, you’re transforming lives,” said Bishop Mark Eckman, Bishop of Pittsburgh. “Every dollar given through this program helps open doors to a Catholic education that forms hearts, minds, and futures. It is one of the simplest and most powerful ways to make a lasting difference for our children and our Church.”

Robert Costantino, the Chief Financial Officer in the Diocese of Pittsburgh says, “This is a win-win opportunity for everyone. You meet your state tax obligation and help a student access the lifelong gift of a Catholic education. Our new website makes it faster and easier than ever to get started.”

NEWS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

October Overview: In October, the theme for our Faith Formation families is God, Our Creator and Father. We learn that creation is not a distinct event from the past, but the ongoing care and love of God the Father. God's care for the creatures of the Earth continues: "The eyes of all look hopefully to you; you give them their food in due season. You open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing." (Psalm 145:15-16) We also learn that our Father is a personal God who knows us by name and longs for a relationship with each of us.

CDTCA is seeking a qualified part-time (20 hours/week) Pre-K aide for the 2025–26 school year. To apply, email a cover letter, resume, and 3 references to Principal Sean Murray at sean.murray@cdtca.org.

Our Prayer for Christ the King Parish

Heavenly Father,
our hearts are open to you
as we discover the mystery of your love
at work in our lives.
Help us to rediscover each day
the power of that same love
through the sacred gift of our Catholic faith.

Jesus our Lord,
in baptism we connect our lives with you as disciples.
Help us to reconnect each day and allow our faith life to be nourished by your Word and Sacrament through the prayer of our weekly attendance at Mass.

Holy Spirit,
breathe into us faith, hope and love
as we commit ourselves to a new and bold Pentecost.
Help us to recommit each day
through our energy and resources to the life of our parish community.

Give us the grace
to rediscover, to reconnect and to recommit
to all that is good and holy.
You are God forever and ever. Amen.

Our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry welcomes recurring donations of non-perishable food items along with toiletries and paper products, which may be placed in the bins found in our church vestibules or brought in-person Tuesday mornings to Saint Mary Church in Sharpsburg (6th St. and Altmayer Way). Particular items needed include peanut butter, jelly, cereal, pasta sauce, and paper products. Volunteers are always needed and most welcome. You are invited to join us as we improve our community—come see how we sustain more than 100 families with food every month. We are also looking for volunteers to do home visits to assess need. Training will be provided. Call 412-781-2866 for details. Please follow us on Facebook at Sharpsburg Food Pantry and on the web at sharpsburgfoodpantry.org.

Christ the King Parish provides a hot meal for the women's shelter at Bethlehem Haven on the first Sunday of each month and the men's shelter at Community House on the fourth Saturday of each month. We are always looking for new volunteers to help by donating a portion of the meal. For details on how you can participate in this ministry, go to ChristtheKingpgh.org/shelter-meals.

The Aspinwall Homeless Ministry supports numerous homeless individuals and needy families throughout our region and they are always happy to accept donations of non-perishable food. They are particularly in need of cookies, canned vegetables, pudding cups, large bags of chips and other snacks, macaroni and cheese, Ritz crackers, Spam, canned red or black beans, tuna and chicken (foil packets or cans with pull tabs), and powdered or shelf-stable milk.

Please leave donations in plastic bags in the gray bins at the Saint Scholastica Church entrance. Donations of Giant Eagle gift cards are also welcome. They can be brought to the Saint Scholastica Church office.
