Jesus’ Words of 1909

Don Dolindo’s fervent belief that the Eucharist was the key to overcoming all the evils of this world came from Jesus Himself. In 1909, Jesus told Don Dolindo:

“It is at my feet, in the Sacrament of Love, that saints are formed. It is here that the heart becomes pure, from the holy purity of the faith. It is here that the heart touches eternity in the hope of the eternal, and it is here that the heart is enkindled in the flame of love.

“It is in the Eucharist that the heart knows itself. There I inspire it and fill it with fervor. There it will feel My Presence, and then, oh how many benefits and how many fruitful thoughts this will bring forth!” ...

“Therefore, let the Eucharist be the summit of your desires, the source of your devotional practices. Let the Eucharist be the sole goal of each and every act. I abide in the Eucharist not only to abide in you, but to act upon you.”

“Everything Will Be in Him One Thing”

When the storms of this world threaten our peace, Don Dolindo reminds us to find our hope in the One who has already overcome the world (cf. John 16:33): Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.
