QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Question for Children: How do your actions show that you put your faith and trust in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Lazarus received a second chance at life through Jesus. How have you experienced second chances in your own life?

Question for Adults: The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ?

From the Desk of Our Pastor...

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ...

Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days. The evangelist, John, is not just providing a chance detail to the reader. Instead, Lazarus is decidedly dead. His body has begun to decompose, producing a stench. The stench of death is an image of hopelessness. We are in a situation which no one thought to be. The smell of death and fear is around us, too, because of the devastating Covid19 sickness. I believe this is a time for us to repent and trust in God's mercy. This is the time for us to turn back to God as we read in the book of the Prophet Jeremiah (13:15-16), "Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken. Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings the darkness, before your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light, but he will turn it to utter darkness and change it to deep gloom." We still have time to amend our lives. The grace of God is still alive. We still have opportunities to give glory to his name and to gain his mercy by gathering in our families to pray by participating in Holy Mass and devotions virtually.

We often bind ourselves with chains of addiction to alcohol, drugs, sexual deviations, slander, gossip, envy, prejudices, hatred, and uncontrollable anger and bury ourselves in the tombs of despair. Sometimes we are in the tomb of selfishness, filled with negative feelings such as worry, fear, resentment, hatred, and guilt. If we want Jesus to visit our dark dungeons of sin, despair, and unhappiness, let us ask Jesus during the Holy Mass to bring the light and the power of the Holy Spirit into our private life and liberate us from our tombs. Are there times when we refuse to let God enter into our wallets, fearing that faithful tithing will endanger our savings? When we receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Jesus will call our name and command, "Come out"! This is good news for all of us: "Lazarus, come out!" This can be the beginning of a new life.

We see heart touching beauty in Jesus in today's gospel. We see Jesus, the Son of God, cry at the tomb of Lazarus. It's one of the most moving scenes in the gospels. And the reason it's moving is that Jesus shares his humanity with us. But today's gospel contains an even more important point about Jesus. It not only shows Jesus weeping for Lazarus; it also shows him raising Lazarus from the tomb. Today's gospel makes it clear that Jesus isn't just another human person. He's also the Son of God. Jesus can not only inspire us by his humanity. He can also empower us by his divinity. Jesus can touch our lives in a way that no other human can. He became one of us and shared our humanity with us. Because of this, he inspires us and gives us hope. The gospel reminds us that Jesus is also the Son of God. He can help us in a way no human can. He can help us beyond our wildest dreams. He can raise us to new life, as he raised Lazarus. This is the good news in today's readings. It's the good news of the humanity of Jesus, which inspires us. It's also the good news of the divinity of Jesus, which empowers us. It's the good news of Jesus, who raises us to new life. As we near Easter, let allow Jesus to set us free of fear and sins. And let us embrace him as the resurrection and life.

Let us pray,

Lord Jesus, hear our pleas, our good shepherd, and divine physician. We implore your mercy in the wake of an outbreak of serious illness and disease. Guide our efforts to prevent contagion and make preparations to care for those most vulnerable. Assist all professionals and volunteers who work to eradicate the epidemic now spreading. May our actions be marked by your steadfast love and selfless service and never by panic or fear. Bestow your comfort and healing to the sick, sustain and strengthen them by your grace. May they know your closeness as they carry the cross of illness. And may all you have called from this life come to worship you eternally with all the saints as you grant consolation and peace to their mourners. Amen.

God Bless,
Father Thomas

Anna Dengel

Founder, Medical Mission Sisters (1892-1980)

Anna Dengel was born in Austria. Having felt from an early age that she was called to some form of service, she responded eagerly to a notice appealing for medical doctors in India. After pursuing medical studies, she set out in the early 1920s for North India. Discovering that Muslim women would not be seen by male doctors, she found enormous demand for her services. This experience inspired her to envision a congregation of women trained in medicine: “to live for God ... to dedicate themselves to the service of the sick for the love of God and ... to be properly trained according to the knowledge and standards of the time.”

Dengel traveled to the United States, where she began recruiting vocations. In 1925 she established the Medical Mission Sisters – the first Roman Catholic congregation to provide doctors for mission work. In her book MISSION FOR SAMARITANS Dengel offered several motives for her work: the example of Christ the Healer, the example of the Good Samaritan; and restitution for the debt owed by the white race “to the peoples subjugated and exploited by our forefathers.” Healing, for Dengel, was not just a work of mercy but a work of justice.

Anna Dengel died on April 17, 1980. Today her Sisters number 650, operating in nineteen countries on five continents and sharing one mission, “To be a healing presence at the heart of a wounded world.”

“The sufferings of the world should find an echo in your hearts.” --Anna Dengel

SINCE WE CANNOT FACE THIS ALONE, WE ARE ENTRUSTING
THIS WHOLE SITUATION TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER, AND ENCOURAGE OUR FAITHFUL TO JOIN US IN PRAYING THESE PRAYERS

Prayer for the Sick

Especially those suffering from the coronavirus: Loving God, you sent your son Jesus Christ to heal the sick. We ask you to come to our aid in the midst of the coronavirus crisis that we too may experience your healing love. We ask you to heal those who are sick. Calm those who are living in fear. Be with those who have died and comfort their families. Inspire health professionals to aid them in their healing work. Guide national leaders to lead and make decisions with wisdom. Help us to always be aware of your presence as we place our trust in you. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Prayer for an End to the Coronavirus Crisis

Loving God, we come before you in our time of need. We lay before you our concerns and fears over the spread of the coronavirus. We know that you are mightier than all our fears and that the name of Jesus is the name above all other names. We ask, in the name of Jesus, that you stop the spread of the coronavirus. In your mercy, heal those who are sick and lead those who have died into your heavenly kingdom. We ask this in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.

Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Lady of Guadalupe, mother of God and of the people of Metuchen you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and hope. We rely on you, Health of the Sick, you who, at the cross, united with Jesus' pain, keeping steadfast your faith. You, Salvation of God's people, you know what we need and we are sure that you will provide for us, as at Cana of Galilee, after the adversity of these days, may joy and celebration return. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do what we are told by Jesus, who has taken our suffering upon Himself and has burdened Himself with our sorrows to lead us through the cross, to the joy of resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, Holy Mother of God, Our Lady of Guadalupe, we seek refuge, hear our prayer and intercede for us to the Father so that we may be free from every danger, Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Liturgy of the Hours

eBreviary.com offers five daily Liturgy of the Hours or Divine Office prayers in PDF formats, including Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer, Evening Prayer, Night Prayer and the Office of Readings.

The Rosary

The repetition in the Rosary is meant to lead one into restful and contemplative prayer related to each Mystery. The gentle repetition of the words helps us to enter into the silence of our hearts, where Christ's spirit dwells.

Acts of Spiritual Communion

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion means uniting one's self in prayer with Christ's sacrifice and worshipping him in his Body and Blood. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

A Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
