14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."-Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

Project 60 2023

Congratulations to our following second grade students who made their First Holy Communion on Sunday, June 11th.

Adelynn Ashford
Dean Curtis
Kennedy Healey
Anderson Paradise
Avery Ruderman

and also to Madeline Avakian who made hers in May at St. Louis.

May you always know the peace of Jesus, the light of His love, and the joy of his life within you. May this life-giving Bread always feed your soul and nourish your spirit. God Bless!

THANK YOU ALL!!!

My very dear and respected brothers and sisters in Christ:

Receive a brotherly greeting of Peace and All Good. In this note, I want to thank all the volunteers from the different ministries, the Knights of Columbus, and all the parishioners for the great effort and work they did in preparing the food and desserts provided for the Feast of St. Anthony. Also, a very special thanks to those who helped in cleaning the Church, decorating and everything necessary for the solemn celebration of the Holy Mass. Thanks to Forget me Nots for the beautiful bouquets of flowers, to the ministry of music, the Boys Scouts and thanks to everyone who joined this special celebration.

It is of great joy to be able to have these moments of celebration and to be able to reconnect with all the families, friends, neighbors and parishioners that for some reason we did not see for a while.

These moments of sharing also help our spiritual growth as a mystical body that is the Church.

I hope in God that for our upcoming festivities, more and more people will join us so that we can become the strongest, most united, active and vibrant community of the Diocese of Worcester and of the Universal Church. May that biblical passage be fulfilled in our own flesh that says: In the first Christian communities, the followers of Jesus put their goods in common and, very particularly, "they had one heart". And that way of living validated God's love for men, offering them a sign of credibility that God had sent his Son into the world to save it. And the people, aware of the miracle, exclaimed: "Look how they love each other".

Let the rest of the world see how we share the gift of God's grace that has been given to us in our hearts and how this Spirit of God leads us to enjoy his presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the most people in need.

Let us keep this tradition alive so that our community may grow and become stronger and stronger every day.

Thank you all for your presence, your ministries, your love and kindness.
