26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." (Philippians 2:3)
Pride and ego are hard things to control.
We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives.
Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry

Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers serve our Shut-in parishioners, those in our local Nursing Homes and our parishioners every weekend as you come together to receive Holy Communion.

What Jesus did with just 12 disciples; He was able to spread Christianity around the world!! As members of the church, Jesus calls us to be his disciples, and help spread the sharing of the body and blood of Jesus Christ with the parish community.

We are welcoming parishioners that would like to join our Ministry to serve Holy Communion on Saturday at 4pm mass or Sunday at 8am or 10:30am mass on a rotating weekend schedule.

When our past church custodian "retired" in December 2022, the void was filled by volunteers within the parish. If not for such generosity, the above year to date surplus of $9,789 would have been a deficit of ($11,849).

Sincerest thanks to those volunteers.

Harpa Dei in Concert

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, receive a fraternal greeting of Peace and All Good:

The Deus Caritas Est ministry of the parish of St. Anthony of Padua, Dudley, in conjunction with the Stewardship Committee of St. John Paul II in Southbridge, have organized a Holy Hour adoration concert led by the Harpa Dei Catholic movement. This Concert/Holy Hour will take place at Notre Dame Church in Southbridge.

Attendance is completely free. However, we will be asking for a voluntary donation to assist this Catholic group that supports many missions in Africa. This is a great opportunity to be able to assist so many of our brothers and sisters in Africa who suffer from food shortages, diseases and suffering.

We will also be selling raffle tickets for religious baskets at the church entrances, and collecting donations that will also be destined for our brethren of Harpa Dei and their mission.

Do not miss this opportunity to meet with "the ONE we know loves us" as St. Teresa of Avila said, Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

The schedule is:

5 p.m.: Doors open

5:30-6 pm: Holy Rosary

6-6:45 p.m.: St. John Paul II choir

7 pm: Holy Hour directed by Harpa Dei

Harpa Dei in Concert

About us

The Harpa Dei Choir is made up of four siblings, both in blood and in spirit: Nikolai, Lucia, Marie-Elisée and Mirjana Gerstner. Born in Germany, they grew up in Ecuador, in South America.

All four have as their spiritual foundation the long formation they have received in a religious community of Catholics.

Since 2011, as part of a peace initiative, the siblings have been called to evangelization through Sacred Music. In this sense, Harpa Dei tries to collect the most beautiful songs from different traditions, in order to glorify God, and, on the other hand, to transmit to people the beauty of the Lord, which shines so eminently in Sacred Music.

Since then, their mission has taken them to many countries in the world, including Mexico, Israel, Germany, Russia, Ecuador, Lithuania, the United States, and so on.

Harpa Dei hopes to be able to contribute to recovering and creating sensitivity towards the musical tradition of the universal Church, which, in the words of Vatican Council II, “constitutes a treasure of inestimable value, which stands out among other artistic expressions.” (Constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium).

What should our response be to the ever-increasing number of friends, family and acquaintances who now say they identify as something other than who God made them? Did you know that the Catholic Church has only one canonically-approved apostolate which offers pastoral support to men and women experiencing same-sex attractions who have chosen to live a chaste life? That same apostolate also offers a group which provides pastoral care for families and friends of people who experience same-sex attractions and/or gender identity discordance. This group is called:

Saturday, October 7th at 7pm, Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, Webster, MA will be hosting Father Colin Blatchford, Associate Director of COURAGE, Int. to give a talk called “The Authentic Pastoral Response for LGBT.”

Please come and bring any friends who may be interested in learning about this much needed ministry. Please be advised that the talk is geared to adults, not young children.
