Eucharistic Petitions based upon Catholic Catechism
Paragraphs 1328-1332

That through this Eucharist we might recognize the action of our thanksgiving to God and see it as the fulfillment of God's works of creation, redemption, and sanctification.

That through The Lord's Supper, we might recall and contemplate the supper which the Lord took with his disciples and by it anticipate the wedding feast of the Lamb in the heavenly Jerusalem.

That in the Breaking of Bread, we might recognize Our Lord as the Apostles did after his Resurrection

By eating the one broken bread, Christ, may we enter into communion with him and form one body in him.

That thru this Eucharistic assembly, we, the visible expression of the Church might be emboldened to bring Christ into every human situation in the world.

That this Holy Sacrifice that makes present the one sacrifice of Christ, may become for us a sacrifice of praise that we may offer our lives as a pure and holy gift to Him.
