PARISH BOOK CLUB INVITES YOU TO BEGIN THE NEW YEAR WITH A CHUCKLE

The Parish Book Club has chosen "The Rosie Project" by Graeme Simsion, an Australian novelist, for the January 19, 2023 meeting. The story centers around an Australian genetics professor who has spend days organizing his life in hopes that it will reduce inefficiency, improve himself as a person and make him all around happier. And so, he develops a "project" which he believes will help him reach his goals which also include finding a suitable partner.

The Book Club hopes it will be a good book with which to begin the New Year. Please consider joining them in the Sofa Room on January 19, 2023, at 7pm to discuss this lighthearted novel. All are welcome. For more information call Carole at (908) 310-3886.

WELCOME HOME!

SPONSORS AND GODPARENTS LETTER OF GOOD STANDING

Certificates of eligibility for sponsorship for Baptism or Confirmation will be given only to active (weekly Mass attendance) Registered parishioners of Immaculate Conception Church. A sponsor or Godparent should fill out the form: <https://forms.gle/oMP2qD9NsEPetScM7>

From the Administrator's Desk

I am blessed to be writing this letter as I finish out my vacation in Florida and am getting ready to celebrate these last days of the Christmas Season with you, culminating in the Epiphany and the Baptism of Our Lord (Monday). I love Webster's definition of epiphany: "an intuitive grasp of reality through something usually simple and striking." Unfortunately, we've had one of those moments of enlightenment this week; while I was just about to be exuberant about Rutgers beating #1 Purdue, I was brought back to reality while watching Monday Night Football with about a hundred Bills fans. In what was just a regular play, all the things that seemed so important before it just faded away; we didn't care about the game or the event we were at, as almost everyone started praying for the life of a 24 year old who was just doing what he loved (at the moment of my writing this, they are still awaiting information). As much as we might love sports or entertainment, there are things that are much more important.

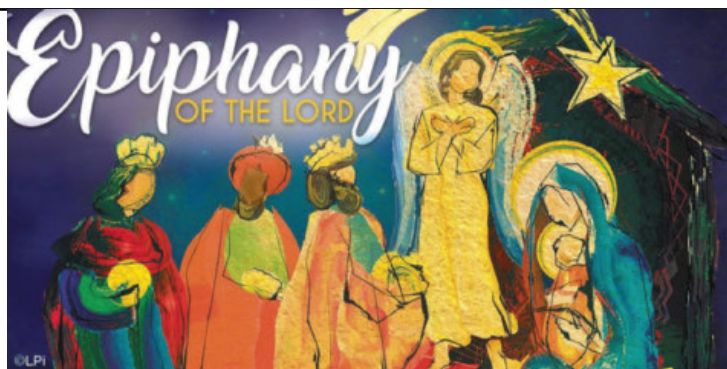

The visit of the wise men remind us that as we celebrate the birth of our Lord and the joys of Christmas that this is really about the fulfillment of a mission that is just about to begin. As the magi place their gifts at the feet of our Lord, we focus on the myrrh, typically used for funerals at the time, to show that Christ's death and resurrection are why we truly are here. It might be surprising to you that the story of the birth of Jesus was really more of an afterthought to the evangelists (it is only mentioned in Luke and Matthew); the important thing to focus on is the Passion - Christ's death and resurrection that saves us from our sins. We are an Easter people! Now that doesn't mean we don't celebrate or take great joy in Christmas, but we need to realize that this is just the beginning!

Just as the Christmas season ends with the Baptism of Our Lord, our journey begins with our own Baptism, but it doesn't end there. We are called each and every day to say yes to our God and to not merely stay in one place but move to try to become holier each and every day. I was moved to read that Pope Benedict XVI's last words were: "Lord, I love you," I can't think of a better way to start and end our day than reiterating those words. When we have those moments in our lives that we are made aware of the fragility of our time here, we tend to hold our loved ones a little bit more, to be more understanding of others and try to live out the peace and joy of Christmas better. I pray that as we close this Christmas Season we truly have an epiphany and become a little more mindful that each of us is a child of God and are called to live more like Christ each and every day.

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Keith

EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

The feast of the Epiphany celebrates in many ways that Christ has made Himself known to the world, mainly the three events that manifested the mission and divinity of Christ: the visit of the Magi (Matthew 2:1-12), the baptism of Jesus (Mark 1:9-11), and the miracle at Cana (John 2:1-11).

LECTURE SERIES: "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church"

January 17, 2023 at 7 pm

Presenter: Very Reverend Timothy Christy

Location: Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi, Metuchen

Fr. Christy, Rector of the Cathedral, will be exploring the USCCB's document on the Eucharist. As Christians, we know that we need Christ to be present in our lives. He is our very sustenance as he reminded us: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you (John 6:53). The Lord accompanies us in many ways, but none as profound as when we encounter Him in the Eucharist. Please join Fr. Christy for this important event.

CONTRIBUTIONS UPDATE - DEC 25

Total Offertory Christmas Collection: $64,600.83

Additional financials will be available in upcoming Bulletins.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish!

HOUSE BLESSING FOR EPIPHANY

A Polish and Slavic tradition that has become popular in the United States is the annual blessing of homes during the feast of the Epiphany to welcome Christ into your home for the new year. Please know that Fr. Ariel or Fr. Keith are always happy to bless your home if you would like, but we have also included the prayer of blessing for you to use and remind you that Holy Water is always present in the back of the Narthex near the stairs. While this year we are not distributing blessed chalk to write 20CMB23 (Christus mansionem benedicat or May Christ Bless this House) above your door, if in the future this is something that we would like to do as a parish, please just let Fr. Keith know.

Prayer of Blessing: Bless, O Lord God almighty, this home, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of Thy law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein. Through Christ our Lord.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated on Sundays, 1:15 pm. Expectant and adoptive parents are required to attend our Baptism Preparation class (Godparents are invited). These are held on the First Friday of each month at 7:30 pm; pre-registration is required. We suggest calling the parish office at least 3 months prior to your child's scheduled birth, or in the case of adoption, upon completion of the adoption process. Contact the Parish Office at 735-7319 for all arrangements and before the selection of Godparents.
