From the Pastor's Desk

I realize that it is not the readings of the day, but this week as I was preparing for this day, I kept coming back to the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians - Chapter 3 Verse 6: "I planted, Apollos watered but God caused the growth." It's a natural thing to think about as I am installed as your 10th Pastor, but I think I am in a unique position to say that I really have been distinctively influenced quite a bit by my predecessors through my journey to and in priesthood, and I truly am thankful for all of them. I probably know Msgr. Randy the best since he was my Vocation Director and then working with him both here at IC and for another 5 years in the Vocations Office. We traveled together to Colombia and many places within the US and we've shared many interesting stories. He is still one of my go-to supports and I consider him a good friend. Msgr. Andy was my first pastor, and many priests say that you become like your first pastor... I would be so honored if that becomes the case, and I try to emulate his love for his people and Catholic Education. Msgr. Benwell was serving as Vicar General when I was in Vocations and at Rutgers, and often shared lunch along with Msgr. Randy and Bishop Bootkoski, we chatted a great deal about continuing education, travel and the frustrations of the Mets and Devils. Although he had so much on his plate, he would always make time for me and always had an encouraging word. Finally, Fr. Jay, especially over the last year serving as my mentor has guided me in best practices as a pastor and helped me to make prudent decisions while also suggesting how I might improve in the future. All of them are different, but I am eternally grateful for all of the hard work they have put into me and the foundation they built here on St. Mary's Hill. As we continue this next chapter of our lives together, I thank you for your support in these first few months and I just ask for your continued prayers. I look forward to continuing to build upon that foundation, not to be them, but to carry on the good work that God has begun in us. I thank Bishop Checchio for the honor to serve you & please pray for vocations!

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Keith

ICC PARISH FESTIVAL IS JUNE 21-25

Volunteers can begin signing up online the weekend of May 20th through Signup Genius. There will be plenty of volunteer opportunities available for everyone.

Save the dates and we hope to see you here!

Many of our students and teachers are fans of hockey, the coolest sport on earth, but what happens when the NJ Devils and the NY Rangers play in the playoffs? Well, as these Rangers fans learned, sometimes you win and sometimes you lose... all were good sports as they threw on some Devils Jerseys and kept smiling after the 7-game loss to New Jersey. Did you know the last four pastors all preferred Jersey's team?
