WELCOME HOME!

COME HOLY SPIRIT! As we prepare as a Church to celebrate the giving of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, our 8th grade PREP and ICS students received the Sacrament of Confirmation last week. thank you to Bishop Manuel Cruz for a wonderful evening filled with the love and life of Christ and thanks to Coleen D'Amato and her staff for all of the hard work done in preparing all of our students for the Sacraments this year!

From the Pastor's Desk

Since the Feast of the Ascension was transferred to Sunday by the Bishops of New Jersey in order to fall in line with a majority of the dioceses in the United States, you may have forgotten to begin the Pentecost Novena to the Holy Spirit on Friday. This was the first novena, or nine days of prayer that the disciples embarked upon after the Ascension of our Lord, waiting for that promised gift of the Holy Spirit to come. It's ok, you can still start it today and end just after Pentecost. While you might find a variety of versions of this Novena, one of my favorites is to pray for the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit: Fear of the Lord, Piety, Fortitude, Knowledge, Understanding, Counsel, and Wisdom and then using the last day to pray for the Fruits of the Holy Spirit, so that the gifts poured out by the Holy Spirit are not just idle for us to enjoy personally, but must be utilized in the world to bear fruit. Our Lord tells us that we are known by the fruit that we bear, and those that exhibit these fruits, namely: Charity (Love), Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Generosity, Gentleness, Faithfulness, Modesty, Continence (self-control), and Chastity, can be confident that the Spirit guides us towards those actions. That the words of Jesus in Matthew's Gospel today: "I am with you always, until the end of the world" ring true even though Jesus has gone back to His Father.

As we pray for a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us, I know that it is present in abundance already here at Immaculate Conception—it was clear on the faces of those Confirmed last week here; it is present with the outpouring of support you have given to our Haiti homebuilding project, Life Choices and the Bishop's Annual Appeal, in the number of young people giving back to serve the Church and in Vocational calls from our parish. Thank you, it is so inspiring to witness! Yet, my brothers and sisters, we can continue to ask for more gifts to pour out from our community of faith, so Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Keith

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL

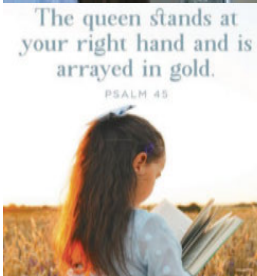

TEACHERS DEFEAT STUDENTS FOR SECOND YEAR IN A ROW AT ICS VOLLEYBALL GAME!

The eighth grade class came dressed to intimidate and gave it a valiant effort, but in the end, the teachers defeated the students in our annual ICS Student-Faculty volleyball game last Thursday. Fr. Ariel was “serving” up a good time, the faculty’s secret weapon: maintenance man, Mr. Bill Bukowski, was all over the court, Mrs. Karen Smith was putting out fires all day and Fr. Keith provided comic relief; ultimately a fun time was had by all. The Seventh graders have already stated that they are planning on bringing their “A” game next year and warned the faculty to be ready! GO BLUE KNIGHTS!

MAY CROWNING 2023
