PARISH FESTIVAL BEGINS THIS WEEK - VOLUNTEERS ARE STILL NEEDED!

Volunteers are still needed to assist with Immaculate Conception's largest community building event which will be held this week: June 21-25! The success of this event relies on the participation of our parish and school families. We especially need help in the parking and food areas! Please sign up using our Signup Genius located at: <https://tinyurl.com/2cemte5n>

FESTIVAL DISCOUNTED RIDE CARDS

MUST BE PURCHASED BY Wednesday, June 21st at noon. Each card has over 170 ride credits and saves approximately 35% from the prices at the Festival itself. Don't forget to download your credits to the Magic Money™ App (Visit magicmoney.com). Cash or checks made payable to Immaculate Conception Church Festival only.

PARKING NEXT WEEK FOR MASS

With the Festival starting this week, we ask that you park in the field (handicapped parking is still reserved for those in need); Please do not park in the cemetery or mausoleum as your car will be towed if it is left in an undesignated parking area during the Festival.

Please join us in welcoming our newest parishioners who are being baptized this weekend:

Madelyn Aquino
Cole Steven Ellmer
Jackson Brian O'Neil

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

Nicholas Ciambrone & Kaitlin Mastrobattista

IMPORTANT SCHEDULING INFO

The Parish Office is open on Monday, June 19 (the office staff have a flexible holiday schedule that they can partially personalize). Also, during the Festival the Church will be closed early in the day and the Mary Garden will be locked for safety and sanitation reasons.

In the Summer, July 5-September 6, the Parish Office will close at noon on Fridays.

During the week of July 10-14; there will only be a 7 AM Mass and there will be a Communion Service at 9 AM. The Bishop has asked Fr. Keith to go to a seminar and Fr. Ariel is away. We apologize for the inconvenience; otherwise the normal daily Mass schedule will continue throughout the summer.

WELCOME HOME!

CHURCH HOURS

Our church is open everyday from 6:30am - 7:00pm

From the Pastor's Desk

I spent many hours in my mother's car with the station often tuned to WLTW, 106.7 Lite FM although once I got older I tried my best to switch the station to something "cooler." Then it happened... somewhere between my Freshman and Sophomore year of high school, a band on my station, did a cover of a song on my parent's... and I have to admit, it was nowhere near as good as the original. That song was Cats in the Cradle by Harry Chapin and later Ugly Kid Joe. The song tells about a relationship between Father and Son that I never experienced growing up, but it still struck a chord with me and apparently many others since it did get to #1 in 1974 and then to #6 in 1993. I am sure many of you are familiar with the song, but in case you aren't, it tells the story of a Father and a Son, the latter always stating that "I'm going to be like you, Dad," even when the Father is too busy with "life" during the formative years to spend time with his son. It quickly moves to the boy growing up and actually following in his father's footsteps, being too busy with his "life" to spend time with his dad. What really stood out to me was not an anger or hatred for father or son, even the last verse says "I'd love to Dad if I can find the time... and it's been sure nice talking to you." I guess at a younger age it served as a warning of how not to live my life and not to take things for granted.

As we celebrate Father's Day, I am blessed that I did not have the experience of the young boy in the song, but unfortunately, I know many people who did. Especially as it comes to faith formation, I cannot emphasize enough the importance of a father who prays and goes to Mass in a young person's life. There was a study by the Swiss government (I would love to see an updated one, but I did not have an extensive time to research this); it showed the importance of the father regularly practicing the faith in the life of their children practicing the faith. Regardless of a mother's practice, a father's regular practice of the faith led to a child's regular practice of the faith over 33% of the time and almost always 70% of regular or irregular practice. Never underestimate the powerful witness you can be, in either direction, by your actions or inactions.

I believe this is also the importance of organizations like the Knights of Columbus, who happen to be doing a membership drive today! It is important that men are supported in their goal of being good Christian role models for their children and others. It was with this vision that Blessed Michael McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus when he noticed the desire of young men to want to be part of something bigger than themselves and to help those in need. It is what our Council still believes in and supports through their various works of charity and through the pamphlets on Fatherhood that they often put out, so consider joining. Let us pray for our fathers and father figures this day and try to be the best example possible for all of our children.

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Keith

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

God our Father,

In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.

In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

FR. ARIEL HOLDS COURT AND GIVES STUDENTS A KNIGHT TO REMEMBER!

Fr. Ariel gives some lucky students an afternoon to remember as the winners of the Gala Raffle enjoyed basketball, pizza and some unexpected take home gifts. A great time was had by all and we thank Fr. Ariel for being such a good sport! Rumor has it the Lakers' scouts were in town!

ICS - AWARD WINNING SCHOOL

Fr. Keith celebrates with the Blue Knight as ICS achieved the ECO-Schools Bronze, Silver AND Green Flag Awards. "Eco-Schools awards are an opportunity to celebrate major milestones on the journey to become a more sustainable school. These recognitions not only signify a school's commitment to sustainability - they showcase achievements in which the entire community can take pride." (<https://www.nwf.org/Eco-Schools-USA/Awards>) Congrats teachers and students! We're so proud!

ALOHA FROM OUR PRE-K 4-YEAR OLDS!

It was a joy-filled, yet also sad day, as our Pre-School said goodbye for the year. The four-year olds had a bit of a pizza luau as they shared what they learned with their families. Thanks for all of your hard work to our Pre-K and TK teachers, students and families. Have an amazing summer!

Our Seminarian, Bruce Cargill, gives a reflection on the importance of the Eucharist during our monthly Festival of Praise last Friday. It was a great way to kick off our celebration of Corpus Christi! Please continue to pray for all of our seminarians and those that are discerning priesthood and religious life! Is God calling you? Look on the next page for Quo Vadis info!
