TENEBRAE TALKS!

Hello, I am Fr. Keith's dog, do not be afraid of me, I love people, and playing. Sometimes you might see me around campus when I am getting exercise or got excited by a deer. Please don't give me people food (or leave it in the parking lot... I WILL FIND IT!) and don't worry too much, I know my way home! If you are worried that I lost my owner, please just call the parish emergency line, it goes right to the priest's cell.

From the Pastor's Desk

I wish Jeremiah's words in today's first reading were not true. "Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh.... Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD." I remember having a discussion with a friend who was not very religious explaining that I had been given the gift of faith. He responded to me that he had faith as well - faith in his friends, faith in me. I tried my best to not insult him, but simply stated that while I would do my best to keep his faith in me, inevitably I was human and I would let him down. Unfortunately, a few years later it proved to be true, not out of malicious intent, but just in being human. I wasn't there when he needed me the most and while it didn't completely destroy our friendship, and I still love him like a brother, our relationship is nowhere near what it was. I asked for forgiveness and got it, but I believe the faith he felt during that conversation will never return. Even worse, I feel now, as a priest, that I had an opportunity to bring him closer to God and failed and that I still fail at times because of my human nature. I often remind people that all of us our sinners, even His priests, and, consequently to never to let our disappointment in priests, religious or daily Communicants affect our relationship with God. Never let a human being stop you from knowing God. We've all been hurt and disappointed, even by people we know and love and propert to love God, but Paul reminds us: "Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the h

Holy Spirit that has been given to us." Romans 5:3-5

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AROUND THE DIOCESE

A SPECIAL LENTEN OPPORTUNITY AT ICC: LAST SEVEN WORDS

The Lenten season is fast approaching with Ash Wednesday on March 5th, 2025. Lent is a time that our church reflects on Christ's passion and death in an intensely focused way. After Jesus was nailed to the cross, He spoke 7 short expressions, commonly referred to as the "Last Seven Words".

Each Good Friday, our church holds a special devotion that commemorates the three hours Christ suffered and died on the cross for the redemption of the world. This devotion begins at 12:00 noon on Good Friday. We are looking for 7 volunteers who would want to share with others a personal reflection or life teaching on one of the 'Last Seven Words', to help provide meaning to what our Lord said and did. We are also looking for a pianist and vocalist to volunteer during those 3 hours to help with the music / song parts of the devotion.

Please prayerfully consider being a part of this beautiful devotion. If you are interested in participating or would like more information, please contact Monique or John Patti.

IN THE END, DOES IT MATTER?

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

When I was a teenager, the priest I would go to for confession used to tell me, over and over: “In the end, we all get the same dirty hole in the ground.”

What he meant was, it doesn’t matter how rich or smart or well-liked we are. We’re all heading to the same place. This life comes to an end for every man. All the money he earns, all the stuff, all the worldly esteem, will at some point be of no further use. We all get the same dirty hole in the ground.

It was an important message for me to hear, because at the time, it all seemed so important: my after-school job and my FAFSA application and my grades. The admiration of my friends and teachers. I was so consumed with what I was going to become that I wasn’t spending a lot of time thinking about who I was going to become. But the who is the only thing that lasts until the next life.

And to be honest, it’s all still too important to me. Avoiding sadness and disappointment. Saving money and being liked. Focusing on “the five-year plan” when it comes to career, house plans, and a whole bunch of other things I can’t take to my dirty hole in the ground.

Jesus was radical in His teaching that the “stuff” in life wasn’t all that important. It was radical for Him to say that the worldly signs of success — wealth, popularity, pleasure — did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things and that suffering could sanctify us. It was radical in the ancient world, and it’s radical today.

Are we ready to be radical, too? ©LPI

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Luke says that God will take care of your needs. If you are hated and others make fun of you for His sake, He may bless you with friends. If you need a bed to sleep on, He may provide it. If you need food to eat, He may send you food. If you are hurt, He may send a doctor to care for you. If you need money, He may help you earn it.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

If I get money for a gift, I will share it with the needy.
