TENEBRAE TALKS

It was raining on Monday... I don't like days when it rains or Mondays... maybe I should have been called Carpenter... I am worried because it's almost April and I heard about April Showers at the groomer. The rain makes me need to go out more if you know what I mean... I like snow better. Thunder scares me. Oh, guess what, guess what, guess what... it's almost time for the service that has my name! It is the Wednesday of Holy Week at night, it can be a little scary too, but you should try to go... Be a Good Boy!

BRINGING FORWARD THE GIFTS OF BREAD & WINE

If the announced intention at Mass is for your family member and you would like to carry those offerings forward at the Presentation of the Gifts during Mass, please call the Parish Office and let them know. We will communicate this to the ushers before the weekend. Please also check in with the ushers at the Mass, so they can see where you are seated. If no one steps forward to specifically request this, the ushers select people from the assembly.

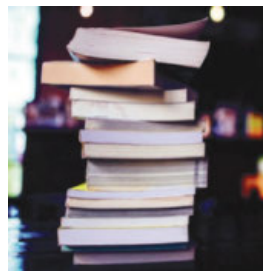

PRO-LIFE HAPPENINGS

3/5- 4/12 - 40 Days For Life with Rosary after 9 am Mass

PARISH LIBRARY

Looking for some spiritual reading this Lent?

Our Parish Library has a wealth of spiritual books available including a complete section on the Saints.

The library is located in the Parish Hall next to the "Youth Room." Checkout is easy and self-serve. Please use this great resource.

YOU'VE BEEN GOING TO CHURCH YOUR WHOLE LIFE, SOMETIMES IT'S TIME THE CHURCH COMES TO YOU.

For those unable to physically come to Mass, even if it is short-term because of surgery, we encourage you to call the Parish Office to make arrangements for the Eucharist to be brought to you or for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Catholic Chaplains are assigned by the Diocese of Metuchen for patients in Hunterdon Medical Center, but we will gladly visit as well, if asked, and our parish is responsible for Rolling Hills Nursing Care Facility. In cases of emergencies, call the Parish Office, if it is after regular business hours a priest is on call.

YOU SHOULD READ THE CATHOLIC SPIRIT, THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF OUR DIOCESE

If you did, you would have seen this picture and article in the March 20th edition that highlighted our own Bruce Cargill as he received the Ministry of Acolyte earlier this month. The Catholic Spirit is one of the key ways we can keep in touch with the rest of the Diocese, it is available in print in the Narthex and can be read online at <http://catholicspirit.com>. Please pray for Bruce and all our seminarians!

On the Journey to Priesthood

On March 2, 2025, His Eminence, Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle, Pro-prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization, conferred the Ministry of Acolyte in the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception at the Pontifical North American College, Vatican City State, on 26 seminarians, including our Diocese of Metuchen seminarian, Bruce Cargill. In the rite of the Institution of Acolyte, Cardinal Tagle placed the paten, which contains the hosts for the celebration of Mass, in the hands of each candidate. He then said, "Take this vessel with bread for the celebration of the Eucharist. Make your life worthy of your service at the table of the Lord and of his Church." The seminarians, currently in their second year of formation at the College, have two additional years of theological studies before being ordained to the priesthood in their home dioceses. —Photos by PNAC Photo Service

BISHOP CHECCHIO WILL MAKE HIS ANNUAL PASTORAL VISIT NEXT WEEK

Bishop James Checchio will be coming to St. Mary's Hill next Saturday, April 5th for his annual pastoral visit. He will be celebrating the 4:30 PM Vigil Mass, all are welcome to attend this celebration with our Bishop!

From the Pastor's Desk

Perhaps you already knew that the picture in the back of the Church (on the lefthand side if your are coming in or the righthand side if you are coming out) is Rembrandt's The Return of the Prodigal Son. Msgr. Randy said he had it placed there near the confessional to remind us of the loving presence of our Heavenly Father and his desire to return to Him, no matter what we have done. What you may not have known is this is among Rembrandt's final works, completed within 2 years of his death in 1669. During this time when we walk with Jesus towards His own death at Calvary, we naturally contemplate our mortality. Yet, we also celebrate the things that we have accomplished and rejoice for the many things we have gotten to witness through our life.

We celebrate Laetare Sunday today, the fourth week in Lent, and we rejoice in the love that God gives us. In too many of our human relationships there are limits to the love we are willing to pour out. Our hearts have been broken and we tend to hold grudges for past hurts. Thank God, our Lord does not. I know that I often picture myself in the story as the faithful son, the one who is upset with his returning brother and probably thinks his father is naïve to someone who he thinks will just break his heart again. After all, the younger Son, in wanting his inheritance now, is basically saying "you are dead to me" to his father. However, are we not doing exactly that when we choose to sin? Our Lord reminds us that His forgiveness is for all of His sons and daughters; many of us don't realize the difficulties of life when we are apart from God, but many do.

So, as we enter into this most sacred time of our year, let us continue to work on how we can mimic the Father's love and joy for His sons. Let us pray that as we experience His mercy and compassion for us when we sin; we, too, may be instruments of that mercy in those that may have sinned against us. This is, after all, what our Father desires.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Imagine that your father gave you and your brother $10. You saved yours. But when it was time to put the money in the bank, your brother told your father, "I'm sorry. I wasted my money on candy bars." Your father forgave him and gave him another $10. You felt hurt and asked him why. He said, "I love you both. Your brother has learned his lesson. I am happy."
