THE BOOK CLUB INVESTIGATES MURDER

The Book Club's selection for July is "The Frozen River" by Ariel Lawhon. This historical novel was inspired by the life and diary of Martha Ballard, a renowned 18th – century mid wife who investigates a shocking murder that unhinges her small community. Here is a thrilling, tense and tender story of a remarkable woman who had the courage to take a stand, and in the process wrote herself into American history.

All are welcome to join the Parish Book Club on Thursday, July 16th at 7 PM in the Sofa Room. For more information call Carole: (908)310-3886.

CORNERSTONE SOCIAL AT THE RED MILL, SATURDAY JULY 26TH

Please join us for good company, food, live music (The Captains of Leisure) and dancing at the Red Mill in Clinton (56 Main Street) on Saturday, July 26th from 6-9

TENEBRAE TALKS

I got a lot of questions last week about how I felt about the festival and fireworks on Saturday and I thank you for your concern and prayers.

Fr. Keith said I did really well, he was with me to make sure I was ok when those loud noises occurred. I was much more concerned about all the cars driving through our backyard each night, that's my territory people. While I like new things, I am glad that it is over. The priests tell me that there might be more fireworks going off around town this week for Independence Day, so might I ask for your continued prayers? I was very happy to hear the sounds of many happy children, but I also learned the importance of having someone there to hug me & tell me everything is going to be ok. So, hug & support those you love & Be a Good Boy!

THANK YOU TO OUR FESTIVAL VOLUNTEERS!

Sure, a little rain fell early on, but as He did with Noah, God sent His rainbow to let us know that everything was going to be just fine. We had a great week with almost perfect weather and the crowds were especially wonderful on Friday and Saturday evening.

Last week we thanked Laura and Fran Vitelli for the enormous amount of work they do each year to make the Festival seem to flow so smoothly. This week we want to give our heartfelt appreciation to all the volunteers that worked so hard (especially those that worked every night!) We can't do this without all of you and we are so appreciative of you giving of your time and talent. We also thank our sponsors for the event and everyone who came out to support us. We look forward to 2026 and encourage you to join our Festival Committee to share your thoughts on how to make this annual event even better!

From the Pastor's Desk

It is not often that we get to celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul on a Sunday. These two great saints didn't always agree, however, it is only through their faith and ministry that the Church is what it is today. Arguably, the two greatest Apostles, share a feast day and represent two sides of our Church: those who have been born into the faith and those who are converted to know Christ later on their journey. We are always called to conversion and reform even if we have walked with Christ from the very beginning.

Next week, I will be going on my annual Canonical retreat. We are required by Canon Law to take a retreat every year. It serves as a reminder that although priests serve God and pray often, we still need time to go away and allow God to work in us so that His will might be better accomplished in His work through us. It is a call to further conversion, we are only human. Like Peter, at one moment we are very in tune with the Holy Spirit and everything is great and in another moment we act as obstacles to the Lord's will because we think we know better. Our Lord knows this about us and gives us numerous opportunities to strengthen our relationship with Him. Please pray for me and know that I will be praying for you!

In a little over a month, Seminarian Kevin will be heading off with our seminarians and some priests for the Diocesan Quo Vadis Adventure Retreat for young men. I highly recommend our young men to take this time to say yes to God for a few days. As we celebrate St. Peter today, I thought the question Peter asked our Lord would be a great question to ask ourselves: "Quo Vadis?" or "where are you going?" Peter asked this well after Jesus' earthly life—he had a vision when he was leaving Rome of Jesus walking towards it. The interaction with Christ made him turn around and go back. Rome would be the site of the martyrdom of both Peter and Paul. Each one of us, are called on a journey, and the Lord wants to walk that journey with us. As followers of Christ, we too must die to ourselves. Saints Peter and Paul were not perfect, far from it, but they knew that the path Jesus laid before them was the path that they had to take. May we have the courage to do the same.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

CHRISTMAS IN JULY: A PRO-LIFE EVENT

Just because many go on vacation in the summer doesn't mean the needs of the less fortunate are any less.

What are we doing?

- * We are collecting as many gift cards as possible (via Scrip, which also supports ICS) in order to distribute to four local Crisis Pregnancy Centers (Pregnancy Aid in Raritan, Friendship in Flemington, Life Choices in Phillipsburg, and Gabriel House in Elizabeth.)

The Christmas tree in the Narthex on the weekend of July 5th/6th is meant to advertise the event, filled with tags to remind parishioners to purchase Scrip that weekend or the following.

- * Flower Arrangements for the Residents of Rolling Hills Care Center
 - ⇒ On July 11th, there will be a workshop at Tricia Daly's (8 Gleneagles Drive) from 10-12am, to prepare cans in which flower arrangements will be made after Masses on 7/12 & 7/13 for residents of Rolling Hills.
 - ⇒ If you have flowers from your garden to donate for the arrangements, please drop them off, in a container of water in the Sofa Room on Saturday morning, July 12th.
- * We also need baked goods to serve people after the Masses. Please drop these off on the morning Saturday, July 12th, in the kitchen.

We are seeking teen-aged parishioners to help children color bags for Meals on Wheels recipients, and serving baked goods and coffee.

Enter a raffle on 7/12-7/13 to win this beautiful handmade Afghan blanket!

The PROPHETS

This Adult Enrichment Course will introduce attendees to the prophetic books of the Old Testament by reading, examining and contemplating the words and deeds of the prophets of Israel. The goal is to familiarize attendees with the prophetic corpus of the Bible using the historico-critical method of exegesis. This presupposes that the interpretation of Scripture will be, at times, literal, allegorical or anagogical.

This course will be taught by

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Keys are important. They open locked doors. They turn cars on and off. They protect your things, so no one takes what belongs to you. Imagine Peter's surprise when Jesus gave him the keys to Heaven! Peter understood that Jesus was the Savior. By sharing what he knew, Peter could open Heaven to many people.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

God has given your parents the key to your house. Always let your parents open the door to your home. Let them welcome your friends.
