SUMMER TRAVEL FACT OF THE WEEK

As we celebrate the 55th anniversary of the moon landing, this week's travel fact comes from Roswell, New Mexico. The alleged crash site of a spaceship in the 1947, this town is all about aliens. Their signs, lampposts and the minor league baseball team all tout extra terrestrials. Even the local McDonald's is in the shape of a UFO, the only one of its kind.

FLOODING IN NEW JERSEY

As you know, this past week some devastating flash flooding occurred throughout Central Jersey. We have already reached out to some of our parishes that experienced the worst of the waters to see if any individuals can use assistance. Many are still examining the extent of the damage, but because of your generosity for those in need, we have the ability to be proactive in situations like this. Thank you again.

OLD ALLERTON ROAD TO BE REPAVED

We were recently informed that Hunterdon County is going to be doing road work on Old Allerton Road, Beaver Avenue and Annandale High Bridge Road. While this is not occurring on weekends, and all roads will remain open with alternating traffic patterns, it will likely have an effect on your traveling time. We are working with the town and county to limit the key moments of our parish and school schedule, however we cannot anticipate everything, so we ask for patience and prayers for this project to go smoothly. Prep work will begin in early August and paving is slated to begin August 18th. We will try our best to keep you informed and thank you in advance for your understanding.

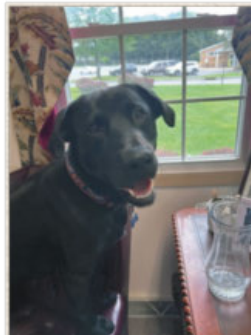

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN CLASS

Monday, August 25th 7 PM; ICC Parish Hall

TENEBRAE TALKS

Abraham was a good boy... err... man. I liked the first reading today. He brings water to the visitors and wants to take care of them even though he doesn't know them. He even tells Sarah to find the best treats. I try to welcome all of our visitors just like Abraham, do you? If I come over will you give me water and lots of treats? I hope so. But, there are also times that I understand Martha. I get anxious about a lot of things, so does Fr. Keith and Fr. Jose. I come into their offices and want to play or get a belly rub and they tell me they are busy... Father, Father, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. If you choose the better part it will not be taken away from you. Take the time to greet the visitors in your life; there is always work to do, but I would like to give you the gift of unconditional love, just as the visitors had something to give Abraham. So, take time for others and be a good boy.

FAITH FORMATION

Each year, our Parish welcomes new Catholics into the faith!

This happens through the work of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA).

There is an opportunity for you to be a part of OCIA and help bring people closer to Christ by sharing your faith. The commitment can be as little as helping at one OCIA meeting ... just a couple of hours!

If you are interested, please contact Deacon Mark at mvanduynhoven@iccannandale.org

HAITI UPDATE

As a result of your generosity in last years Haiti Home Building Project, we were able to finance the construction of 13 homes for desperate families struggling to survive. Eight of those homes have been completed and the pictures of the families have been placed on the "Haiti Wall" in the lower level of the church. Hopefully, the remaining five homes will be completed this year.

As you know, gang violence in the Port-au-Prince area has been bad, resulting in a delay in getting building supplies into the area. However, I have been advised that the violence has eased and construction of homes has begun again. Please pray for the people of Haiti and for an end to the violence. ~Deacon Bill

2025 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

PILGRIMS OF HOPE:

Journeying Together in Faith, Hope & Charity

We have made our goal! On behalf of Bishop Checchio, I would like say thank you to all who have given so generously to the 2025 Bishop's Annual Appeal. This marks the third year in a row that we have made our goal and, as your pastor, I cannot thank you enough. ~Fr. Keith

From the Pastor's Desk

On the cover of the bulletin is a picture I took when I visited Crater Lake National Park the day after my retreat in Oregon. It is one of the most beautiful places I have visited in the world. What I found most interesting as I was hiking around and pausing at the beautiful blue lake and the reflections of the mountains, was that this was all caused by a collapse of a volcano almost 8,000 years ago. What was a catastrophic event that left the area looking like a wasteland eventually filled with water from rain and snow (there are no rivers or streams that feed the lake) and left this awe-inspiring place. It is one of the most pristine lakes in the world and the deepest lake of the United States. I thought about the life of Christ and our own lives, even though often there are great tragedies and pain and suffering that occur, we shouldn't lose hope. Just as Crater Lake became something that would have been unthinkable after the devastation that destroyed the landscape, our Risen Lord gives us the hope that we can rise with Him into something beautiful and unique. Often nature gives us a time to pause and reflect on the cycle of life - death and resurrection. So, do not let your hearts be troubled, God is not done with us.

I also thought about what Fr. Nicodemus had said last week about the need for water in the Diocese of Kitui. Unfortunately, this is a problem in many parts of the world and will likely be the main resource issue of our future. Crater Lake has approximately 4.9 trillion gallons of fresh water, enough to give each one of the 8 billion people in the world a gallon of water every day for over a year. However, the average American uses 82 gallons of water a day (according to the US Geological Survey), so this isn't even a drop in the bucket (pun intended). The entire lake would be drained by the US in less than half a year. Just something to ponder when we want to take a long shower: Remember although we see the island, there is a mountain below the water of which we are only witnessing the very top.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When company came, Martha hurried to get the house ready. She made sure the food was cooked. She set the table with cups, dishes, and silverware. She put clean sheets on the beds. She emptied the trash. Mary didn't worry about all that. She stopped everything to listen to her visitor. If you house is neat all the time, you can relax and talk to your guests. Then you can cook dinner together.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

I will sit on the front doorstep and talk with Jesus every morning.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Lord, I want to stop working to listen to my visitors.

 COLOR Read today's Gospel & color the image.
