SUMMER TRAVEL FACT OF THE WEEK

You probably know that Fenway Park has the largest wall in Major League Baseball. Did you know it also has the shortest as well? A section in right field is only 3 feet tall! It also has the both the shortest home run distance (302') and the longest home run distance (420' in right center) in the majors. So park the cah in Havahd Yahd or don't since you can't when you visit Boston.

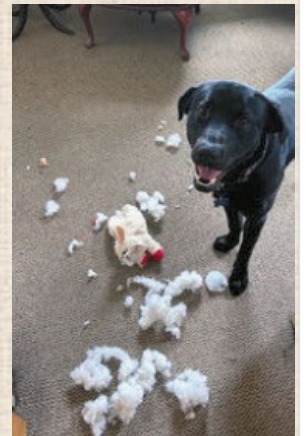

TENEBRAE TALKS

I got a new toy this week, it was a stuffed lamb (but it didn't taste like lamb, which is weird). I could hardly control my excitement and grabbed it right from Coleen and immediately started playing with it. Fr. Keith said it wouldn't last more than 10 minutes, well I showed him... it lasted 15 minutes before I pulled all the stuffing out... it was glorious. Now some dogs and humans will tell you that I should have kept that toy safe in the closet so that I might be able to have lots of toys some day, but I think it's only a thing - a gift that was meant to be enjoyed, even for a short time. Sometimes we get so worried about keeping things that we never get a chance to use and enjoy them. It's not about who has the most toys, but how much one enjoys life as a gift. Even Jesus tells us today to guard against greed... "one's life does not consist of possessions." I think I began to understand this more when Fr. Keith was away on vacation. I would have traded all the toys in the world for him to be here with me (well, except for that ball in the corner that hold treats). I was so happy when he came back and he gave me a new toy too, I can't wait to enjoy that one, but I would rather enjoy it together. So, don't be too possessive, use the gifts God gave you and, as always, Be a Good Boy!

WELCOME HOME!

OLD ALLERTON ROAD TO BE REPAVED

We were recently informed that Hunterdon County is going to be doing road work on Old Allerton Road, Beaver Avenue and Annandale High Bridge Road. While this is not occurring on weekends, and all roads will remain open with alternating traffic patterns, it will likely have an effect on your traveling time. We are working with the town and county to limit the key moments of our parish and school schedule, however we cannot anticipate everything, so we ask for patience and prayers for this project to go smoothly. Prep work will begin in early August and paving is slated to begin August 18th. We will try our best to keep you informed and thank you in advance for your understanding.

A SUMMER LETTER FROM BISHOP CHECCHIO

July 23, 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

What a wonderful time of year, summer! I guess spending so many years in academic institutions, either studying at them or, later, serving on faculty, it is hard to say “summer” without adding “break” to it – summer break! That always has such a nice ring to it.

Of course, here in New Jersey, summer always makes us think of the Jersey shore, too. What a blessing for us to have somewhere so beautiful and relaxing so close by. I was able to be with my family for the fourth of July weekend down the shore and it was wonderful to spend some time with my mother and some of my family members. Sitting on the beach, reading a book, listening to the waves and watching the ocean, all tends to calm the nerves! Likewise, being further away from the brighter lights of the city, the stars, while sitting on the porch in the evening, are spectacularly brighter.

Even here in Metuchen my morning walks these days are always in the light given our longer summer days, which is welcomed. There seem to be more people out walking in the mornings, too. The office doesn't seem as busy now, since during the weeks of summer there are always people on vacation so the mail and appointments seem lighter.

There are no Confirmations in the evenings during the summer time. The lighter schedule and free evenings provide me with the opportunity to do more visits in our Diocese, making it possible to go to parish carnivals to see our many faithful supporting them and thank the generous volunteers who make the carnivals work!

I am able to visit with some Vacation Bible Schools, our music camp at our cathedral, and even celebrate some daily Masses in local parishes, as well as visit nursing homes and other programs run by various parishes and our Catholic Charities.

Yes, the summer is a time for relaxation, family and friends. I hope that you get to enjoy this, too. In addition, don't forget that the summer is a great time to deepen our friendship with the Lord. If you find yourself with some extra time, why not read some Scriptures each day, make a visit to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament at your parish or attend daily Mass, as well as pray the Rosary or read a good spiritual book. The Lord awaits us, always, and gratefully He is so patient with us.

Finally, we continue with our Jubilee Year of Hope. The summer might allow you an opportunity to receive a plenary indulgence by visiting one of our Jubilee Year sites in our Diocese located at our Cathedral, the Blue Army Shrine in Asbury, the Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament in Raritan and the National Shrine of St. Lucy Filippini at Visitation Parish in New Brunswick. They are spread out throughout the Diocese, so that everyone can be near to them.

Yes, summer is here, but moving along. Make sure to use the summer well for rejuvenation, relaxation and growing closer to our Lord! Be assured that I am praying for you and ask that you please remember me in your prayers, too, whether at home, a Jubilee site or even while down the shore. God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen

From the Pastor's Desk

It's kind of tough to come back from vacation as our Lord talks about the rich man who suggested that he could now rest, eat, drink and be merry, but you know what is even tougher? Leaving for vacation as Jesus shares this Gospel (sorry, Fr. Jose!). Actually it is probably a good wake-up call. That although we take this time away, it is meant to be temporary. A moment for us to recharge for the work that we are called to accomplish and to remember that there is never a vacation from your vocation. You are always called to live out that calling, whether you are relaxing or working. Or to Catholicize the tourist slogan of Sin City - what happens in Vegas never stays in Vegas - it stays with you even if it isn't made public.

On my vacation, I went with my best friend to Niagara Falls and to Boston. When in the latter, we hiked The Freedom Trail and took in some of the history of our great country. I thought about how we use that God-given freedom as described in the Declaration of Independence. We also visited the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library, who almost 200 years later asked us to not ask what the country can do for us, but what we can do for our country and to choose to do the hard things in life. This is also what the Lord asks us to do as we follow the faith. The Lobster to the left also reminded me that we should stop to enjoy the journey we are on and to expect the unexpected from God.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

The Prophets Part 1

This Adult Enrichment Course will introduce attendees to the prophetic books of the Old Testament by reading, examining and contemplating the words and deeds of the prophets of Israel. The goal is to familiarize attendees with the prophetic corpus of the Bible using the historico-critical method of exegesis. This presupposes that the interpretation of Scripture will be, at times, literal, allegorical or anagogical.

This course will be taught by

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Farmer Brown gave bushels of green beans to the homeless shelter. When he dies, God said, "I remember you. You gave me green beans when I was hungry. Come on in." Farmer Smith never shared any green beans with the hungry. When he died, God said, "I do not know you. You never shared." God wanted Farmer Smith to learn to share so that God would know him at Heaven's Gate.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

I will share my toys and books with others this week.
