This novel, published in 2016, tells the story of Ruth Jefferson, a labor delivery nurse, who faces a moral dilemma when she is forbidden to touch a newborn baby due to the prejudiced baby's parents, leading to unexpected consequences. There's much to talk about in the pages of this moving, topical book. All are welcome to join the friendly, supportive group! For more information contact Carole at (908)310-3886.

SUMMER TRAVEL FACT OF THE WEEK

Not many people travel to Idaho, and that's a shame. Not only can you see the Idaho Potato Museum and Smurf Turf of Boise State, but you can tour the world's first nuclear reactor as well! Who knew? Idaho, I Do Know!

TENEBRAE TALKS

Do I look sad in this picture? I'm ok, this is just my "do we have to watch the Mets lose again?" face that I show Fr. Keith when he turns the game on. It hurts my eyes watching them play. A doctor came to visit the parish office and I overheard her say that as we get older, we typically need glasses. Since I am now really old, 1 year and 2 months, I went over to Fr. Keith and noticed he had two pairs of glasses, although one was darker than the other... I figured I would try them out to see if I really needed them yet. So, I took the dark ones, since they matched my coat, and chewed them for a really long time, but nothing seemed to help my vision. I don't really understand doctors.

But health is really important, so make sure you get your eyes checked regularly that way you can see all the treats the Lord has for you more clearly. And as always, Be a Good Boy!

As we celebrate the feast day of St. Maximilian Kolbe (August 14), let us continue to pray for peace & an end of all attacks on human life. Let us stop the dehumanizing of whole groups of people in our words and actions as we continue to stand for peace & justice.

One of the things we love about ICC is that even when you move, so many people come back to say hi since this has been a home to so many. Christina Chan came to visit us this week at daily Mass and we were so happy to see her! She is doing well in retirement and is a spiritual director!

From the Pastor's Desk

Abraham left his homeland and everything he knew at 75 years old and waited another 10 years for a male heir that God had promised him. Moses led his people through the wilderness away from Egypt to the Promised Land for 40 years and never got to step foot in it himself. Jacob had a battle with his brother for an inheritance and had to flee his home; he also spent 14 years of service (7 more than he anticipated) before he could marry the woman he desired in Rachel. Do you think that at any moment in these men's lives they didn't ponder quitting or at the very least questioning the plan God had for them? We know for a fact from Scripture, that Abraham takes it upon himself to remedy the situation, Jacob had to flee because of he and his mother's actions against his father and brother and Moses contends with many questions throughout his journey. "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." We hear this in our second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Years of following God without fully realizing what we had initially thought we were seeking, how many of us question and doubt His plan for us? How many give up hope after much shorter times of trial? One of my fond memories as a teenager was waking up early to stand in line for tickets for various concerts of bands I wanted to see or sporting events, sometimes even camping out the night before to try my best to make sure I was at that event... it didn't always work... but the experience itself was one I recall much more than the nights of those shows. Sometimes it is only through the journey or struggle that we fully appreciate that our true desires are fulfilled. Our Lord in the Gospel tells us to remain vigilant and keep the faith despite things perhaps not working out as we planned. Often people say "Patience is a virtue" to which I reply "yeah, one that I don't have." It's ok to get frustrated, to question, to not comprehend fully; but just stay on the path, don't give up and you will still be walking with God.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

The Prophets Part 1

This Adult Enrichment Course will introduce attendees to the prophetic books of the Old Testament by reading, examining and contemplating the words and deeds of the prophets of Israel. The goal is to familiarize attendees with the prophetic corpus of the Bible using the historico-critical method of exegesis. This presupposes that the interpretation of Scripture will be, at times, literal, allegorical or anagogical.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Many understood God's power. She loved and respected God. Everything Mary had belonged to God. He was happy to share good things with her. God deserves your respect and your love, too. When you are humble like Mary, God will do amazing things through you.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

Mary was a humble girl, and God chose her to be Jesus' mother. David was a humble shepherd, and God chose him to be a great king. Name one other humble person in the Bible that God lifted up and used powerfully.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

God, help me to be humble like Mary.

Did you know that building Lego sets is a lot like building your relationship with God? Brick by brick, one good deed at a time can help you make something truly inspiring, you too can be a master builder!
