Let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

Let us pray ...

God our Father,

Graciously accept from your humble people a thankful heart and spirit. Everything we have and are able to share with others ultimately comes from your love and creations.

Often we think that everything we have is our own creation;

We ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude,

That we may always know

That all good gifts come from you.

We ask this through Christ our brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Catholic Charities, Diocese of Metuchen Thrift Store and Food Pantry in Phillipsburg is in need of volunteers. Please call Maria Hunter at 732-387-1315 for more information.

Please pray for the boys and girls who will be receiving their First Reconciliation in the upcoming month! We thank their teachers and Catechists for all of the hard work that they did to prepare our students. We also thank the parents, as the first and best teachers of their children for bringing them to this point in their faith formation and for being good examples by receiving the Sacraments regularly.

TENEBRAE TALKS

Thank you all for your prayers last week, everything went ok, but I still feel a little bit off. I feel like something is missing and I still do not like my new collar, although Fr. Keith says that by the time you read this it will probably be off. I am very thankful that I have been able to spend a lot of time with him recently. He is making sure he snuggles with me a lot, he comes down to the floor to feed me, sometimes by hand and gives me good scratches since I can't reach some of the areas that I am used to doing by myself. I don't like having to rely on somebody to do things for me. I feel helpless sometimes and feel like I am always bumping into things and everyone is telling me not to jump up. But, you know, now that I think about it, there were many things that I needed to rely on others to do for me or encourage me to do and some of them were really scary at the time, but after I got comfortable I did them all by myself. So, I am thankful that I have so many humans to love me and I will get through this too. Don't be afraid to rely on the help of others in your life, especially God & be sure to thank Him if you have someone to take care of you, because many don't. If you don't, I suggest you talk to Fr. Keith, he does a good job of taking care of me; he also knows lots of people who are good & like to help. As Grogu taught me: "This is the Way!" Be a Good Boy!

Blood Drive

Roll up your sleeve in memory of someone special.

Jonathan Sekula was a bright, athletic, and kind-hearted individual who touched many lives with his humor, warmth, and ability to connect with others. His playful spirit and genuine nature made him well-loved by all who knew him.

This blood drive is dedicated to Jonathan's memory, with the hope that it will continue to bring life to others and honor the legacy he left behind.

#njbloodservices

Each November, the Church remembers all souls, at ICC, one way we do this is by using a ciboria in memory of Jonathan Sekula. Jonathan was a local resident having moved from Philadelphia with his parents to High Bridge before his second birthday. He lived in High Bridge until his family moved to Lebanon Township in 1995. Jonathan attended High Bridge Elementary and Middle School and Voorhees High School. Tragically Jonathan was killed in March 2003 in a single car accident while at St. Mary's College of Maryland just 2 months before he was to graduate. Jonathan was a truly unique and gifted individual – naturally athletic, outgoing, intelligent, respectful, creative, articulate and expressive. He wanted people to be happy and could brighten one's day with his infectious smile, sense of humor or unique stories. Jonathan loved life, had a playful heart and could interact comfortably with anyone. His ability to connect with people allowed Jonathan to have a tremendous impact on those around him despite his young age. For these qualities he was respected and well-liked by all. We dedicate this blood drive in Jonathan's memory and hope that your support will continue to give life to others and keep his legacy alive.

SAVE THE DATE

- Brownie.....God and Family
- Juniors.....I Live My Faith
- Cadettes..... Marian Medal
- Seniors and Ambassadors.....Spirit Alive

Contact domgirlscouts@gmail.com for further information on any of the Catholic Girl Scout programs or to request a registration form for the Gathering Day.

PLEASE BE VIGILANT

In this time of generosity and giving, unfortunately there are people who try to take advantage of others, especially the elderly. We are aware of emails that have gone out in Fr. Keith's name purporting to be him. We remind you that we do not solicit in this way, any asks would typically be done in person and announced at Masses. AI and scammers are getting smarter, please know we only communicate with official ICC/ICS accounts & numbers. If you ever have any questions, do not hesitate to call the parish office for verification.

Giving Tuesday is December 2nd

Dear Friend of Immaculate Conception:

As we enter the season of Advent and joyfully await the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, we ask you to take time from the busy holiday season and consider supporting our Parish and School Community. Giving Tuesday was created in 2012 as a day to unite everyone in a day of generosity, a day to make a difference by supporting non-profit entities during the season of giving.

Please prayerfully consider donating to Immaculate Conception Church or Immaculate Conception School using ParishSoft (formerly Faith Direct). Throughout the day, please call, text, and email your friends and family who also want to make a positive impact on the lives of others. Every gift, regardless of size, helps to ensure the continuance of the many programs that Immaculate Conception offers that reach out to the community at large. Many corporations participate in Giving Tuesday and will match your donation. Please check with your employer to see if they have a donation matching policy.

To make donating easier, you can enroll in recurring eGiving or make a one-time donation to Immaculate Conception at:

<https://giving.parishsoft.com/App/Giving/FD-123>

You can also text GiveNow to (908) 676-7200 and give directly from your mobile phone. Your gifts and your participation would be a blessing to us. May God bless you and your loved ones.

Donations can also be sent directly to:

From the Pastor's Desk

The story of the repentant thief has always been one of my favorite minor characters in the Gospel. I always recall the words of one of my professors: "the last thing that he stole was Heaven." I like the story because it reminds me of two very important things: a) the abundant mercy and desire of our God to always call us back to Him and b) the choice of free will in that two people in the exact same situation can react in two completely different ways. On this feast of Christ the King of the Universe, the question we have to ask ourselves is "who do we serve?" Do we "go rejoicing to the House of the Lord?" Do we grumble about having to go to Church or when someone asks us to donate our time, talent or treasure in His name? Do we just ignore God completely? Or are we overtly hostile to God and mock him and the people of faith? Even those who profess the faith can act in very un-Christian ways at times, we all choose to serve ourselves at times when we sin. You have heard me say plenty of times, sin can simply be thought of as saying "God, I know what you are asking me, but I am choosing to do this... I am choosing myself."

I also love this story because people know it well - unfortunately, often they will use it to justify their sinful actions, but it gives me an opportunity to say that they are right - God will always forgive us, nothing we can do can take away His love, all we need to do is ask and be sincere about that desire. When I agree they then ask, "so then why not just live how I want to now and ask for forgiveness at the end of my life?" The question I ask them back is: after consistently denying a relationship with God, will we be sincere in our desire for Him or are we still just trying to serve ourselves? Will we even ask for forgiveness?

In the older form of the act of contrition, we say: "I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of Heaven and the pains of Hell, but most of all because they offend thee, my God, who are all good and worthy of all my love..." Sure, we want to get to Heaven and avoid Hell, but our heart needs to ultimately be poured out like His - completely and filled with truth... We can't fool God, he knows our desires. We need to guard against the sin of presumption along with the sins of commission and omission. The coming season of Advent gives us a perfect time to truly become ready for His coming by seeking Him here & now.

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith

 COLOR Read today's Gospel & color the image.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

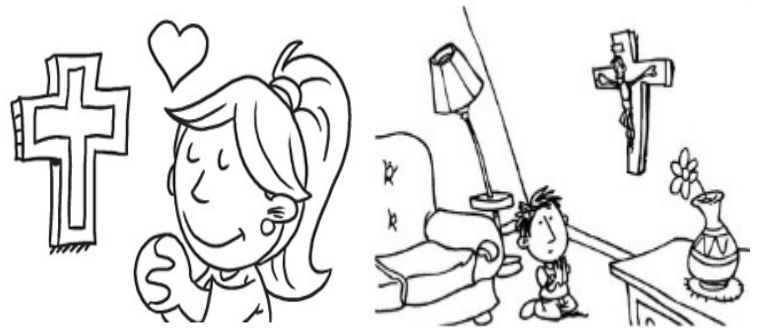

When the soldiers hurt Jesus, they were only doing their job. They did not understand that they were killing God's Son. Jesus saw into the hearts of those soldiers, and he forgave them. A man next to Jesus on the cross had done terrible things. He knew he deserved to die on a cross, and he was truly sorry. This criminal believed that Jesus was God's Son. Jesus saw into that criminal's heart, and Jesus forgave him, too.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

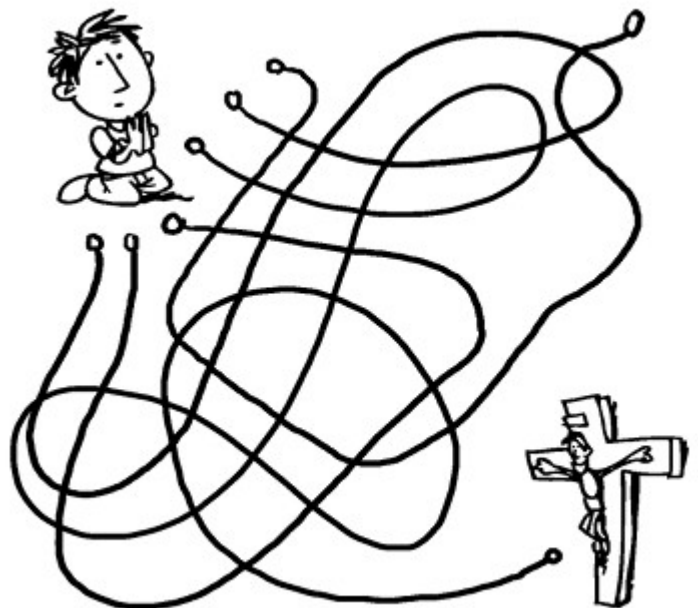

Jesus forgave the people who killed him. He expects you to forgive people who hurt you, too. Think of one person with whom you have been angry. Ask God to help you forgive that person, because Jesus forgives you.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to forgive my sins, too.
