TENEBRAE TALKS

I have been told "Strive to enter through the narrow gate." Last week, as I was let out to do my business I was pleasantly surprised to notice that the weather had opened up a path to freedom! Of course, I took the opportunity to run to my hearts content, I could do whatever I wanted to and no one could stop me. It was an adrenaline rush as I started to think of all the things that I might be able to experience in this vast world and I took advantage of it. Eventually though, I realized that while I had the freedom that I thought I wanted, the world was a pretty lonely place. I was worried that I wandered off so far that I might not remember how to make it home. I longed for the warmth and love of home and so I returned to the place that I know I am fed and cared for. I thought I was going to be in trouble since I was gone for so long, but was surprised that Fr. Keith was just so relieved that I came back; he wasn't mad, he was worried and showed only love on my return and gave me the biggest bone. Maybe you too saw an open gate of freedom and wandered off for a while, I just want to let you know it's good to come back home to the Father, He won't be mad, He will only show you love and worries about you even if you are not thinking about Him. I am so glad that we have a home like that and hope you are too. Be a Good Boy!

A REMINDER FROM TENEBRAE

During Holy Week we celebrate the para-liturgical event that gave Tenebrae his name. While the dog won't be in attendance, we invite you to join us this Wednesday for our Tenebrae Service. Tenebrae means "darkness" and we enter into the darkness to reflect on how we can focus on our Lord's sacrifice & be inspired to take up our own cross.

Does this mean Tenebrae is a "service" dog?

Join us on Good Friday at 7:00 PM, to witness the students of Immaculate Conception School performing the Living Stations of the Cross.

Thank you to all who have walked the Way of the Cross with us this Lenten Season.

WHY COVER STATUES & CROSSES?

An entrance into Passiontide

The last two weeks of Lent are called Passiontide and we shift our attention away from the desert and towards immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum. The practice of covering crosses and images once again helps us sense that something is different; we are aware of what is missing and serve as a reminder to get ready. As the images are unveiled at the Easter Vigil, it also serves as a reminder that we often live in a veiled world. We struggle to see Christ in the every day people that we meet and thus tend to ignore the needs of His People.

Bishop Paul G. Bootkoski, will celebrate the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of St Francis in Metuchen at 4 PM.

<https://diometuchen.org/chrism-mass>

TENEBRAE SERVICE WEDNESDAY AT 8PM

Have you ever imagined Our Lord's state of mind as He contemplated His final days on Earth? Knowing the end was near, yet unable to change the outcome? We are pleased to bring back the Tenebrae Service, which draws upon Scripture readings, hymns and ever-increasing darkness, to explore these feelings of despair and draws us closer to Jesus as we enter the Triduum. Tenebrae will be held this Wednesday evening at 8pm; we hope that you will join us in this unique prayer service.

JOIN US FOR MORNING PRAYER

During the Triduum, we do not have daily Mass. You are invited to join us for Morning Prayer on these three days at 8 AM. The Liturgy of the Hours is the prayer of the Church, so at every moment of every day somewhere around the world someone is praying it.

HOLY THURSDAY

Celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper and follow Jesus to the Altar of Repose signifying his last moments with His disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane. Our Adoration will continue until 10 PM and close with Night Prayer that evening.

GOOD FRIDAY

On Friday we enter into an empty Church, read the Passion Narrative of John, and we venerate the cross as we remember our Lord's Sacrifice.

The Service begins at 3PM on Friday.

BLESSING OF EASTER FOOD BASKETS

Come to the Church at Noon next Saturday, for our traditional Easter Food blessing. Just remember of what your mother taught you: your kielbasa and pierogi, ham, lamb, or pansit, etc. always tastes better when it's blessed!

Join us in Candlelight procession, listen to God's work through Salvation History and welcome into our Church our newest members with the Sacrament of Baptism & Confirmation.

SUNRISE SERVICE CELEBRATES THE RESURRECTION IN OUR CEMETERY

Join us at 6 AM in the cemetery for the Easter Mass at Sunrise. It is a bring your own chair event. Please wear warm clothes & bring a blanket along as well as it is often chilly and windy on St. Mary's Hill. If it rains, we will be in the Mausoleum.

STEWARDSHIP ON ST. MARY'S HILL

GIVE THE GIFT OF PRAYER

Especially during this Holy Week, we ask that you lift up in prayer those that help to make this time truly special, it is a ton of work that is done outside the view of most parishioners. We ask for your prayers for our cantors and choirs, all volunteers, who work tirelessly for a variety of liturgies to make them beautiful and memorable. For those who clean the Church on a regular basis and our maintenance staff which has to do a lot of heavy lifting. To Nancy and all of those who make the church visually beautiful and often have to deal with quick turnarounds to go between simplicity and joyfulness. This can be a stressful time and many are also dealing with difficulties of health or family issues this year, so say a prayer and thank them as well.

From the Pastor's Desk

Holy Week is upon us already and It is hard to believe that our Lenten journey has come to a close. However, I find that it actually is fairly common in our lives: those things that seem insurmountable to begin with are over before we know it. I am sure the disciples didn't think that our Lord would only be with them a short amount of time, or that as they witnessed the entrance into Jerusalem with the shouts of "hosanna!" they would quickly hear the shouts change to "Crucify Him." We don't know what tomorrow will bring and are only given today to worry about and the opportunity to walk with our Lord through it all. Yet, we are human, and like Peter perhaps we feel tired and can't even give our Lord one hour, perhaps we run away from Him when we think persecution is coming or deny Him when we are challenged, perhaps we think that violence is the answer to our problems or maybe we believe ourselves to be self-righteous and close ourselves off to what God might be trying to tell us. We might have been unwillingly pressed into service or felt alone that everyone else has left us or are remorseful for the bad decisions we have made in the past. Wherever we are, our Lord wants us to be with Him and invites us to return to Him to walk the road to Calvary. As Christians, we are literally followers of Christ.

While this is my favorite time of our liturgical year and I am always moved by the faith of our parish family, I know every year is different. We are different this year than we were last year and hopefully closer to God. If not, take this time as an invitation to come back; God never gives up on us. Also know that we are never on this journey alone, even in the most difficult moments our Lord knows what it is like. He wept at the death of his friend Lazarus last week, He knows what it is like to be betrayed and questioned at every turn. He knows what it is like to feel hungry or exhausted. And through it all encourages us to seek to do the will of the Father because He knows what His purpose is. We are fully ourselves when we are doing what we were made for and only God knows what that is for each one of us. During this Holy Week, let's make the most of this time to make plenty of room for God and to challenge ourselves, so that He may continue the good work He has begun in us. Have a blessed Holy Week & thank you for saying yes to God today!

Pax et bonum,
Fr. Keith
