A BLESSING ON MOTHER'S DAY

Dear Lord, Pour your goodness and grace upon the women of our community today in a special way. For mothers: fill them with joy and blessing. For those who have lost children: hold them in their sorrow. For those who have hoped for children: surround them with Your love. For those who have lost a mother: may they know Your comfort. For those carrying difficulty on this day: bring them consolation. Bless all women this day. Thank you for the love they bring to this world, no matter their circumstances or story. Amen. ©LPI

The Sanctuary Candle is lit from May 10 – May 16 in memory of Fergus Rooney

THE VIRTUES EXPLAINED: PATIENCE

In treating others with a spirit of patience, said Pope Francis, we “look at them ... with God’s gaze, knowing how to distinguish their faces from their faults.” “Rushing and impatience are enemies of spiritual life,” he continued. “God is love, and those who love do not tire, they are not irascible; they do not give ultimatums. God is patient, God knows how to wait.”

Patience is sometimes referred to as being “annexed” to the moral virtue of fortitude. In practicing patience, we bear any kind of suffering for a greater good. St. Thomas Aquinas describes patience as a means to “safeguard the good of reason against sorrow, lest reason give way to sorrow” (Sum. II-II, 136, Art. 1). The virtue of patience is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22), and as Christians who have received the Holy Spirit we are called to “be patient in tribulation” (Romans 12:12) and to “preach the message (of Christ) ... with great patience” (2 Timothy 4:2). ©LPI

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Make your Mother proud

It's hard to believe that it has been five years since the passing of my mother. I wasn't (and still am not) the greatest son and there were definitely things that I wish I did or said better. Compared to most, I had an amazing childhood. Unlike many of the latchkey kids of my generation, my mother was there for me after every school day. Yet, as many teenagers often do, I focused on the struggles and the imperfections and believed mom didn't understand me. As many young adults do I focused on my work and "the little time I had" to spend time with friends or "galivanting about the world" as she would say. I found it difficult to call regularly, because it was impossible to get my mother off the phone. Yet, she was always there for me, even if I failed to be there for her. It wasn't about the right words or sage words of wisdom or the fabulous spread of food at the dinner table... those were not my mother's gifts. It simply was presence, she was there and I could count on that.

While we honor our mothers this weekend, we are reminded that we too are given a Mother in Mary who is always there for us, even if we aren't the best sons or daughters at times. She will always guide us to her Son and during this month of May we remember her. So let us make her proud & honor her as we remind ourselves through prayer to give thanks that she is always there. "Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen" and thanks Mom!

Pax et bonum,

Fr. Keith

TENEBRAE TALKS

There were a lot of sirens this week. First, I was a bit scared, but I also felt really safe. It got me really excited to see all of the policemen and firemen and emergency workers, it made me feel really safe. There was even a police dog! And not a cartoon like those Dog Man books that the kids always have and never let me eat. He's part man, part dog, all hero! (at least that's what the movie poster said). It kind of inspired me to make sure that I am always on watch in case anybody needs help... but as I watched I realized that I couldn't play as much as I would like. I guess being a police dog is tough, they always seem so serious. I don't know if I want to be that serious. I just want to give love like my momma gave me. I'll still keep watch, I still don't trust that pesky groundhog. Please watch with me and Be a Good Boy!
