

Saint Monica,

Mother of Saint Augustine, You persisted in prayers for your wayward son by seeking heavenly aid.

Intercede for all mothers as they pray for help for their children to remain close to God. Teach them how to draw nearer to their sons and daughters no matter how far astray they may be in their faith.

May the Lord's mercy touch the lives of our wayward children, soften their hearts and activate the Holy Spirit in their lives.

Give us hope and courage that one day our children, too, will be reunited with our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ.

Oh blessed Monica, hear and answer me.

Amen
