Mass Intentions

	Nov 8 John Byrnes +
Nov 4 Rico Barnett +	Nov 9 Barb Haddad +

The Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for November 2019

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

Prayer for the Faithful Departed

Good and faithful God,
you have given us so many people in our lives
that have given us joy and solace.
On this day we ask you to remember our dearly departed (especially N).
Keep them close to you as we all wait for that day when we all will come and worship in your presence.
We ask this through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Promotion of Peace

Peace is not the mere absence of war or the simple maintenance of a balance of power between forces, nor can it be imposed at the dictate of absolute power. It is called, rightly and properly, a work of justice. It is the product of order, the order implanted in human society by its divine founder, to be realized in practice as men hunger and thirst for ever more perfect justice.

The common good of the human race is subject to the eternal law as its primary principle, but its requirements in practice keep changing with the passage of time. The result is that peace is never established finally and for ever; the building up of peace has to go on all the time. Again, the human will is weak and wounded by sin; the search for peace therefore demands from each individual constant control of the passions, and from legitimate authority untiring vigilance.

Even this is not enough. Peace here on earth cannot be maintained unless the good of the human person is safeguarded, and men are willing to trust each other and share their riches of spirit and talent. If peace is to be established it is absolutely necessary to have a firm determination to respect other persons and peoples and their dignity, and to be zealous in the practice of brotherhood. Peace is therefore the fruit also of love; love goes beyond what justice can achieve. Peace on earth, born of love for one's neighbor, is the sign and the effect of the peace of Christ that flows from God the Father. In his own person the incarnate Son, the Prince of Peace, reconciled all men to God through his death on the cross. In his human nature he destroyed hatred and restored unity to all mankind in one people and one body. Raised on high by the resurrection, he sent the Spirit of love into the hearts of men.

All Christians are thus urgently summoned to live the truth in love, and to join all true peacemakers in prayer and work for peace. Moved by the same spirit, we cannot but praise those who renounce violence in defense of rights, and have recourse to means of defense otherwise available to the less powerful as well, provided that this can be done without injury to the rights and obligations of others or of the community.

—Gaudium et Spes, Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, Second Vatican Council

The Project Rachel Retreat last weekend welcomed participants who came away changed. Each woman shared their regret at making the choice to have an abortion, the wounds they suffered from extreme sexual abuse as children, stories of abandonment, and years of self-medicating with drugs, alcohol, promiscuity, and the resulting depression and anxiety they suffered. God healed them powerfully and they began a journey to wholeness. Praise God for his endless mercy!

Social Justice Corner

There is no worse material poverty...than the poverty which prevents people from earning their bread and deprives them of the dignity of work. —Pope Francis.

Have you ever considered that you make ethical choices when you shop? As consumers, each of us is called to do our part to ensure that the economy works for everyone. Our decisions in the marketplace have a profound impact on how others around the world live. When we buy items that are made overseas in unsafe working conditions at low costs, we contribute to a system that makes it difficult for people to earn enough money to meet their basic needs. When we purchase fair trade products, we stand in solidarity with the poor and respect their right to dignified work.

Economic justice is a core component of Catholic Social Teaching, encompassing the two principles of upholding human dignity and solidarity. One way to bring the core values of our faith to our choices as consumers is the Catholic Relief Services Ethical Trade program (formerly "Fair Trade" program). Ethical trade is a transparent commitment by a company to treat workers and suppliers fairly, care for the environment, and invest in the community.

Over the past three years, Sacred Heart has held a CRS Ethical Trade Sale, but this year, instead of a sale, we are encouraging you to continue to shop fair/ethical trade by visiting their website, <https://ethicaltrade.crs.org/>. Here you will find many choices offered by their fair trade partners, many more than at our consignment sale.

As we start thinking about holiday gifts, we can make our shopping much more than just buying a gift for someone.

—Carol Gavareski
