Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Lambs of the Good Shepherd,

Happy Good Shepherd Sunday! In the Gospel today we hear Jesus say: "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep." The Good Shepherd has laid down his life for us and nourishes us with his own Resurrected Body and Blood, in the Holy Eucharist. The world, all time, and our lives revolve around Jesus, the Good Shepherd in the Eucharist. The Church understands everything about Herself and all of creation in light of the Eucharist. Everything about the human person, man and woman, sin and salvation, flow from and to Jesus. All our own thoughts, words and actions flow from and toward the Eucharist. God is so good to us! This has been the constant teaching of the Church since the Last Supper, and our understanding of it has continued to flower until this very moment. Below, please ponder the depths of a homily by St Gaudentius of Brescia, an Italian Bishop who died in the year 410. Jesus, I love you in the Eucharist! God love you! – Fr Jeremy OMV

"The heavenly sacrifice, instituted by Christ, is the most gracious legacy of his new covenant. On the night he was delivered up to be crucified he left us this gift as a pledge of his abiding presence.

This sacrifice is our sustenance on life's journey; by it we are nourished and supported along the road of life until we depart from this world and make our way to the Lord. For this reason he addressed these words to us: Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you will not have life in you.

It was the Lord's will that his gifts should remain with us, and that we who have been redeemed by his precious blood should constantly be sanctified according to the pattern of his own passion. And so he commanded those faithful disciples of his whom he made the first priests of his Church to enact these mysteries of eternal life continuously. All priests throughout the churches of the world must celebrate these mysteries until Christ comes again from heaven. Therefore let us all, priests and people alike, be faithful to this everlasting memorial of our redemption. Daily it is before our eyes as a representation of the passion of Christ. We hold it in our hands, we receive it in our mouths, and we accept it in our hearts.

It is appropriate that we should receive the body of Christ in the form of bread, because, as there are many grains of wheat in the flour from which bread is made by mixing it with water and baking it with fire, so also we know that many members make up the one body of Christ which is brought to maturity by the fire of the Holy Spirit. Christ was born of the Holy Spirit, and since it was fitting that he should fulfil all justice, he entered into the waters of baptism to sanctify them. When he left the Jordan he was filled with the Holy Spirit who had descended upon him in the form of a dove. As the evangelist tells us: Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan.

Similarly, the wine of Christ's blood, drawn from the many grapes of the vineyard that he had planted, is extracted in the wine-press of the cross. When men receive it with believing hearts, like capacious wineskins, it ferments within them by its own power.

And so, now that you have escaped from the power of Egypt and of Pharaoh, who is the devil, join with us, all of you, in receiving this sacrifice of the saving passover with the eagerness of dedicated hearts. Then in our inmost being we shall be wholly sanctified by the very Lord Jesus Christ whom we believe to be present in his sacraments, and whose boundless power abides for ever."

If you have submitted a name for prayers in the bulletin they will remain for one month. If you would like to ask the parish to continue praying, please let the parish office know by calling (618) 465-4284. Thank you for your prayers!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Focus: We are God's children; we are the flock of the Good Shepherd, who lays down his life for us.

God loves us so much that we are not simply called God's children, but in fact are God's children now. This love is that of a good shepherd, who knows and cherishes his sheep, and who, unlike others, will sacrifice his own life for the safety of his flock.

In the first reading, Peter proclaims to the elders that the cripple who has been healed and saved was done so in the name of Jesus. This is the Jesus that they had crucified and whom God raised from the dead. The First Letter of John says that through the love of God we are now the children of God; what we shall become is not yet revealed. In the Gospel, Jesus says, I am the good shepherd...{who} lays down his life for the sheep.

This is a wonderful tradition that includes a Gospel reading and sprinkling of water throughout the house. It is also a great chance to get to know your priests and to become so much more than a face or an envelope number by opening your home to us and sharing your story. This Easter season is the perfect time! Please contact the Parish Office (618) 465-4284 to schedule a time for your house blessing!
