Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

My dear Brothers and Sisters, lovers of St Joseph,

We continue our pondering of Pope Francis's meditation on St Joseph's fatherly heart. Here he speaks of how we are to summon all we've been given by God, and creatively and courageously use it in his service and in the service of others. St Joseph is a wonderful model in this regard. May the prayers of his fatherly heart increase in us Christian courage and creativity in the service of Jesus! God love you! – Fr Jeremy OMV

"5. A creatively courageous father

If the first stage of all true interior healing is to accept our personal history and embrace even the things in life that we did not choose, we must now add another important element: creative courage. This emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties. In the face of difficulty, we can either give up and walk away, or somehow engage with it. At times, difficulties bring out resources we did not even think we had.

As we read the infancy narratives, we may often wonder why God did not act in a more direct and clear way. Yet God acts through events and people. Joseph was the man chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true "miracle" by which God saves the child and his mother. God acted by trusting in Joseph's creative courage. Arriving in Bethlehem and finding no lodging where Mary could give birth, Joseph took a stable and, as best he could, turned it into a welcoming home for the Son of God come into the world (cf. Lk 2:6-7). Faced with imminent danger from Herod, who wanted to kill the child, Joseph was warned once again in a dream to protect the child, and rose in the middle of the night to prepare the flight into Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-14).

A superficial reading of these stories can often give the impression that the world is at the mercy of the strong and mighty, but the "good news" of the Gospel consists in showing that, for all the arrogance and violence of worldly powers, God always finds a way to carry out his saving plan. So too, our lives may at times seem to be at the mercy of the powerful, but the Gospel shows us what counts. God always finds a way to save us, provided we show the same creative courage as the carpenter of Nazareth, who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence.

If at times God seems not to help us, surely this does not mean that we have been abandoned, but instead are being trusted to plan, to be creative, and to find solutions ourselves.

That kind of creative courage was shown by the friends of the paralytic, who lowered him from the roof in order to bring him to Jesus (cf. Lk 5:17-26). Difficulties did not stand in the way of those friends' boldness and persistence. They were convinced that Jesus could heal the man, and "finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus. When he saw their faith, he said, 'Friend, your sins are forgiven you'" (vv. 19-20). Jesus recognized the creative faith with which they sought to bring their sick friend to him."

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Focus: We are sheep who follow the Good Shepherd, who is here for us and has much to teach us.

Today's readings highlight the glory of Christ's ministry, which was foretold by the prophets and inclusive of all people. The crowds followed Jesus, seeking his teaching and his healing. We, too are members of this body whom he shepherds; we are taught, fed, and healed. How can we pass on this joyful message of comfort to those around us?

In the first reading, the Lord holds past leaders accountable for the scattering of God's people. Jeremiah prophesies the return from exile and restoration of a noble king. Paul shares the good news that through Christ Jesus, all people are reconciled to God and have access in one Spirit to the Father. In the Gospel, Jesus and the Apostles seek to get away from the crowds and rest, but they cannot. Jesus' heart is moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO - THE CREEDS - GOD REVEALS HIS NAME IV. THE IMPLICATIONS OF FAITH IN ONE GOD

Paragraph 2. THE FATHER

232. Christians are baptized "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit"⁵³ Before receiving the sacrament, they respond to a three-part question when asked to confess the Father, the Son and the Spirit: "I do." "The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity."⁵⁴

This summer is flying by quickly. Do you have a plan to keep you on the right path in this ever-changing world? Listening to Catholic programming on Covenant Network will help keep you focused on faith in your life. Our daily schedule includes the Mass, the Rosary, the Angelus at noon, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and other prayers to remind you of saints and feasts during the day. Whatever your summer schedule includes, tune in to AM 1410, listen on our Covenant Network app on your mobile device or at OurCatholicRadio.org

HOW DO PEOPLE FIND OUT ABOUT OUR R.C.I.A. PROGRAM?

The answer is: YOU!

Our bulletin is read mostly by our own parishioners. Fellow Catholics and their love for Jesus and their neighbor, not bulletin articles and announcements, draw people to the Catholic Church and RCIA programs.

This autumn, we look forward to receiving another group of inquirers on their faith journey through our Rite of Christian Initiation Program (R.C.I.A.). Each member of our parish is called to draw others closer to Jesus and His Church. Prayerfully this summer ask God to SPEAK to you, to CALL you to a deeper walk with Him, and then SEND you to your friends, neighbors, and family to DRAW them closer to Him also.

Please contact our RCIA email address or the parish office if you or anyone you know is interested in becoming Catholic or simply interested in knowing more about the Catholic faith, no strings attached: rcia@stmarysalton.com; 618-463-1793. Please leave your name, your email address, and your phone number.

Let us all pray: Speak to me, Lord. Call me closer to you, Lord. Send me, Lord, in charity to others. Draw those I encounter and myself closer to you, Lord! Amen.
