Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

"Nunc Coepimus. We Begin Again." (2.0!)

As parishioners of St. Mary's, you have undoubtedly heard an Oblate Priest quote the words of our Founder, Venerable Bruno Lanteri, "Nunc Coepi - I Begin Again." As a spiritual son of Fr. Lanteri, I propose an alternative to his simple, yet powerful quote: "Nunc Coepimus - We Begin Again."

This summer, I will Begin Again as I have been named Vocation Director for the Oblates of the Virgin Mary in the United States. With this new position comes a new move. I will be returning to live in Oblate house of formation at St. Clement's in Boston. However, my appointment as Vocation Director is ultimately a new beginning for both the Oblates and St. Mary's, hence Nunc Coepimus, We Begin Again. It's a new beginning for all of us because I now see how small, and limited, and unworthy, I am of this role. I recognize how much assistance I need from both the Holy Spirit and the laity, especially the parishioners of St. Mary's. I need your prayers!

To be honest, I am not good with saying, "Goodbye." You can take the man out of Jerseyville, but not the Jerseyville out of the man. The past two years have been a tremendous blessing. I have been able to live part of my infancy as a Priest literally in "my own backyard." Yet, I have also known for quite some time that Holy Spirit has been leading me towards this new path. Christ has placed a desire in my heart to accompany young men, one-on-one, and help them to echo our Blessed Mother's joyful "Yes" to both the Priesthood and the Oblates of the Virgin Mary and this desire has become aflame.

With this news, some have already asked and more will ask, "What do you need?" As previously written, I need your prayers. Specifically, I invite all of you to pray daily these words:

O Glorious St. Joseph, model of masculinity and purity, you were the head of the holy household in Nazareth. You are also the special patron of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary. We now entrust to you the Oblates future and their desire to grow in vocations and to expand their mission for the sanctification of their members and the salvation of souls. Through your powerful intercession, make them faithful, wise, and courageous sons of Mary. Amen.

-PRAYER TO VEN. LANTERI FOR OBLATE VOCATIONS

By reciting these words, you are giving me, the Oblates, and St. Mary's the best gift possible: the gift of more men to serve as Oblate Priests! Nunc Coepimus: We Begin Again.

Fr. Paul Kallal, OMV

If you have submitted a name for prayers in the bulletin they will remain for one month. If you would like to ask the parish to continue praying, please let the parish office know by calling (618) 465-4284. Thank you for your prayers!

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 6:1-7 ~ 1 Peter 2:4-9 ~ John 14:1-12

Focus: Let us truly be the body of Christ by demonstrating the Father's love to others.

How can we walk alongside the way and the truth and the life? We can be Christ to each other. As the body of Christ, we do His works. We offer our time, talent, or treasure to those in need. Let us ask Jesus how we can continue to build His kingdom on earth.

In the Acts of the Apostles, the new role of deacon fills practical needs of the growing Church. The first Epistle of Peter calls us to be built together as living stones, into a spiritual house. We are a royal priesthood called into the light of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus reassures His disciples that He goes to prepare a place for them. He promises that those who believe in Him will do His works and greater ones.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO – THE CREEDS

THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

HEAVEN AND EARTH

327. The profession of faith of the Fourth Lateran Council (1215) affirms that God "from the beginning of time made at once (simul) out of nothing both orders of creatures, the spiritual and the corporeal, that is, the angelic and the earthly, and then (deinde) the human creature, who as it were shares in both orders, being composed of spirit and body."

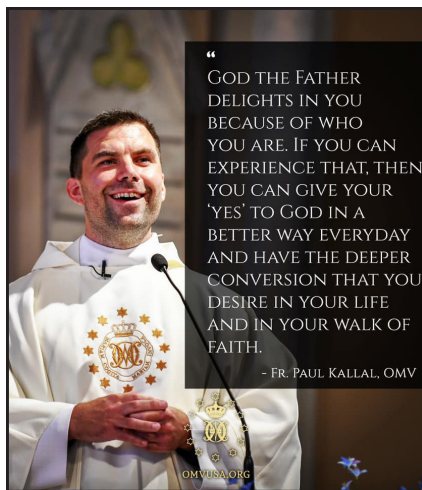

MAY ROSARY – Pray with us!

Pray the rosary with your own family and our Parish Family! During the month of May ~ the month of our Lady, we will meet each Saturday following the 5:15pm Mass to pray the Rosary. The first Saturday of May we will hold the rosary inside the church. The other Saturday evenings of May the rosary will be prayed in the grotto area, which is behind the church and rectory. What a wonderful time to come together to pray to our Lord and honor our Mother Mary. All are invited! Mothers' Day is coming up – attend Mass with your mother and pray the rosary together!

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE AND ALL MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

Wuellner

Today! FAREWELL, FR. PAUL! And PLEASE JOIN US

Please join us today, after the 11am Mass in Suddes Hall for a luncheon to honor Fr. Paul Kallal's service to us here at St. Mary's and Marquette Catholic High School and to wish him well as he begins serving as the new Vocation Director for the Oblates of the Virgin Mary. We are certainly going to miss him, but the one upside for us is that we know in this new role he will be traveling, and so St. Mary's will receive regular visits from him which we will be looking forward to! Please join us for lunch and give your best wishes to Fr. Paul!

DISCIPLES ARE STEWARDS

How many times does Jesus say, "Follow me" in the Gospels? Almost more than we can count. When we realize He has saved us from our sins by offering His life on the cross, our hearts well up, crying out, "How can I ever repay you?" And Jesus always responds: "You, follow me," walking in His footsteps, both literally and figuratively. One who follows the Lord is called a disciple. The discipleship way of life requires one's total commitment - even though there may be times you are not performing charitable works or not actively at prayer in church, your identity as a disciple is firm. It also takes the total pledge of all your gifts, material, spiritual, and personal. Stewardship is connected directly to discipleship, and is expressed in the works of formation and education, prayer, hospitality, and service. We seek greater understanding of our faith and share it with others. We are faithful to daily prayer and the obligation to attend Mass. We welcome others to share the journey through life with faith, participating in the life of our parish. And we put our gifts at the service of our fellow parishioners and the wider community. How is Jesus calling you to be more engaged as a disciple? Pray about it!

Congratulations to

Zachary Leehr and Kari Westbrook

who were united in the sacrament of Holy Matrimony on the 29th of April. We offer our best wishes and prayers that the peace of Christ may live always in their hearts and in their home!

Banns of Marriage

2nd announcement between

Josh Crawford and Emilie Harrison

Dear St. Mary's Families, Staff and Parishioners,

I wanted to share some sentiments as my chapter in life at St. Mary's is ending. It has been an honor and privilege to be the Pre-K 3 teacher for the past 8 years. I am so thankful that I was able to sow seeds of faith throughout my time at St. Mary's. I always pray that the little ones God entrusted me with were able to feel His love through me.

The preschool years are a tremendous time of growth and development. I give all the glory to Jesus as He gave me the patience, strength, and endurance because it is no secret that tiny humans can be a bit challenging at times! However, while there are always challenges in teaching young children, my life has been enriched beyond measure from each student that I have taught. These tiny humans are adorable, precious, funny, uninhibited, curious and full of energy. Each class has offered memories that I will carry with me forever.

I have developed wonderful relationships with families within the school and many will always be near and dear to my heart. I want to thank the staff and the Sisters from the Convent for their support over the years. Moreover, I could not have done this job without the Lord sending me the most wonderful and patient assistants as my aides. The Alton community is extremely fortunate to have St. Mary's school to honor children in their academic and spiritual journey in life and I am very grateful to have been a part of the St. Mary's school family.

God Bless you all!

In Christ,

Mrs. Chris Peuterbaugh

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

You are invited to a historical diocesan-wide celebration at the BOS Center in Springfield – To celebrate the Diocesan Year of the Eucharist and the 100th anniversary of the transfer of the See city from Alton to Springfield, the Eucharistic Congress is taking place Saturday, October 28 at the BOS Center in Springfield. This dynamic experience will include nationally recognized Catholic speakers, adoration, confession, and Mass. The arena will be packed with thousands of Catholics from across the diocese. To attend, contact the parish office as each parish in the diocese is given a specific number of available seats. You can inquire about reserving a seat through the parish office starting July 1, or if you are interested in volunteering, you can register now! For more information on the event or volunteering or financially supporting/sponsoring the event, visit dio.org.

PRAYER CORNER

Lord, Teach Me

*Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.
Amen.*

Visit the Cathedral in Springfield or Ss. Peter and Paul Church in Alton, receive an indulgence! – The diocesan-wide Year of the Eucharist going on now has a heavenly treasure of our Catholic faith attached to it. Bishop Thomas John Paprocki received permission from the Holy See, granting a plenary indulgence to those who make a pilgrimage to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield or Ss. Peter and Paul Church in Alton (the "Old Cathedral") now through Dec. 8. One must also partake in the other usual conditions to receive this indulgence by going to Confession, receiving the Eucharist, and saying prayers for the intention of the Pope. These acts "may be carried out several days preceding or following the performance of the prescribed works. But it is more fitting that communion and the prayer for the pope's intentions take place on the day the work is performed" (Handbook of Indulgences, Norms for Indulgences, 23.3). An indulgence a gift and grace that remits the temporal punishment due to a sin.
