Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

This Sunday

Trinity Sunday – The Sunday following Pentecost is the day when we followers of Christ think about the faith we hold. We hold certain truths – and the Creed which we recite together each Sunday lists our basic beliefs. The Trinity is our basic Christian doctrine, and stands for all doctrines. Today's Mass gives Scriptural evidence for our belief in the mystery of the Trinity. Pay special attention to all the beautiful prayers of today's Mass! The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first divine Person; the Son is the second divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But we submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith. Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a seal or a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension, the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler.

Next Sunday

Corpus Christi – The Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally known by its Latin title, Corpus Christi. It is an occasion every year to remember especially what a great gift Jesus left us in the Holy Eucharist – the abiding sign of His Redemption and His Presence among us.

Corpus Christi is a day when the Church pulls out all the stops. Many parishes organize Eucharistic processions through the streets. There the Eucharistic Lord, held in the monstrance by the priest, is escorted by candles, canopies, incense, choirs, altar servers, and worshipers. And there are many beautiful Eucharistic hymns from the Church's tradition that are sung with particular love on this great feast. One of these is Tantum Ergo written by St. Thomas Aquinas when this feast was first instituted. Reading, praying, and singing the words is a great way to immerse ourselves in the saving mystery of Christ's Body and Blood and prepare ourselves for the great feast next weekend. The following are the English words to Tantum Ergo; let us spend some time this week praying and singing:

*Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail!
Over ancient forms of worship
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith will tell us Christ is present,
When our human senses fail.*

*To the everlasting Father,
And the Son who made us free,
And the Spirit, God proceeding
From them each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might and endless majesty! Amen.*

PLEASE BE GENEROUS THIS WEEK WITH THE MISSIONARY PRIEST'S APPEAL.
THE 2ND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND WILL BE FOR THE SUPPORT OF OUR SCHOOL.

If you have submitted a name for prayers in the bulletin they will remain for one month. If you would like to ask the parish to continue praying, please let the parish office know by calling (618) 465-4284. Thank you for your prayers!

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9 ~ 2 Corinthians 13:11-13 ~ John 3:16-18

Focus: The Trinity is a mystery of faith and a communion of love.

Today's feast celebrates one of the greatest mysteries of our faith: One God, made up of three persons sharing one divine substance – the Trinity. It is through God's self-revelation to us through Jesus Christ and His Paschal Mystery that we come to know the Triune God from whom all life flows. God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

In the first reading, God proclaims Himself to Moses as the gracious, merciful, and loving God of Israel. In the second reading, Paul instructs the Corinthian community to live in encouragement, agreement, love, and peace, and ends with a blessing of the Trinity. John proclaims in the Gospel that God gave the world his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him ... might have eternal life.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO – THE CREEDS

THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

HEAVEN AND EARTH

330 Christ is the center of the angelic world. They are his angels: "When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him. . ." They belong to him because they were created through and for him: "for in him all things were created in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities - all things were created through him and for him." They belong to him still more because he has made them messengers of his saving plan: "Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to serve, for the sake of those who are to obtain salvation?"

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE AND ALL MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

MISSION COOPERATION PLAN - 2023 DIOCESE OF SIVAGANGAI, INDIA

Please welcome Rev. Tamil Selvam Jeyaraj, a missionary priest from INDIA who is currently serving in the diocese of St. Petersburg, FL, who is here at St. Mary's this weekend to make a mission appeal for his home diocese in India. This appeal will help:

- To proclaim the Gospel by supporting their ministries of Evangelization.
- To help the seminarians in their formation to the priesthood.
- To educate the children, heal the sick, provide them with a safe environment and healthy food, and promote holistic education in the schools and orphanages located in poverty-stricken areas.
- To finance the setting up of infrastructure, and to support the operation of the schools and orphanages by building classrooms and most importantly sanitation blocks (bathrooms & toilets) which are lacking in many of their schools.

It is God's work, but it is in our hands. Please, be generous to make this mission more successful.

Friendly Reminder . . .

Please refrain from parking in the Honke Building upper lot which is immediately across Henry Street from the church. We want to be good neighbors! The lower lot (on the other side of the lot nearest to us) is still okay to park in. We also have our own parking lots at the corners of Henry & 3rd (The Square) and Langdon & 3rd and Langdon & 4th which you may use. Thank you for understanding.

PRAYER CORNER

A Prayer to the Holy Trinity

O my God, Trinity whom I adore, help me to forget myself entirely that I may be established in You as still and as peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity.

May nothing trouble my peace or make me leave You, O my Unchanging One, but may each minute carry me further into the depths of Your Mystery.

Give peace to my soul; make it Your Heaven, Your beloved dwelling and Your resting place. May I never leave You there alone but be wholly present, my faith wholly vigilant, wholly adoring, and wholly surrendered to Your creative Action. Amen.
