Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

O Eternal Truth, true love and beloved eternity

Urged to reflect upon myself, I entered under your guidance the innermost places of my being; but only because you had become my helper was I able to do so. I entered, then, and with the vision of my spirit, such as it was, I saw the incommutable light far above my spiritual ken and transcending my mind: not this common light which every carnal eye can see, nor any light of the same order; but greater, as though this common light were shining much more powerfully, far more brightly, and so extensively as to fill the universe. The light I saw was not the common light at all, but something different, utterly different, from all those things. Nor was it higher than my mind in the sense that oil floats on water or the sky is above the earth; it was exalted because this very light made me, and I was below it because by it I was made. Anyone who knows truth knows this light.

O eternal Truth, true Love, and beloved Eternity, you are my God, and for you I sigh day and night. As I first began to know you, you lifted me up and showed me that, while that which I might see exists indeed, I was not yet capable of seeing it. Your rays beamed intensely on me, beating back my feeble gaze, and I trembled with love and dread. I knew myself to be far away from you in a region of unlikeness, and I seemed to hear your voice from on high: "I am the food of the mature: grow, then, and you shall eat me. You will not change me into yourself like bodily food; but you will be changed into me".

Accordingly I looked for a way to gain the strength I needed to enjoy you, but I did not find it until I embraced the mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus, who is also God, supreme over all things and blessed for ever. He called out, proclaiming I am the Way and Truth and the Life, nor had I known him as the food which, though I was not yet strong enough to eat it, he had mingled with our flesh, for the Word became flesh so that your Wisdom, through whom you created all things, might become for us the milk adapted to our infancy.

Late have I loved you, Beauty so ancient and so new, late have I loved you! Lo, you were within, but I outside, seeking there for you, and upon the shapely things you have made I rushed headlong – I, misshapen. You were with me, but I was not with you. They held me back far from you, those things which would have no being, were they not in you. You called, shouted, broke through my deafness; you flared, blazed, banished my blindness; you lavished your fragrance, I gasped; and now I pant for you; I tasted you, and now I hunger and thirst; you touched me, and I burned for your peace.

From the Confessions of St Augustine
(Lib. 7, 10, 18; 10, 27: CSEL 33, 157-163, 255)

THE 22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 20:7-9 ~ Romans 12:1-2 ~ Matthew 16:21-27

Focus: Take up [your] cross, and follow me.

Jesus began to explain to His disciples that He would have to suffer, die, and be raised on the third day. The disciples did not immediately understand, but we know that those who wish to follow Jesus into eternal life must take up their cross as well. For whoever loses their life for Jesus' sake will find it.

In the first reading, Jeremiah bemoans the suffering he endures because of his faithfulness to the word of the Lord. In the reading from Romans, we are urged to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice and be transformed. In the Gospel, Jesus urges His disciples to take up their cross and follow Him.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE BIBLE STUDY!

Join Fr. Chris this fall for The Great Adventure Bible Study!

How: Contact the parish office to register. $40 for material.

Where: St. Mary's Parish Center, 1015 Milton Rd.

When: Beginning, Tuesday, October 24, 7pm

This Bible Timeline® study program takes you on a guided journey through salvation history. Presenter Jeff Cavins will show you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and will give you the keys to understanding the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. It will transform how you read the Bible and how you hear it proclaimed at Mass!

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

You are invited to a historical diocesan-wide celebration at the BOS Center in Springfield – To celebrate the Diocesan Year of the Eucharist and the 100th anniversary of the transfer of the See city from Alton to Springfield, the Eucharistic Congress is taking place Saturday, October 28 at the BOS Center in Springfield. This dynamic experience will include nationally recognized Catholic speakers such as Scott Hahn and, locally, our very own Sr. M. Karolyn, FSGM; Catholic vendors; adoration; confession; Mass; and more. The arena will be packed with thousands of Catholics from across the diocese. To attend, call or email the parish office before Sept 15 as each parish in the diocese is given a specific number of available seats. If you email the office (carolyn@stmarysalton.com), please include the name of each attendee, their emails, cell phone #s, and if anyone has a disability. For more information on the event, the schedule, or financially supporting/sponsoring the event, visit dio.org.

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer For Discipleship

Lord Jesus Christ, we pray for the spirit of discipleship among us. We want to be Your followers who know You, Love You, Serve You, Praise and Glorify You. Lord Jesus, help us to teach our children the good fruits of being Your disciples so that Your harvest field may have enough laborers.

Amen.
