ALL SAINTS' DAY

NOVEMBER 1 - HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

During the first three centuries of Christianity the Church frequently had to operate "underground" due to the persecutions of the Roman state against her. During these periods there were many martyrs who died for their faith in Jesus Christ. The most renowned of these were honored locally by the preservation of the relics (if available) and by the celebration of the anniversary of their death, as a feast in honor of their birth into eternal life. As time passed, neighboring dioceses would honor each other's martyrs and even exchange relics for veneration, the way 1st century Christians kept clothes and handkerchiefs touched by St. Paul (Acts 19:12)

At the end of the 3rd century and the beginning of the fourth the most vicious of all persecutions occurred, that of the emperor Diocletian (284-305). The martyrs became so many that in some places it was impossible to commemorate even the most significant of them. The need for a common feast of all martyrs was becoming evident. This common feast became a reality in some places, but on various dates, as early as the middle of the fourth century. As far as Roman practice goes it is known that on 13 May 609 or 610, Pope Boniface IV consecrated the ancient Roman Pantheon as a temple of the Blessed Virgin and All Martyrs. Beginning with Gregory III (731-741) the celebration of a feast of All Saints was commemorated at St Peter's on November 1. Gregory IV (827-844) extended this feast to the entire Church. The feast was also extended to those saints who led heroic lives, but were not called to die for the faith.

This feast day grew out of the love and devotion of God's people. It is so much a part of ourselves to feel gratitude for and to honor the saints. We mean all of the women, men and children who have died and are now in heaven. Some passed through purgatory to be purified for the Lord's presence. They stayed until the moment when they were ready to see God. They are with Him now forever. Some saints have been singled out for their own feast day. The Church offers their witness of heroic, joyful lives for Jesus. But there aren't enough days of the year to fit all the countless saints who walked through this life witnessing to Jesus. Some kept close to the Lord all their lives. Others found Him along the way. Some led good lives without major difficulties. Others made big mistakes, but found the Lord on the road of repentance and genuine sorrow.

They made it! We celebrate their journey that led to eternal happiness with God. We celebrate our own family members, relatives, neighbors and friends whom we believe to be in Heaven. Today we can rejoice in our hearts with all the saints in Heaven. We can make up our own prayer to them, thanking them for the witness of their lives. We can thank them, too, for helping us overcome our difficulties and temptations. We ask them to help us on our own journey through life.

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give You thanks. Today we keep the festival of Your holy city, the heavenly Jerusalem, our mother. Around Your throne the saints, our brothers and sisters, sing Your praise for ever. Their glory fills us with joy, and their communion with us in Your Church gives us inspiration and strength, as we hasten on our pilgrimage of faith, eager to meet them.

Please contact the parish office if you need prayers or want to have prayers said for a relative or friend. Several times a year when the list gets long, we will begin again with a new list after a notice in the bulletin; at that time simply let the parish office know if you still require prayers. Our new office emails are: carolyn@stmarysalton.com and marci@stmarysalton.com

THE 30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 25:6-10a ~ Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 ~ Matthew 22:1-14

FOCUS: With Christ on our side, we are no longer slaves to sin but heirs to the kingdom of heaven.

Healing is central to Jesus' message and ministry. In today's Gospel he heals a crippled woman, a devoted daughter of Abraham. But this is not just a physical healing, it is equally a spiritual healing. Now this woman can stand upright before God and others and enjoy all this world offers, and do so with hope and joy in her heart.

Saint Paul uses the image of adoption to describe how God has called and chosen us to be his sons and daughters and given us the right to address him as Abba, Father. Jesus heals the crippled woman and earns the ire of the leader of the synagogue. But he defends his actions, and the people rejoice.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO - THE CREEDS THE WORLD WAS CREATED FOR THE GLORY OF GOD MAN

357 Being in the image of God the human individual possesses the dignity of a person, who is not just something, but someone. He is capable of self-knowledge, of self-possession and of freely giving himself and entering into communion with other persons. And he is called by grace to a covenant with his Creator, to offer him a response of faith and love that no other creature can give in his stead.

OKTOBERFEST BASKET UPDATE

Our surveillance cameras picked up an irregularity in one of the basket raffle items --- the "Framed $100.00 Cash" basket. On Saturday night, a child tampered with the raffle tickets in the $100.00 Framed Cash basket.

Due to this irregularity, those who deposited tickets for that framed cash basket can stop by the parish office during office hours and claim a refund for the tickets deposited. This refund will be available through the month of November.

St. Mary's apologizes for this issue, and corrective measures will be implemented so that this will not happen in the future.

UPDATE!

GREAT ADVENTURE BIBLE STUDY

There will be no study on October 31 because of the Halloween Parade. Class will resume November 7.

FORMED offers dozens of video courses with study guides that help you learn about the bible, the sacraments of marriage, confession, Eucharist, confirmation, and Catholic morality, including special topics like parenting and specific resources for youth. Watch full-length movies of lives of the saints! The holiness of their lives of heroic virtue will inspire you to follow their example in your own circumstances. You will also find a lot of children's content to enjoy with your kids on family night! To learn more, visit our FORMED page at www.stmarysalton.com/formed. If you don't have a FORMED account, you can create one through the FORMED link; make sure to use the St. Mary's link above for a free account.

NEW NUMBER? NEW ADDRESS?

In trying to reach some of our parishioners, we notice that often people who are registered with St. Mary's did so with a landline phone number; now many people have done away with their landlines and only have cell phone numbers. If you have a new phone number, you've changed your address, you have never registered your email address or have a new email address, please drop a line to the parish office! We'd love to have your registry updated. Also, if you are attending St. Mary's regularly and have never registered, please let us know. Contact us at carolyn@stmarysalton.com or marci@stmarysalton.com. You can even drop a note in the collection basket for us! Thank you!
